MELBOURNE (Reuters)—Prime Minister Robert Menzies lashed out Tuesday at Herbert Evatt, Labor opposition leader, for his part in the controversy over disclosures by Vladimir Petrov, Soviet spy chief in Australia who defected to the West in April, 1954. "What Dr. Evatt did could be laughed at," said Menzies in a speech, "apart from the fact that the Labor party wanted to govern Australia." Evatt had claimed that certain documents handed over to the Australian Government by Petrov were forgeries.
