BRISTOL

How good is your memory, you old railway men? It's 40 years this week since William J. (Billie) O'Brien was fatally injured in the Souris railway yard when he was caught between some railway cars. He died in Charlottetown Hospital where he was rushed by special train.

Mr. Gerald Barry has returned home from the Charlottetown Hospital after undergoing surgery. Mr. Barry is retired now after more than a half century around the shore and packing plants.

Mrs. Mary Malone spent the weekend in the city with relatives.

MONTAGUE

Mrs. Annie Higginbotham and four grandchildren of Halifax and Mrs. Jones of Truro, are spending their holidays at Lower Montague.

SEARCH OLD BAILEY

LONDON (AP) Trials were adjourned Wednesday after Scotland Yard received a telephoned report a bomb had been planted in the Old Bailey, London's famed central criminal court. Police searched all the courts and no bomb was found.
