Currencies

NEW YORK, Aug. 24 —(AP)— The Pound Sterling deliverable in 90 days was quoted at the widest discount today since Great Britain went off the gold standard in 1931.

Sterling due in 90 days, at 4.64 5-8 in United States funds, dropped 4 1-2 cents below the spot price from nearly three cents Wednesday.

Great pressure against the spot rate, however, failed to budge the price from $4.68 1-8 in the foreign exchange market. The British control fund supplied all demand in return for sterling.

A drop of around 19-64 cent in the Canadian dollar to 5-8 per cent discount was associated with pressure against the pound although there is no direct link between the two monies.

The Swiss franc lost .03 1-2 cent to 22.55 and the French franc .00 1-8 cent to 2.64 7-8. The guilder advanced .13 cent to 53.80 while the belga was unchanged.

MONTREAL, Aug. 24 —(CP)— Pound Sterling moved up 3 7-32 to 4.71 11-32 and the United States dollar gained 43-64 at 1.00 11-16 on Montreal foreign exchange today. French francs advanced 1 25-32 to 2.66 11-16.

LATEST JEWEL DESIGNS

LONDON — New earrings, clips and bracelets are designed to imitate the popular Victorian posy. One attractive piece shows a dozen lovely sapphires clustered into flower shapes, with here and there, a tiny ruby and surrounded by diamond leaves.

This ornament can be worn as a brooch, separated into a pair of clips, or mounted on a platinum "manacle" braclet. These platinum foundations are growing more popular every day.

Posy earrings are most attractive and owe their beauty to the delicacy and lightness of setting.

Sometimes the posy, mounted on a clip, rests rights on the lobe of the ear, or it may be suspended by a slender platinum chain. Some of the designs for evening wear are more like shower bouquets, four or five colored gems being introduced with dazzling and attractive effect.

A new design in drop earrings consists of two large hoops of brilliants, about the size of a half-penny with a couple of carved love-birds using the base of the hoop as a perch. One bird is in diamonds, the other in sapphires, and they both have large brilliants for eyes.

The hoops swing by a narrow chain from two emerald-cut diamonds, hiding the tiny prong which pierces the ear.

Mixtures of white and green gold are fashionable in summer jewelry, made into large brooches lockets and wide manacle bracelets that can be worn on the beach for the afternoon, as well as in the evening.

One gold clip brooch in the form of a water lily has petals of fine white gold and leaves in green gold picked out in a lighter shade of the metal. When the brooch is divided the lily forms one clip leaves and a tiny bud the other.

An invisible hook at the top enables the brooch to be attached to a gold chain and worn pendant fashion.

The Haitian government has prohibited exportation of charcoal as a forest conservation measure.
