IN MEMORIAM

MacDOUGALL — In memory of a loving husband and father Samuel MacDougall who passed away Qctober 17th, 1961.

Gone from us but leaving memories,
Death can never take away
Memories that will always linger
While upon this earth we stay
Fondly remembered and sadly missed by wife Mary and family.

MEEK — In loving memory of Mrs. Reagh Meek, French River, P.E.I. who passed away October 17, 1962.

Sweet is the word remembrance,
And dear is the one who is gone.
In memory we will always keep her
As long as the years roll on.
Sadly missed and ever remembered by husband and family.

ADAMS — In loving memory of our dear father, Arthur H. Adams who passed away October 17, 1961.

When for a while we part,
This thought will soothe our pain
That we shall still be joined in heart,
And one day meet again.
Sadly missed, son Keir and family.

WORTH — In loving memory of Mr. Charles Frederick Worth, who passed away October 17, 1959.

We think of you today dear dad
As we have done so often,
And feel once more the sudden blow,
That does not seem to soften.
You couldn't say goodbye to us
Perhaps it was just as well,
We never could have said good-bye
To a dad we loved so well.
Lovingly remembered by son Ralph, Jean and grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Allan Cummings wish to express their sincere thanks to the doctors and nurses of the Charlottetown Hospital, the Cutcliffe

Prison Terms Meted Out To Jail Escapees

Six months to two years were the sentences given to five Queens County jail escapees yesterday in Queens County Magistrate's court. Magistrate James B. Johnston, QC, described the actions of Paul Joseph Pineau and Albert Edward Lannon as a "vicious assault on the jailer", during their escape.

Both are already under two year sentences to the same institution. In the case of Pineau, the two two-year terms are to be served consecutively, while Lannon will serve his one year sentence concurrently with his present two year term.

Magistrate Johnston said he felt he was giving Lannon the same sentence as Pineau as the former had requested a two year term in Dorchester after his one year in Queen's County jail on his previous conviction.

Lloyd James MacLean, Charlottetown, was also sentenced to two years in Dorchester, the sentence to run concurrently with his present six month sentence to Queen's County jail. This accused requested that he be allowed to serve his time in Dorchester rather than Queen's County jail.

David John MacDonald, Charlottetown, was sentenced to one year in Dorchester. Already under a one year sentence to Queen's County jail, he will serve his former sentence also at Dorchester after putting in the year for escaping custody.

David Sylvester Birt, Charlottetown, was given six months in Queen's County jail for his part in the escape. Reasons given by the magistrate for the lighter sentence in this case were that accused had not taken part in the assault on the jailer, and had no adult record of convictions.

Gordon Ralph Bowtie, Charlottetown, elected trial by magistrate, and pleaded guilty to breaking and entering at MacLeod's Service Station. He was remanded to Oct. 21 for sentence.

Defence counsel Gerald R. Fosser, QC, pointed out that the accused had already served three months of a 6 month sentence for an offence alleged to have taken place the same night as the MacLeod break. He termed it "disgraceful" that the second charge had not been laid before this time.

Herbert Thomas Everey, Toronto, was fined $100 and costs or 10 days for impaired driving. Joseph Alvin Gallant, Oyster Bed Bridge, pleading not guilty to a similar charge, was remanded to Oct. 18 with bail to stand. Howard Clifford MacKay, also charged with a like offence, was remanded by consent to Oct. 30 for trial.

Ivan Albert Mosher, Wood Islands South, pleading guilty to care and control of an automobile while impaired, was fined $100 and costs or 10 days. Andrew Randolph Crosby, for a similar offence was remanded to Oct. 23.

Edgar Sterling Giddings, Charlottetown, was fined $10 and costs for trespassing on private property for the purpose of hunting.

The case of an accused, charged with unlawfully proceeding on a vessel without the defence it was safe to do so was adjourned by consent to Oct. 9.

One man was fined $20 and costs or 30 days for intoxication in a public place. Another accused was fined $20 and costs or 30 days for possession of liquor in a place other than his residence.

H&S Session To Feature Auction Sale

An annual project of the ladies' section of the Prince Home and School Association, a "Bring and Buy Sale" will feature the October meeting. This will be Monday, October 21st in the New Year with an event to be conducted by the men.

Frank Acorn who did an excellent job in the role of auctioneer last season will again act in this capacity.

The program will also feature a short talk by representatives of the United fund, and there will be the usual classroom visitations.

Chairman of the "Bring and Buy Sale" committee is Mrs. G. Gordon Hughes.

Officers of the association are looking for a large attendance at the second meeting of the season.

A lunch will be served by the catering committee.

City Housing Under Review

Two meetings are scheduled for today at which housing in Charlottetown will be under review.

The first will be held at The Charlottetown Club morning at which the P.E.I. Housing Study group, consisting of civic and provincial officials will get together with officials of Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation.

This session is expected to be short and will consist mainly of an "interim" report on study progress to date.

The principal meeting will take place at City Hall at 2:30 this afternoon.

At that time the original housing commission convened last spring will meet again. A Walthen Gaudet will meet again with representatives of the city, welfare agencies and other interested organizations.

This conference has been called primarily to attempt to determine housing needs of the city, particularly in regard to providing low-cost housing for low-income families.

FIRST CHURCH

BRISTOL, England (CP) — The first Greek Orthodox church in southwest England has been consecrated here. The bones and ashes of ancient martyrs were brought from Istanbul and sealed in the altar.
