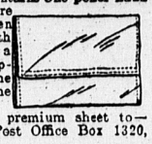
TOBACCO POUCH FOR APPLE GROWER

He smokes Rosebud cut plug and saves the poker hands.

Down in the Annapolis valley a prominent apple grower is telling his friends about a bit of good luck which came to him recently. "At one of the meetings of the apple growers last winter," he said, "I noticed so many of the members were smoking Rosebud cut plug that I decided to try it, and I found that this excellent tobacco suited me better than any I had ever put in my pipe. I noticed, too, that there was a poker hand in each package and I began to save these for the premiums. In a short time I had a complete set of poker hands and sent them in and obtained an oiled silk tobacco pouch which I have always wanted, but never took the trouble to buy. Now, by smoking Rosebud with its mildness and fragrance, I have obtained an excellent pouch at absolutely no extra cost."

The list of premiums given in exchange for poker hands includes a wide range of articles for personal use and household adornment. The large ten cent package of Rosebud cut plug contains one poker hand—two poker hands are in the larger fifteen cent package. Both sizes offer the smoker a tobacco of exceptional quality and the biggest value on the market today.



Write for special premium sheet to—Department T.S., Post Office Box 1320, Montreal.

—DIED FROM INJURIES—Master Joseph Noonan, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. O'Connell Noonan of Searletown, died at 1 a. m. on Thursday morning in the Prince County Hospital from injuries received when he fell from an apple tree onto an upturned spike harrow, one of the spikes entering his brain about an inch and half. The accident took place last Sunday and the little fellow remained ina semi-conscious state until he passed away. An operation was performed and everything possible done to ease the little fellow remained in a semi-conavail. The deep sympathy of neighbours and friends, in which The Guardian joins, goes out to the bereaved parents in their sad loss. The little lad was a bright and lovable child and will be sorely missed in the home. The remains were conveyed by Mr. Percy Bowness of Summerside to his parents home in Searletown on Thursday morning. Funeral notice later. S.

WEDDING — MCKENNA — MULLIGAN

Never did the sun shine more brightly, nor excitement run so high as on the morning of July 16, 1930, when a wedding of more than unusual attraction took place in St. Malachai's Church, Kinkora. Long before the hour for the ceremony to take place the church was filled with friends and guests, who were eager to get a glimpse of the bride. As the peals of the Wedding March rang forth, the bride, Miss Margaret Pearl McKenna, R. N., proceeded by two little nieces, Miss Ella Hughes and Miss Doris McKenna, Miss Roma Curley, also a niece, carrying a bouquet of sweet peas, entered the church on the arm of the groomsman, Mr. Harold Mulligan, followed with the bridesmaid, Miss Florence Power, cousin of the bride. Rev. Dr. Smith performed the marriage ceremony. The bride looked charming, gowned in a dress of oyster colored taffeta with ruffles of tulle and wearing a veil of tulle extending down the aisle about four yards, she loked somewhat like a princess. The groom was dressed in a dark navy blue suit and as he and the bride left the church comments on all sides were heard "What a handsome pair." During the ceremony the choir sang several appropriate hymns. After congratulations were extended the bridal party motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mulligan, where a delightful wedding breakfast was partaken of, Rev. Dr. Smith presiding. Rev. Sister St. Caroline, of St. Paul's, sister of the groom, was also an honored guest.

After breakfast the bridal party motored to Charlottetown, returning in the evening to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. R. Mulligan, where a reception was held, over one hundred guests partaking of supper.

The presents were numerous and costly and included, besides linens, silver, china, hooked rugs, blankets, the handsome sum of two hundred and fifty dollars. The groom's present to the bride was a black onyx ring with reversible stone, to the bridesmaid, a black and white-beaded necklace with earrings to match, and to groomsman, a white gold cigarette case and to the organist a beautiful table linen.

The bride's mother was dressed in black canton crepe while the groom's mother wore black crepe back satin. Amongst the invited guests were Mrs. James McKenna, Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred McKenna, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Burnett, Cambridge, Mass.; Mrs. A. Butler and daughter Margaret, Charlottetown; Mrs. A. Haughey, Charlottetown, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hughes and daughters, Kensington.

The music for the occasion was furnished by Mr. Jerome Ronaghan, Kinkora, Violin and Mr. John McGregor, Graham's Road, banjo, also organ accompaniment.

Miss McKenna is one of Kinkora's most popular young ladies. A graduate of the U.C.C. Notre Dame Academy and of the City Hospital. She practiced her profession of nursing for a number of years both in Charlottetown and country, where she made friends and brought sunshine wherever she went. Having brothers in Detroit, Mich., she went on a visit to them and remained there for a number of years, following her profession and bringing joy and consolation to the sick and afflicted. Pearl was popular and loved wherever she went.

Mr. Mulligan is a son of Mrs. Mulligan, of Kinkora Parish, but for a number of years has been living in Detroit and is an employee of the Detroit Street Railway.

Mr. and Mrs. Mulligan intend remaining on the Island for a month before returning to Detroit. The Guardian wishes them many years of happy wedded life.

IN MEMORIAM

THE LATE THOMAS W. MAY

This Province has lost another sturdy citizen in the passing on Wednesday evening last, of Mr. Thomas W. May of this city. Mr. May, who had for many years been associated with the surveying department of the Provincial Government, belonged to the old fashioned school of which honor and integrity were outstanding characteristics. He was widely known and esteemed both in the city and throughout the Province generally.

The late Mr. Thomas Waite May was born Oct. 25, 1845, at St. Helier, Jersey, Channel Islands, the second son of Robert and Augusta May. His occupation was that of civil engineer, in which capacity he was employed for nearly sixty years with the Prince Edward Island Railway and Provincial Government. He was one of the first surveyors of the Prince Edward Island Railway and designed the Railway Station at Summerside which has now been replaced by a new building.

The deceased was educated at Edinburgh and was a classmate of Robert Louis Stevenson in that University. In securing his degree he accomlished in two years what has usually required three years of hard study.

Mr. May was unmarried, his nearest relatives being Major Fred F. May, St. Eleanors; Mrs. Charles Bullwinkle, Jefferson, Wiss., Mrs. Arthur Risdon, Green Bay, Wis.; Mrs. Arthur Fenton, Bremerton, Wash.; Clarence W. May, Tacoma, Wash.

The funeral will take place at St. Paul's Church, on Aug. 1st, at 3.30 p. m., Rev. H. D. Raymond officiating to Southport cemetery.
