Rangers Defeat Jr. Saints 7-4

Rogers Rangers lead by a four goal second period, defeated St. Dunstan's Junior 7-3 at the Charlottetown Forum last night.

The game a penalty filed one, was evenly fought throughout the first period with some great saves by both goalies. The St. Dunstan's team opened the scoring when Cy MacDonald noted one at 7:28. The Rangers fought back and at 8:45 Jamie Kennedy received a pass from Jim Cullen to tie the score. Just after the mid-way point of the period Gallant tallied to put the Saints ahead for the last time in the game as his drive went in off the out stretched glove of Reed the Rangers netminder. Only 21 seconds later Vince MacDougall sank one to tie the score.

In the second period the Rangers fired four unanswered markers and took a 6-2 lead into the final period. Although the Red and White squad didn't score in this period they did make things hot and heavy for the Rangers as time and time again they swept in with a two one one or a three on one break only to be stopped by some brilliand work from the Ranger goaltender.

Although there were only two goals scored in the third period this period held some of the best hockey of the night. The Rangers scored their final tally at 6:36 when Vince MacDougall took passes from Arnold MacLeod and Frank Robinson and fired a low shot into the far corner of the net.

The Juniors came right back and added their final marker at 8:04 when Cy MacDonald scored.

Combines Down RCAF Eagles

Enman Drug Combines handed RCAF Eagles their first set back of the season 7-4 in a Prince County Hockey League game at the Air Base last night. The Eagles had won five straight games. The Combines are now 2-3 on the year.

Combine's forward Dave Martin took advantage of a slow Eagles defence and scored a first period hat trick to spark the attack. Aided by his shifty winger's output Enman Drug built up a 5-0 lead than almost blew it on the help of two costly penalties.

'Marty' Martin tallied at 15.26 of the middle period and from there the Eagles closed out the game with a rush, scoring another three to make it 5-4 but their attack stalled. Doug Tucker hustled in two of the goals in 13 seconds in the third period and Martin added the other one. Combines centreman Greg Deighan shot a pair of late third period goals to put the game out of reach.

SUMMARY

First Period: 1. Combines — D. Martin (W. Gallant) 1.21; 2. Combines — D. Martin (W. Gallant) 7.11; 3. Combines — D. Martin (unassisted) 17.35; 4. Combines — MacLeod (Poirier) 18.45.

HOCKEY'S MEN OF EXPERIENCE

When Ted Lindsay (right) decided to end a four-year retirement and return to the Detroit Red Wings, he became the fourth player in the National Hockey League to play in 1,000 or more games. The others are Lindsay's teammates, Gordie Howe (left) and Bill Gadsby (centre). The fourth is Toronto's Red Kelly. Lindsay's return added a spark to the club, currently holding first place in the league.

Blanchard May Go To S.F. For Billy O'Dell And Shaw

BY JOE REICHLER

HOUSTON (AP) — Chicago's two baseball clubs—the White Sox and the Cubs — swapped players for the first time in their long history Tuesday but another first of more significance may develop at the baseball convention.

New York Yankees and San Francisco Giants are this close to completing a deal that would send outfielder-catcher Johnny Blanchard to the National League club in exchange for pitchers Billy O'Dell and Bob Shaw.

Should this deal be consummated, it would mark the first time the Yankees and their former New York rivals have actually traded players. The Giants did send Johnny Mize to the Yankees back in 1949 but that was a straight said.

The trade between the two Chicago clubs sent pitcher Frank Buamann to the Cubs of the National League in exchange for catcher Jimmie Schaffer.

Earlier in the day two American League clubs—Washington Senators and Cleveland Indians —completed a deal that sent outfielder Chuck Hinton to the Indians in exchange for first-baseman Bob Chance and infielder-outfielder Woodie Held.

TERMED FINEST PLAYERS

"We think we gave a considerable amount of talent to get one of the finest players in the American League," said Cleveland manager Birdie Tebbetts.

He said Hinton gives the Indians a right-handed hitting outfielder who can run as well as hit with power.

"We have been trying to get Hinton for three years." Tebbetts added.

Gil Hodges, manager of the Senators, was just as enthusiastic from his end of the deal.

"We gave up a fine player in Hinton," he said, "but any time you can get two regulars for one, I think you're making an advantageous deal."

Chance, 24, in his rookie season, batted .279 and hit 14 home runs with the Indians. Held, 23, a veteran of 13 seasons in the big leagues, hammered 18 home runs and batted .236.

HAD 11 RUNS

Hinton, 28, batted .274 with 11 home runs in his fourth season with the Senators.

The Chicago deal was not expected to change the course of the two pennant races in 1965.

Baumann, a one-time $115,000 bonus pitcher with Boston Red Sox, had a 0-3 record last season. He spent the last five seasons with the White Sox. His finest season was in 1960 when he had a 13-6 record and led the American League with an earned run average of 2.68. Last year, however, Baumann worked only 32 innings, all in relief, and posted an earned run average of 6.19.

Schaffer, 28, batted .205. He came to the Cubs from St. Louis Cardinals in 1962.

Minor Hockey In Summerside

Minor hockey in Summerside has started again for another year. This year's executive, looking after the kiddies consists of: Howard Waite, chairman; Dr. Jim Saunders, Gordon Kelly, Gerard Bern and Jim MacLean.

This Saturday, all children playing in the minor leagues are asked to bring their equipment and appear at Civic Stadium at 5:30 p.m.

The official opening, by Mayor W. E. Jenkins is at 6:00 p.m. Bob Schurman will emcee the evening's proceedings.

At 6:15 the Mosquitoes play on three rinks and from there each bracket plays accordingly. After, a free skate will be organized for all school children.

One of the features that is inserted in to minor hockey this year will be the game of the week which will have two bantam teams clashing. This game of the week will also feature a three star selection.

It is estimated that 500 people are connected with the minor hockey program in Summerside which also includes the executive. One factor that the governing executive wishes to stress is the fact that every parent should come out and support their boy or boys.

Minor hockey in Summerside is sponsored by the Summerside Recreation Centre.

GOT TO KEEP THIS UP

Birdie Tebbetts, right, manager of the Cleveland Indians, tells the boss, Cabe Paul, left, president of the Cleveland Indians, that you have to keep chin up and the muscles tight to keep that young look. Tebbetts Paul were chatting in the lobby of the hotel where the Minor and Major Leagues are holding their annual Convention. Tebbetts underwent a complete physical recently and was given a clean bill of health to continue managing the Indians in 1965.

Mount Albion Nips Alexandra

In a game in the Sunny Isle Hockey League last night Mount Albion defeated Alexandra by a score of 3-2.

The scoring star for the game was Vanderkaay who scored two goals all in a losing cause.

The scoring for Mount Albion was divided between Trawsdale, Planenoff and Carrier.

Moncton's Larin Is Suspended

NEW GLASGOW (CU) — Goaltender Don Larin of Moncton Hawks of the Maritime Senior Hockey League has been fined $50 for abusing officials during a game in Halifax Sunday night with Schooners. This was announced here Tuesday by League President Harry Trainor.

Earlier Tuesday, R. B. Lenihan of the Moncton club's executive, said Larin had been "indefinitely suspended." Lenihan said the suspension, effective immediately, resulted from Larin's "actions and talk" in the ice in the Sunday night game.

Larin, 20-year-old Cornwall, Ont. native, received a game misconduct penalty after a second-period dispute with referee Hal Lewis over a goal by Schooner's Fred Burke.

Burke's goal gave Halifax a 3-1 lead. Schooners scored five more goals in the third period after Hawks put in Alphie Gaskin as replacement goalie.

Trainor also announced a fine of $10 against Schooner's Hap Hanson for entering the referee's circle to argue a penalty call in a game here Saturday between Halifax and New Glasgow Rangers.

Instructor Is Selected

Dave Boswell, provincial physical education director, contacted us yesterday with some good news for local hockey enthusiasts. Boswell was beaming as he told this columnist that Leighton (Hap) Emms will be the chief instructor at the department of physical education's annual provincial hockey school which is scheduled to be held here Tuesday, December 15, and Wednesday, December 16.

We can well share Dave's enthusiasm over his chief instructor for the annual clinic, as Mr. Emms has devoted the best part of a 40 year lifetime to hockey and during that time has covered every aspect of the game with the exception of refereeing.

Hap played amateur hockey in his home-town of Barrie, Ontario and he turned pro with the old Montreal Maroons to launch a 13-year career in the National Hockey League. Emms spent five years with the Montreal organization, then was traded to the Detroit Red Wings where he enjoyed three brilliant years. Hap was then sold to the New York Americans where he wound up his big time playing career with five full seasons as Manhattan

Following his stint with the New York club he was off to Omaha where he was to take on the dual role of player-coach. Emms suffered a broken leg and concentrated on the coaching end of the game and he has excelled in that role the helm of St. Louis in the American Hockey League and for almost 30 years. After leaving Omaha, he took over at he suddenly resigned his post in the St. Louis loop to return to his native Barrie where he took over the reins of the junior "A" Barrie Flyers.

He handled the Flyers outfit for eight years then became owner-coach and five years ago he moved his Flyers to Niagara Falls where his team has enjoyed great fan support. Emms has brought the Flyers fame, by guiding them to two Memorial Cups, four Eastern Canada titles and six OHA championships. He is credited with sending at least 14 players on to NHL stardom.

Hap has recently taken quite an interest in physical education and has been spending a lot of time conducting hockey clinics. For the past two seasons he has turned the Flyer's coaching chores over to Bill Long, but still supervises player workouts and selects and conditions his players.

This is only part of the story connected with Leighton 'Hap' Emms and we think the local department of physical education is most fortunate in being able to secure a man with such a record as Mr. Emms to conduct their annual hockey clinic.

Tid Bits From Here And There

The Chicago Black Hawks will travel to New York tonight to do battle with the Rangers in the only game scheduled for the National Hockey League. We agree with a fellow columnist that there appears to be trouble brewing for somebody, in the Chicago camp. We think the quicker the Chicago squad gets their supposed differences cleared up the better, as it is ruining the teams chances of winning the Stanley Cup.

Toronto's Frank Mahovlich still doesn't know when he will be allowed to return to action in the National Hockey League, but his doctor has permitted him to attend practice sessions with the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Cal McLish, former major league pitching star, was named pitching coach of Philadelphia Phillies Tuesday. He succeeds Al Widmar, who becomes pitching coach of the Phillies' minor league system.

Cleveland Williams is reported recovering rapidly from a bullet wound he obtained in a scuffle with a police officer early Sunday morning. The officer was attempting to arrest Williams on suspicion of drunken driving.

The St. Dunstan's Varsity hockey team is hard at work at the local rink in preparation for their game this Saturday with the Mount Allison Mounties. The Saints will journey to the Mount Allison campus for the battle. The Mounties walloped Acadia Axemen 8-4 on home ice Saturday.

Willie Pastrano Boxer Of Month

NEW YORK (AP) — Light heavyweight champion Willie Pastrano, the boxing master from Miami, was named Tuesday by the Boxing Writers Association as the 1964 winner of the Edward J. Neil award as fighter of the year.

The honor came to the 29 year-old veteran one day after he stopped Britain's Terry Downes in the 11th round of a title defence in Manchester, England.

It was Pastrano's second defence and the second he has won on a technical knockout since he dethroned Harold Johnson in a controversial 15-rounder at Las Vegas, Nev. 18 months ago.

In his first defence he stopped hard-hitting Gregorio Peralta of Argentina in the sixth round at New Orleans last April 10.

Pastrano will receive the Neil Plaque at the association's annual dinner in New York, Jan. 17.

The Neil trophy is named in honor of the former Associated Press sports writer who was killed while reporting the Spanish Civil War. The trophy is awarded not only for boxing ability but for character and sportsmanship.

Pastrano was a unanimous choice for the award after preliminary voting. Others who were proposed in the first voting for the award were Eder Joire, the bantamweight champion from Brazil; heavyweight champion Cassius Clay of Louisville; lightweight champion Carlos Ortiz of New York, and middleweight contender Jose Torres of New York.
