MRS. ANNIE JAMESON

The death of Mrs. Annie Jameson, widow of the late Samuel Jameson, occurred at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roach of St. Mary's Road, on Monday, January 7th, 1963, after a long illness.

The deceased was born in Millington. Eighty-eight years ago and was the last surviving member of the family of Laughlin McLaughlin and Jessie MacLeod.

After her marriage to James Jameson she came to Charlottetown where, with the exception of some years spent in Georgetown, she lived the remainder of her life.

Her husband predeceased her twenty-one years ago. She is survived by one son Harry, of Quincy, Mass.; three daughters, Mrs. Frank Roach of St. Mary's Road; Mrs. Herbert Johnston of Haverhill, Mass., and Mrs. Alice Creed of Georgetown. Two sons, Austin and David and a daughter Mary, died some years ago.

Her funeral took place on January tenth at St. Paul's Church, Georgetown, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Mullally. Interment was in the church cemetery. The pallbearers were Leo Daley, William Jameson, Philip Jameson, Godfrey Jameson, Alex Jameson and John W. Jameson.

FREEMAN ROBERTSON

The community of Poplar Point, lost one of its oldest residents when Freeman Robertson passed away at his home on November 23rd, 1962. In failing health for more than a year he was cared for by his son Leslie, Lila and Garth, who did all that was possible.

He will be missed in the home by old and young alike.

Born February 14th, 1880 in Poplar Point, son of the late Samuel and Sara (Dingwell) Robertson.

He is survived by two daughters Sylvia and Ruth, both of Toronto, one son Leslie at home, two grandchildren Garth and Shirley, (Mrs. Garfield Robbins) Midgell, one brother William H., Poplar Point and three great-grandchildren Glenda, Brenda and Gary Robbins.

His wife predeceased him by some twelve years, also three sisters and one brother.

The funeral was held Monday, November 26th, under the direction of the Dingwell Funeral Home. Souris, to Annandale United Church for service, officiating pastor Rev. R. Poolington. Hymns sung were: "The Lord Is My Shepherd", "Rock Of Ages", and "Jesus Lover Of My Soul". A duet "Above The Bright Blue", was rendered by Mr. Roy Howlett and Mr. Herbert MacLeod. Mrs. A.J. McFarlane was organist.

Interment was in Annandale cemetery. Pallbearers were: Roy Howlett, James Banks, William Banks, Reginald Mooney, Andrew Banks and Roy Mills.

Floral tribute: Pillow — The family.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Freeman Robertson express sincere thanks to their many friends and neighbors, Dr. McIntyre and all who in any way helped during their time of trouble, also to those who sent messages and cards of sympathy.

Two Gunmen Are Charged In Boston

BOSTON (AP) —Two tough Boston gunmen were charged here with murder in what police described as a love-triangle slaying of a young married woman and her two-year-old son.

Rocco Ballirо, 28, an escaped convict, and Albert Cioeco, 33, who has a long police record, were charged. A third man, identified as Ballirо's brother Salvatore, is the object of a wide manhunt in connection with the slayings.

Mrs. Toby Zimmerman Wagner, 21, and her son Mark were killed during a furious gun battle between three gunmen and three policemen at 2 a.m. Saturday.

Scene of the shooting was a Roxbury apartment in which police were staked out after Ballirо allegedly telephoned Mrs. Wagner that he was on the way there.

Police said a romance between Rocco Ballirо and Mrs. Wagner while her husband was in prison turned into jealousy when the husband was released from Concord Reformatory last Friday.

Increase Noted In Delinquency

OTTAWA (CP) — Juvenile delinquency showed a modest increase in Canada in 1961 compared with 1960 but the Information Bureau of Statistics says allowances should be made for population growth and better collection of statistics.

Number of children under 16 convicted for breaches of the criminal code, federal and provincial statutes and municipal bylaws rose to 13,559, up 8.3 per cent over the 12,331 in 1960.

A total of 16,975 juveniles appeared in court in the year as against 16,009 a year earlier. Appearances by boys rose to 15,024 from 14,137 and girls to 1,952 from 1,872.

"PERCY DEAN HOWATT"

The death occurred after a short illness in the Prince County Hospital of Percy Dean Howatt, of North Grafton. Born at Grafton 73 years ago, son of the late Bradford D. Howatt and Clara Donna Palmer. He leaves to mourn his passing his wife Jessie Dean Howatt of Charlottetown. The funeral service was held in the Tryon United Church on January 2nd 1963. The Rev. W.B. MacPhail of Wellington and the Rev. W.A. Maxwell of Tryon officiated. Quartet D.D. were the officiating clergymen. Two Hymns "The Lord's my Shepherd" "And now the Labours Of Life is over," were tenderly sung by the choir, under the direction of Arlene Carr, and the favorite Hymn of the deceased "Will your Anchor Hold" was nicely rendered by the Male Quartet.

The Pallbearers were Emerson Matheson, Walter Parsons, Francis Folland, Willard Moase, George Dunning, Reginald Haslam.

Interment was in the Peoples Cemetery.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP) — What gave every prospect of being a substantial stock market decline was pared greatly Tuesday as aerospace issues paced a late recovery drive. The price tone was irregularly lower. Trading was fairly active.

Steel shares selling was diminishing in the afternoon and some prices were firmer when news came that McDonnell Aircraft had received an air force order for more than 1,000 Phantom jet planes, involving an eventual purchase price of about $1,700,000,000.

McDonnell erased a fractional loss and advanced ¾ to 59¾ on 29,000 shares, making it 12th most active issue. Douglas Aircraft, which has about $30,000,000 in subcontracts for the plane, gained ⅞.

The Dow Jones industrial average, down 6.2.3 at noon, ended the day with a loss of only .71 at 681.20.

Volume was 4,050,000 shares compared with 3,670,000 Monday.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dipped 4 to 255.6.

Steels still maintained a generally lower trend. This week's gain in steel output did not recoup the loss of the previous week. U.S. Steel was active and off ⅛. Jones and Laughlin dropped ⅜ but Bethlehem gained ⅛.

Among Canadian issues, McIntyre Porcupine advanced ¾ and Dome Mines ⅝. International Nickel fell 1⅛, Hudson Bay Mining ½ and Walker Gooderham and Aluminum Ltd. ¼ apiece.

Prices on the American Exchange were unevenly lower on volume of 1,160,000 shares compared with 1,070,000. Monday. Actively traded Brazilian Traction gained ¾ and Jupiter Corp. ⅛.

Closing sales: Industrials $13,800; mines and oils 672,700.

TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — Golds showed the only life in an otherwise sagging stock market Tuesday.

By mid-afternoon, the golds had climbed almost two points on index to their highest level since September. By the close, however, they had given up some gains.

Industrials dropped 3½ points and base metals almost a point.

Best among the golds were Campbell Red Lake, Dome Mines and Giant Yellowknife, all showing gains ranging to 1⅜ and all closing at post-1961 highs.

ATLAS TRADES HEAVILY

Atlas Steel continued to trade vigorously, closing down fractional at 37, with a volume of more than 43,000 shares.

Brazilian Traction, on a turnover of 9,000 shares, gained 80 cents to $4.40, having earlier touched a 1962-63 peak of $4.45.

Talk swirled of the possibility that an announcement will soon be made concerning the Brazilian government's plan to merge Brazilian Telephone, a subsidiary of Brazilian Traction.

On the exchange index, industrials dropped 3.56 to 595.08 base metals .98 to 199.81 and western oils .45 to 115 62. Golds rose 1.61 to 92.98. Closing volume was 3,992,000 shares compared with 3,624,000 Monday.

Among base metals, Falconbridge dropped ¾, International Nickel 1¼ and Hudson Bay Mining ¼. Noranda rose ⅛ and Denison ⅜.

Speculatives featured heavy trading in Bibis and Deer Horn, both of which climbed to their best prices since 1961 before easing slightly.

In western oils, Home A, Home B and Pacific Petroleum all dipped in a ⅛ to ¼ range. Calgary and Edmonton gained ½ and Canada South.rn Petroleums 35 cents to $4.30.
