IN MEMORY

MRS. MALCOLM RILEY

"He giveth His beloved, sleep".

In the late afternoon of a beautiful day in early summer the Angel of Death suddenly visited Lulu Mae and enfolded her in His wings. We little knew how soon the dark clouds of sorrow would dispel the sunshine of a day which began so brightly and happily.

Florence Elizabeth Riley, familiarly known to all as Lulu, was born in Belle River 73 years ago, the youngest child of Martin Marvin and his wife Mary Ann MacLean. Due to her mother's severe illness, Lulu was taken when a baby to live with her maternal grandmother Mrs. John MacLean (Catherine Dewar), in Heatherdale, where she lived most of her early life. Upon her return to Belle River and subsequent marriage to Malcolm F. Riley they established their home in that community.

Always an interested and active worker in church and community, her place in the church pew was never empty; she was a charter member of St. Andrew's United Church. Belle River, a charter member of its Women's Missionary Society and Ladies' Aid Society; and a charter member of the Belle River Women's Institute. A lover of music and of flowers—she was for many years a member of the choir in her church, and delighted, so much, in growing all varieties of flowers.

Sorrow entered her life early when she was called upon to bear the loss of her husband who, during his lifetime, operated a general store and lobster packing business in Belle River.

One son and three daughters mourn a loving mother — Lieutenant-Commander John M., of Naval Headquarters Staff, Ottawa; Mary, RN, Kaiser Mountain Clinic, Los Angeles; Margaret, West Kent School, Charlottetown; Anna, P.E.I. Teachers' Federation, Charlottetown; and two grandchildren — John M., Jr., and Karen Elizabeth.

Two sisters and one brother survive her — Jennie (Mrs. Conley) Waltham, Mass; Catherine (Mrs. Gilmore) Melville; and Neil R. Victoria, B.C. Also mourning the loss of one who was like a sister is her aunt, Mrs Wallace MacKay, Stanley Bridge. Two brothers predeceased her — Donald A., in Los Angeles, and John in Tacoma.

Beloved by all, both young and old, the many friends who called at the home, the many beautiful floral arrangements with which friends surrounded our loved one, as well as the largely attended funeral, bore testimony to the esteem and affection in which she was held.

The funeral under the direction of the MacLean Funeral Home was held from her home to the St. Andrew's United Church where services were conducted by her minister Rev. Dr. A.D. Weir, and Rev. Donald Nicholson of Belfast. A special number, "There Is No Night In Heaven", was rendered beautifully, by the MacWilliams family. Other hymns which supplemented the clergy's moving words of tribute to the departed one and comfort to the sorrowing family were, The Lord Is My Shepherd and Face To Face.

Burial was in the family plot in Belfast cemetery.

Though her smile is gone forever,
And her hand we cannot touch,
Still we have so many memories,
Of the one we loved so much.
Her memory is our keepsake,
With which we'll never part.
God has her in his keeping,
We have her in our hearts.
