Campers Flock To National Park

Overflow camp ground areas have been opened at the National Park this week as the regular fully-serviced areas at Stanhope and Cavendish are unable to meet the demand, it was learned yesterday from Eric Kipping, superintendent of the P.E.I. National Park.

The overflow areas at Cape Turner, in the Rustico area, and at Brackley were opened as soon as it was learned that private camp grounds in the area were also full, it was explained.

PRIVATE GROUNDS

The private grounds include Keith Jenkins' Stanhope Bay Park, with 100 units, and Reagh Bagnall's Vacationland Trailer Park, with service for 15 trailer units.

There are more people camping at the Park this year than there were last year, observed Mr. Kipping, who said there's probably 700 people in the Stanhope grounds, at a conservative estimate of 4 people to a unit. There are "well over 1,000 people" in the Cavendish camp grounds, and 400 to 500 people in the overflow areas.

In addition, there are 400 to 500 people in the Jenkins area as well as those in the Bagnall trailer setup, he observed.

The overflow demand with the good weather of this week is in contrast to the disappointing, earlier experiences, when continued cold and wet weather sent many campers home because of the discomfort caused by the weather.

to do" about Canada and its history, noting that Canadian history was the least popular subject among students. Few people, he said, know where Sir John A. MacDonald is buried at Kingston, Ont., and that not many people can name more than two or three of the Fathers of Confederation.

He said there was a Canadian history and that it was "a most interesting one and well worth standing up for."

He said that every time "we come into a gathering we pledge our faith to Canada by singing 'O Canada'. Mr. MacKinnon said that the country was nothing more than an interesting chowder, which when mixed in 1867 became Canada.

Speaking on politics, Dr. MacKinnon said that Canada put on 11 political displays, the federal government and a government for each of the 10 provinces.

"Canadians are living in a democracy and we are going to have to stand on guard for thee" he said.

PECULIAR STRUCTURE

He said Canada had a peculiar structure of government but it was the democratic way of doing things.

"We appoint a group of men and send them to the legislature to do their best. We appoint another group of men to heckle them and try to get themselves into the legislature.

"It would seem rather odd if we were suffering from an acute disease and we called in a teacher or if we wanted spiritual advice and called in an architect. But is what we are doing every time we appoint a government. We appoint someone to end our government that has not had any experience," Dr. MacKinnon noted.

The guest speaker was introduced by Dr. George Dewar, minister of education for the province, and thanked by S. G. McCurdy, St. John's Nfld, president of the Canadian Teachers' Federation.

Premier Walter R. Shaw also spoke briefly and conveyed a welcome to the teachers on behalf of the Government of Prince Edward Island.

YESTERDAY'S SESSIONS

Moving into the second day of the four-day 41st annual meeting of the federation, which opened Tuesday night, the teachers began sessions yesterday morning with the appointment of committees and heard a number of reports.

Among suggestions contained in the report of the board of directors passed by the delegates were a number of activities designed to improve relations and services with the Canadian Teachers' Federation affiliates in attendance of the federation's president at affiliate meetings: tours of their offices by the secretary and improved channels of communication.

Giving his report at a series of workshop meetings, chairman Wesley H. Janzen of the education finance committee said a campaign will begin next fall to convince the public that there are "vast inequalities" in Canada's educational opportunities.

Mr. Janzen said a campaign will also be planned in favor of the federal support for education.

The meeting ends Friday with the election of officers.

MORNING SESSION

At a morning session the new constitution and bylaws was expressed by delegates. A suggestion by the board of directors was adopted that a committee should study the situation and initiate and receive proposed amendments.

Internal matters occupied the session, the first of the general meeting.

TEACHERS TO NIGERIA

Gerald Nason, in his secretary's report, noted that two Canadian teachers will go to Nigeria this summer to train Nigerian teachers at summer school.

Membership in the federation now stands at 116,308, an increase of 6,408 over the previous year. His report outlined general activities of the CTF during 1961-62.

Suggestions by the secretary included analysis of CTF activities in reports prepared by committees, periodic establishment of priority areas, and several changes as to types and times of meetings.

Dr. Floyd G. Robinson, director, gave a detailed report of the research division, making the suggestion that reports should go beyond mere facts and contain critical judgments.

He also noted that no one is responsible in the country for the development of new ideas, experiments or implementation of them.

DURING THE marching ceremony of the famed RCMP Band in Montague yesterday, Mayor Bruce Yeo, accompanied by Inspector A. S. McNeil, commanding "L" Division, took the salute in the march past. Supt. E. J. Lydall is superintendent of music for the RCMP and Staff-Sgt. H. A. Blackman is the bandmaster.

RCMP Band Attracts Large Crowds In Kings

MONTAGUE — The scarlet-tunicated Royal Canadian Mounted Police Band performed before enthusiastic audiences in Montague and Souris yesterday afternoon and last evening. More than a 1,000 turned out in Souris last evening for the marching ceremony and concert.

The crowd although not as large in Montague was just as enthusiastic with many tourists and other visitors to the province swelling the numbers witnessing the colorful ceremony, performed in bright sunshine. It was one of the most enjoyable events of the summer season.

At both Montague and Souris the band performed its famed precision marching ceremony and a demonstration by the drum corps drew the loudest applause at both places.

Some of the most popular numbers at Montague were two trombone and trumpet features, Fascination, St. Louis Blues march, Loveliest Night of the Year and Mariette. Other marches included Invercargill, RCMP regimental march, Cavalry Brigade and Legat Afoot.

At Souris where the band played with a stiff wind blowing directly in faces of the bandsmen, Scotland the Brave, sung by Sgt. Jack Cook, was one of the most popular numbers. He also sang both national anthems.

Other selections included: Yellow Bird, Three Trumpeteers, Parisian Street Dance and others.

Toronto—Market well down; moderate trading.

New York—Market lower; decline continues.

Montreal — Marker generally lower; moderate trading.

CURRENCY

MONTREAL (CP)—The U.S. dollar closed at a premium of 7⅛ per cent in terms of Canadian funds, unchanged from the previous close. Pound sterling closed at $3.02⅞, up 1-16.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—Taking a fairly sharp loss, the stock market Wednesday extended its losing streak through the fourth straight session. Trading was moderate.

An estimated $4,000,000,000 was clipped from the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange, based on the fall in the Associated Press average.

Polaroid, which reported a drop in second quarter profits, was the most active issue, falling 13¼ to 97 on 182,400 shares.

Brokers saw the decline as another step in a kind of corrective reaction from what was virtually a straight-line recovery of nearly three weeks.

Trading was heavy in the morning and the ticker tape lagged behind transactions in a spillover of selling from the weakness that developed late in the previous session. In the afternoon, however, dealings were moderate.

The Dow Jones industrial average dropped 6.61 to 571.24.

Once again, the backdrop of economic news was not encouraging. Manufacturers' new orders of durable goods fell in June for the fifth straight month falling 3½ per cent below May. The price of scrap copper was cut.

The AP 60-stock average fell 2.80 to 213.80. Like Tuesday's decline, it was the sharpest since the 3.40 drop of June 22.

Volume was 3,620,000 shares compared with 3,500,000 Tuesday.

Among Canadian stocks traded on the New York Stock Exchange International Nickel dropped 1⅛; Aluminium Ltd. ⅝; Walker Gooderham ⅛; Hudson Bay Mining ⅝; Distillers Seagrams ¼. McIntyre Porcupine added ¼ and Dome Mines ⅛.

American Stock Exchange prices declined on volume of 830,000, about the same as Tuesday. Preston added ¼, Molybdenite ⅛, Eureka 1-32. Shawinigan lost ½ and Scurry Rainbow Oil ¼.
