LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

ROCHFORD THEATRICALS.—To morrow (Tuesday) evening, the 'Two Puddifoots,' and 'Box and Cox,' will be played.

THE CARNIVAL.—Great preparations are being made for the Carnival at the 'Citizen's Skating Rink,' on Wednesday evening next.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT.—The Charlottetown Amateur Dramatic Club, perform in Market Hall, this (Monday) evening. Give them a full house.

THE TARIFF.—In anticipation of a change in the tariff, a large quantity of goods have lately been taken out of bond by the merchants of this city.

THE JUDGE'S DECISION.—In concluding an article anent the decision of our Judges respecting the Awards, the Montreal Gazette says the decision will probably be reversed by the Supreme Court of Canada. We shall see.

A VERY SUCCESSFUL ISLANDER.—The following extract from from the Acadian Athenæum tells its own story. Mr. McVane is from Kings County.

"Silas McVane, A. B. '65, who studied afterwards at Harvard and also in Germany has lately been appointed Instructor in Political Economy and Governmental Science at Harvard University. We are pleased to congratulate him on his success."

BUILDINGS SHOVELLED.—During the gale on Sunday night, the 6th inst., a new barn belonging to Mr. Matthew Doyle, South Shore, was blown down. Half of the barn of Mr. George Smith, of the same settlement, was shattered. Several stacks of grain, etc., were also overturned. The new Catholic chapel at Alberton was leveled with the ground by the gale of the previous Wednesday. Altogether, property to the value of nearly $5000 was destroyed.

SAD DEATH OF AN ISLANDER IN BOSTON.—The parents and friends of Mr. James Long, jr., (late of this city) mourn his accidental and sudden death. On the 31st ult., he was working at a house in Boston, when the staging on which he was working, gave way and he fell to the ground. His head was so badly bruised, that he died after a short period of insensibility. Mr. Long was only 25 years of age. He was a quiet and good man. We sympathise with his bereaved parents.

MASONIC TEA AND ENTERTAINMENT.—The brethren of St. John's Lodge hold their annual tea and entertainment in the Market Hall on Thursday evening next. Mrs. Nicholson, Messrs. Earle & Vinnicombe, Professor Caven and Mr. Hermans will take part in the entertainment. The Amateur Orchestra which made such a pleasing impression at the last Masonic entertainment, will, we understand, play a series of pieces specially prepared for the occasion by Mr. Stramberg.

BAD ROADS.—To judge by the state of the roads in the vicinity of Charlottetown, one might imagine that there is no such officer as the Superintendent of Public Works, no such institution as a Board of Works, no Road Commissioners, no Overseers,—that we had, in fact, lapsed into semi-barbarism of primitive times! Who, we should like to know, has charge of the Malpeque road, from Charlottetown to Curtisdale? It is in a disgraceful state. The pitches and ditches, are as thick as cradle hills on a new farm.

READINGS IN ST. PETER'S SCHOOLROOM.—One of the most pleasing entertainments of the season was given in St. Peter's Schoolroom on Tuesday evening last. The following programme was rendered:—

1. Song, The Whaler, Captain Freeland.
2. Reading, Kit Carson's Ride, Rev. G. W. Hodgson.
3. Song, Tommy, make room for your Uncle, Horace Haszard.
4. Reading, The Victim, Rev. J. Ellis.
5. Vocal Duet, Forest Birds, Miss Palmer and W. Cunningham.
6. Song, O, fond dove! O, fair dove! Mrs. Newbery.
7. Reading, Rara Avis, W. Morson.
8. Song, The Dream, Miss Williams.
9. Reading, The Coliseum, T. J. Harris.
10. Song, Should he upbraid? Mrs. Freeland.
11. Vocal Duet, A. B. C., Mrs. Nicholson and R. Harris.
12. Reading, Lord Dundreary, Rev. J. Ellis.
13. Reading, Ask Mamma, W. Morson.
14. Song, The Storm, Mrs. Nicholson.
15. Reading, The Abberley Children, Rev. J. Ellis.
16. Song, Waiting, Miss Palmer.

God save the Queen.

Several of the songs were remarkably well sung. The readings, too, were very interesting. It would, of course, be invidious to particularize those which we considered best.

STEAM FOR ROCKY POINT.—In accordance with previous notice a meeting of inhabitants of the eastern part of Township No. 65, was held in West River Schoolhouse, on Thursday, the 3rd inst. Mr. Ewen McMillan was appointed chairman and the undersigned secretary. The meeting was addressed by Messrs. D. Currie, D. Farquharson, J. Doyle, A. Dickieson, Wm. Alchorn, J. Helms, P. McMahon and others. It was suggested by some persons present that it would be most advisable to build a new wharf at McKie's point, where the channel runs nearer the land; but it was afterwards unanimously agreed to extend the old wharf, as the cost would be less, the chances of success better, and it is more convenient to the City. Messrs E. McMillan, D. Miller, and J. Helms were appointed a deputation from east end of Lot 65 to wait on the Leader and other members of the Executive to show the strong claims this part of the second district has on the Government for wharf and steam accommodation on West River. The Secretary was directed to get up a subscription list, and Messrs. J. Smith, J. Doyle, W. Alchorne, Neil McNeill and George Ross were appointed to canvass the people on the subject.

DANIEL MILLER, Sec'y.

SENTENCES OF THE SUPREME COURT.—The Queen vs. John McKenzie—convicted of an assault with intent to commit rape—sentence—That he be imprisoned in the common Jail of this County for the period of two years, with hard labor, and further that on some day between the 1st day of May and the 1st day of June, in this present year, on such day as the sheriff may see fit to name, between the hours of 10 o'clock in the forenoon and five in the afternoon, he stand in the pillory for the space of one hour. The Queen vs. Theophilus Chappel—convicted of robbery with violence—sentence to be imprisoned in the common Jail of this County for the period of two years, with hard labour; and further, that on Friday, the 7th day of April next, between the hours of 12 o'clock, noon, and 4 o'clock, in the afternoon, he be taken into the jail yard and there whipped, by receiving 39 lashes on his bare back; and also on the 7th day of February, 1878, between the hours of 11 o'clock, noon, and 4 o'clock, in the afternoon, he be again taken to the same place, and there further whipped, by receiving 39 lashes on the bare back. The Queen vs. Joseph Edward Heckbert—convicted of bigamy—sentenced to be imprisoned in the common Jail of this County for the period of 12 months, with hard labor. The Queen vs. Laughlin McKinnon, Charles McKinnon, and John McNevin—convicted of burglary—Sentence of death recorded against them under the Statute.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

NEW BRUNSWICK SCHOOL LAW.—The British Government informs the Dominion Parliament that it has no right to interfere with the New Brunswick School law.

Prince Albert Victor, eldest son of the Prince of Wales, attained his twelfth year on Saturday the 8th instant, and received the congretulation of the Royal family of Denmark on the event.

CHARLOTTETOWN DEBATING CLUB.—On account of the inclemency of the weather, the debate on the question "Should voting be made compulsory in the Dominion," which was to have taken place on Friday, 11th instant, was postponed till Friday evening next, 18th inst.

THOMAS W. MAY, Secy.

The following changes are announced in the British Peerage:—Mr. Gerard Stuart has chosen the title of LORD ALLINGTON; Mr. Tollemache becomes LORD TOLLEMACHE; Sir Robert Gerard will, in future, be known as LORD GERARD OF BRYN, and Mr. Ormsby Gore will enter the Upper Chamber as LORD HURLOCK.

OFFICIAL REPORTS show a very bad state of things in the dicipline and management of the P. E. Island Railway. In the month of January, in connection with the Locomotive, Road and Traffic Departments, there were seventeen officials fined for neglect of duty, including drivers, firemen, and other train men, machinists, section foremen, etc. There were also seven other officials suspended, namely, two drivers, two firemen, a conductor and two baggagemen. And there were also not less than thirteen other officials discharged, namely, three drivers, one fireman, three section foremen, five section men and an agent. Nearly forty officials, on a small piece of road, are declared to have fallen short in their duty! Either the road is overstocked with officials, or they are composed of bad material, or the management is excessively severe. Whatever the cause, such an exhibit is not likely to promote popular confidence in the road or the management.—Watchman.

THE DOMESTIC MONTHLY.—The February number of this excellent and well known magazine will commend itself for the abundance of useful information it provides concerning the usual topics of fashion. It opens with a comprehensive review on the prevailing novelties in the domain of fashion, succeeding which follow instructive essays on combination costumes, new styles in ladies and children's costumes, household linen, etc., seasonable fabrics, trimmings, black silks, millinery, lingerie, fancy and needle work, etc. The number is finely illustrated, and is accompanied with a very handsome colored plate, representing a stylish and atttractive reception toilette. The literary matter of this magazine is always fresh, excellent, and high-toned. The present number contains a number of very fine poems; the concluding part of a novelette entitled 'A Mother-in-law:' a very entertaining sketch called 'Mrs. B's Purchase;' and an exceedingly able article on 'Character Connoisseurs,' which should be very carefully and thoughtfully read by everybody. The usual interesting Miscellany, Small Talk, Art and Literary Notes, Mosaics, etc., complete a very valuable and attractive number. The 'Domestic Monthly' is published by Blake & Company, 849 Broadway, New York, at $1.50 per year.

CORRESPONDENCE.

THE CARNIVAL.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—In anticipation of the forthcoming enjoyment at the Citizens' Skating Rink, on the 16th February, it may not now be inopportune to offer some explanation of the above term, as applied to the Feasts and Games instituted in Italy and France, and allowed by the Roman Catholic Church, prior to the Fasts to be observed during the Holy Season of Lent. The term Carnival is derived from the Latin carni, meat and vale, farewell—farewell to feasting. It is to be hoped that those who are ready to imitate the pastimes of Roman Catholic countries, will be as observant of the Holy Season following. It is to be deeply regretted that there still exist in this small community a few Puritans—Pharisees of old—who, during festive seasons, object to youthful enjoyment, such as theatricals, dancing, etc., construing good into bad, living under the protection of the British Flag, thoroughly oblivious, or ignorant of the glorious British motto: Honi soit que mal y pense—'Evil be to him who evil thinks'. Wishing the Carnival Committee every success,

I beg to remain,
A WELL WISHER.

Lamont, Esq., in the 52d year of her age, leaving a sorrowing husband and four children, with a large circle of friends and relatives, to mourn their loss, which is her gain.

Died suddenly, on Jan. 22d, Willie Lawrence Currie, in the 7th year of his age, youngest son of the late D. Currie, of Montague Bridge.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Despatches from Rome announce that Cardinal Antonelli is seriously ill.

Mr. Disraeli has promised the Government will give its early and unbroken attention to the Shipping Bill.

The British naval forces in Chinese waters are to be strengthened, on account of the unsettled state of political affairs in that quarter.

Of 516 men in the colliery at St. Etienne, in Belgium, in which the explosion of fire-damp lately took place, only 50 weer rescued alive.

The report that Queen Victoria would go to Berlin during her tour in Germany is said to be very unlikely. Her Majesty will visit Saxe-Coburg, however.

The Catholic Priests are taking a praiseworthy stand for temperance, both in Guysboro and Arichat. The pledge was administered by them to several hundred persons last week.

Blessings long desired are sweeter when they come; if scon given, they lose much of their value. God reserves for thee that which he is slow to give thee, that you may learn to entertain a supreme desire and longing after it.—Angustine.

The obituary of the London Times of the 5th of January contained a rare illustration of longevity in twelve persons—ten ladies and two gentlemen—whose combined ages amounted to 1,053 years, giving an average of 87 years and 9 months to each. The oldest was a lady, who was in her hundredth year, the youngest of the same sex being 82 years of age; the gentlemen were 83 and 84 respectively. The following were the ages—viz., 81, two at 83, two at 84, two at 86, 87, 89, 95, and 100. Of septuagenarians there were seven, who averaged exactly 74 of age.

A Paris correspondent gives the following pen picture of Madam McMahon: She is a dark, florid, stout person, with the merriest clear grey eyes in France; and, faith! these are her only beauty. She is the despair of her milliners; for her stout, short figure defies the graces of their art. She has a passion for pinks and greens. But, by good luck, because she is very broad and not very big, people insist that she is a motherly soul. 'Look at that back and shoulders!' whisper people at receptions. 'How homely, how motherly!' And as the butcher-women lean far out of their monsrous swaying cart to spy her Grace as she enters a shop from her carriage, 'Mon Dieu!' they cry, 'what a fine nurse for her marmots!' But she has the merriest eyes, the pleasantest laugh in France, that is certain. She is always in good humor. And she might with great truth say, like Madam la Marechele Lefebre: 'I and my Marshal!'

A committee, the members of which have recently been appointed, is now sitting at the War Office, London, with a view of revising the present rates of army pensions. They are instructed to report as soon as possible to the Secretary of State for War. It is reported that the recommendations of the committee will have an important bearing on the recruiting operations and the future popularity and welfare of the British army. It is also under consideration to adopt means for obtaining reliable information of towns and districts in which scarcity of work prevails, with a view of establishing recruiting stations in such places and making known by authorized public notices and other means the advantages which the improved organization will offer for military service in the shape of pay, pensions, and rewards. One reason of the reduction in recruiting for the army at the present time is attributed to the fact that it is about twenty years since the Crimean War, when an unusually large number of recruits were enlisted by the inducements of extra bounty and other advantages, the term of service of these men expiring almost at the same time.
