Province Ponders Ottawa Municipal Loan Proposal

There is an air of uncertainty in provincial government circles as to a policy to be pursued in the federal government's $400,000,000 municipal loan fund.

As of Saturday it was indicated by Premier Walter R. Shaw that the province might follow the lead of Quebec and "contract out" of the arrangement. Such a move would put the province in direct control of federal funds made available for municipal borrowing.

Premier Lesage initiated control by the provinces in the federal-provincial conference held last month at Ottawa, and other provinces are studying the question.

It is estimated that Prince Edward Island would have available $2,500,000 under the new federal act covering municipal borrowing.

"It may be," the premier said, "that the province's getting control of this fund could make it more effective than if it were administered by a federal board. No decision has been made on the matter, however, as it's just an idea we are working on."

Premier Shaw said his government is preparing a number of submissions "to send to various sources from which the province may receive support."

Among these is a "report" for the Atlantic Development Board. "We will," the premier said, "be offering some suggestions as to how our situation may be helped and improved with the use of development board funds."

A brief on road construction in the province is under preparation by the department of highways for presentation to the federal department of public works. "We will promote the extension of the Trans-Canada Highway to Tignish and Souris," Premier Shaw said, "and we hope to be able to take advantage of the 90-10 basis, under which the federal government pays 90 per cent of highway costs. As well as this, there will be other proposals regarding an over-all road policy for the province."

While Premier Shaw did not say so, it is believed that the province will seek assistance to have the highway between Borden and Charlottetown made into an all-weather road.

A detailed brief on methods of expanding the province's fishing industry is also under preparation and should be ready for presentation to Ottawa late next month.

Mentioning the agricultural rehabilitation and development program, Premier Shaw said "this plan is still getting our attention but we are approaching it slowly to make sure that funds are spent on necessary projects and not where they are not entitled to be spent."

He said at present "we are shaping our programs to make the best possible advantage of federal assistance available to us."

JFK, SMALL

included a message from Soviet Premier Khrushchev, who expressed his personal distress at the death of the Kennedy's child.

PROGRESSING WELL

Mrs Kennedy, 34, was reported to have awakened at 8:30 a.m. and her condition continued to be good. She continued to make "steady progress" in her convalescence.

Her baby, Patrick Bouvier Kennedy, born prematurely by Caesarian section Wednesday, was buried Saturday.

The president and a few relatives attended in privacy a Mass of the Holy Angels. It was said by Richard Cardinal Cushing, Boston archbishop and friend of the president. It lasted less than a half-hour.

The main theme of the ritual for the Mass of the Holy Angels was "everlasting life to all children." And a closing prayer was:

"Almighty and most loving God, for no merits of their own, as soon as they leave the world, you give everlasting life of all little children reborn in the font of baptism, as we believe that you have given it today to the soul of this little child."

Patrick was baptized shortly after birth.

9-Year-Old Bicyclist Hit

Nine-year-old Noel McMurrer of 133 Spring Park Road, Charlottetown underwent an emergency operation at the P.E.I. Hospital last night after the bicycle he was riding was in collision with a car driven by Charles Moore, West Royalty.

The accident occurred shortly after 9 p.m. yesterday when young McMurrer apparently drove his bike from behind a parked car into the path of the Moore vehicle at the corner of Fitzroy and Weymouth streets.

The lad had been travelling east from the exhibition grounds at the time of the mishap and he was rushed to hospital by an ambulance from the Hennessey Funeral Home.

It could not be learned at press time how seriously the boy had been hurt.

Rusk Returns To Washington

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. State Secretary Dean Rusk came home from Europe Sunday to report to President Kennedy the successful accomplishment of his test-ban treaty mission to Russia and West Germany.

Rusk, who conferred with Soviet Premier Khrushchev Friday, said the next round of negotiations between the United States and Russia "will not move with great speed." But it was learned he came back with the impression that Khrushchev wants to carry on U.S.-Soviet negotiations to ease tensions in Europe.

Another Try To Move Span Slated Today

Workmen demolishing the old Hillsboro Bridge will try again today to break loose a span on the north side by using the rising tide.

A spokesman for the firm of Murdock McEwan, New Glasgow, which has the contract says company officials are confident the span will give this time.

He said Friday's failure was due to a lack of pilings on the barges. He said a few additional pilings should give the lift needed to raise the span clear.

He said the span actually raised a little Friday but this was offset by the fact the barges sank slightly in the water.

The job will be done at high tide.

3 Injured When Car Does Flips

SOUTHAMPTON, N.B. (CP)—Three Southampton area men were injured, one of them seriously, over the weekend when the car in which they were travelling left the highway here and struck almost everything for a distance of about 450 feet in its path.

The car struck the side of a bridge, travelled along a sidewalk over the bridge and struck a store 100 feet further away, demolishing a soft drink cooler and damaging the front of the building. It then struck and demolished a half-ton truck, hit a stone wall, upended, bounced about 20 feet and came down in front of a nearby home, smashing part of an upstairs window and the eaves of the house.

Walking away with only minor cuts and bruises were Elson Harris and Marcus Pike. Aubrey Davidson, the driver is in serious condition in hospital at Fredericton.

The men are all from the Southampton parish community of Temperance Vale.

Council Meets This Morning

The City Council will hold its regular monthly meeting this morning at 9:30.

The change in time of the August meeting is to "clear the decks" of routine business in preparation for the rush of Old Home Week.

Regular council meetings are usually scheduled for the evening but, by agreement, they are held in late afternoons during the summer months.

No contentious business is expected to come before the meeting this morning. Routine matters such as the monthly financial statement and standing committee reports will be presented.

It is not believed the public property committee has had enough time to study the tenders received for the building of an incinerator and for the collection of garbage.

Medal Was Struck For Canada's Golden Jubilee

A medal struck to commemorate 50 years of confederation has been found by a city resident.

The medal is believed to have been issued by the provincial government or privately for no mention of the souvenir is made in the annual report of the mayor for that year.

The report does state, however, that considerable money was spent by the city preparing for the golden jubilee celebration which had to be cancelled owing to the outbreak of the First World War. "Permanent work" said accomplished were the lighting of the park roadway and a bandstand at Victoria Park.

The medal, about the size of a silver dollar but made of some ordinary metal, on its face bears the coat of arms of Canada in the centre. At the top are the dates 1864-1914. On the outer rim are the words "Confederation Golden Jubilee Canada".

A reproduction of the Provincial Building features the other side of the medallion. It is deed centre with above it the words "Cradle of Canadian Confederation".

Across the bottom are the words "Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island.

National Park Visitors Set New High In July

An all-time record in the number of visitors to the National Park was set in July according to figures released by Alan Ede, park superintendent.

A total of 142,508 vehicles carrying an estimated 518,888 passengers was recorded. This was a seven per cent hike over July 1962.

There was an increase in the number of campers using facilities at Cavendish and Stanhope, the park office reported.

There were 17,908 in July '62, as compared with 19,829 in the same period last year. The park office attributes this largely to the fact that people are tending to camp in larger parties, although the issue of permits is up slightly from last year, with the total set at 3,227.

The average number of days spent in the campgrounds by camping parties is down slightly—from 4.5 last year to 4.1 this year.

GREEN GABLES

Registration of visitors to Green Gables is 1,000 over the number registering in the 1962 season.

A breakdown of this year's total, 19,774, shows that the majority of the people coming to see the famous house came from the nine other provinces of Canada (13,780). There were 4,429 registrations from the United States, 1,436 from Prince Edward Island itself, and 129 from the British Isles and other overseas countries.

Echo 1 Marks Third Birthday

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Echo I, the only man-made satellite visible to the naked eye, marks its third birthday in space today.

The rugged plastic balloon has demonstrated an endurance that amazes scientists.

When Echo I was launched from Cape Canaveral Aug. 12, 1960, experts predicted it would remain inflated for about two weeks and that after it collapsed it might orbit for a year or two.

But Echo I has kept sailing right along. On its third birthday it has racked up 13,500 orbits around the earth and travelled nearly 425,000,000 miles in space.

And though it is wrinkled and battered and only about half of its original 100-foot diameter in size, Echo I is still capable of bouncing radio signals.

History was made Aug. 13, 1960 when privately owned space tracking antennas located at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and at Richardson, Tex., locked on Echo I for the first two-way voice radio transmission via a man-made satellite.

A week later Associated Press personnel, using AP wirephoto equipment, "bounced" a picture of President Eisenhower off the surface of Echo I for the first facsimile transmission in space.

Paper Moves To New Site

SAINT JOHN, N.B. (CP)—It was business as usual Sunday night for the morning Telegraph-Journal and the evening Times-Globe after a hectic but precision-timed weekend move to a new building at Crown and Union Streets beside Courtenay Bay in an urban redevelopment area.

The morning and evening editions were published Saturday for the last time in the 84-year-old Canterbury Street Newspaper Building in central Saint John. Starting at 1 a.m. Saturday, the move went off without a hitch and was completed late Saturday night.

Occupation of the new three-storey building, designed for any type of future expansion, came almost a year after the first ground-breaking.
