Legionnaires Getting Better

The Junior Legionnaires vowed to the Enman Drug Combines 6-3 last Friday night, but it was their best effort of any of the six games which they lost. They hustled all the way, and we think their team play was better than usual. Shooting seems to be their weak point. A goaler's chief worry against those Legionnaires is to protect his face. Protecting the net is not nearly so big a problem. They could do with some good, sound instruction and pactice in delivering that low, ankle-high shot which is the bane of goal tenders everywhere. We imagine firing the low shot isn't too easy to learn. When you try to give a shot more zip, it tends to give it more altitude.

Each team was without an all-star performer so it was a saw-off in that respect. Alan Gaudet was out of action as a Match-penalty suspension, and Dave Martin was ill. These two boys were bright stars of the Maritime champs last year, and each has been scoring a lot of goals for his team this season. Allie DesRoches won the "MacKenzie House of Fashion" shirt award for the best player on the ice, but he was chased to the wire by his linemate Grey Deishaw who set up some nice plays, and goaler Tim McGuigan, who, although made to look good on the Junior sniping, did a fine job in blocking close-in drives around his door-step.

Old-Timers Coming Back

RCAF Eagles, Enman Drug Combines, and Borden Nationals all have aces in the hole, and may get stronger as the season advances. Steve Philips, whose name appeared consistently in scoring summaries last season, is considering a return to the Eagles, Bob Sleigh may be back before the season is over, and there is always the chance that some hockey wizard may get posted in. The Combines have added Dennis Clow, and that master of the back-hand bazooka, Claude Gaudet, and they say Vance Harris is doing push-ups (or is it push-backs) to get in shape for another go at the hockey pastime. That would add considerable zip to the Combine attack. Ron MacArthur, who coached the O'Leary Maroons last year, might decide to take another fling at hockey after the Christmas rush. Dale MacWilliams is joining the Borden Nationals and they may add Charlie Sark to their defence after Christmas. Only the Juniors are not looking forward to reinforcement. Their ace in the hole should be the development and improvement of their rookies as the season advances.

Memories Come Back

We found the interview which Frank Selke had with Jimmie Ward and Pete Ward between periods at the Chicago-Montreal game Saturday night very interesting. We had no idea that Jimmie, an old Montreal Maroon star, and Pete, Chicago White Sox third sacker, were father and son. That reminds us during the war years Goose Bay RCAF came to play with our local RCAF at the old Crystal Rink, and they had on their line-up a younger brother of the late Bobby Bauer. Would that young player be Father David Bauer, the famous coach of the Canadian Olympic team, or did Bobby have another brother.

LAST WEEK'S BOUQUET

PLAY NORTH RIVER TUESDAY

Shown above are two members of Rogers Rangers who will tangle with North River Juniors at the Charlottetown Forum Tuesday, December 8. Frank Robinson, on the left, and John Reid, on the right form the backbone of the Rangers defence. The Rangers who are undefeated in scheduled play this winter will be facing a determined Junior team who have a record of one victory and one defeat. Game time is slated for 8.30.

SDHS Defeats Rogers Rangers

In an exhibition game at St Dunstan's rink Saturday the high flying St. Dunstan's High School hockey team downed Rogers Rangers 6-3.

The penalty filled game was highlighted by a penalty-shot that the Rangers Jamie Kennedy took at the 13 minute mark of the third period which MacQuaid stopped.

The first period started out rough and in only one minute of play the Rangers picked up a penalty for cross-checking. It took the SDHS crew only six seconds to score and point the way to a St. Dunstan's victory.

The high school team added three markers before the period ended and skated off the ice with a 4-0 lead after twenty minutes.

The second period held all the scoring punch for the Rangers as they picked up their three goals in this twenty minutes The Saints drew first blood in the second period as Ron Giggey picked up a goal on a solo play. The Rangers bounced right back and at 8:25 they scored their first goal on a play in which Jamie Kennedy scored with assists from MacKinnon and Smith. For the rest of the period the Rangers kept plugging away and they were regarded with two more goals.

The third period was a cleanly played one with only two penalties being called, one to each team. The only scoring play was one in which Billy Weatherbie scored with assists going to Herbie Steele and Allan Flood.

Of the nineteen penalties called, 13 were against the Rangers. The penalties picked up by the Rangers was the leading factor to their defeat as the Saints power play picked up four goals while the Rangers were shorthanded.

Cardinals Upend Browns; Detroit Lions Whip Colts

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The St. Louis Cardinals upended the Cleveland Browns 28-19 Sunday, sending the National Football League's Eastern Division title race into a final-week showdown, and the Detroit Lions stunned Baltimore 31-14, ending the Western Division champion Colts' 11-game winning streak

Charline Johnson passed for two touchdowns and ran for two more as St. Louis closed to within one-half game of the front - running Browns in the East. Cleveland is at New York and Philadelphia visits St. Louis next weekend in season finales.

Mill Plum led the Lions past Baltimore, which had clinched the Western crown two weeks ago. The Detroit quarterback fired three scoring passes and plunged for another touchdown.

Minnesota outscored the Giants 30-21; the Eagles tripped Dallas 24-14; Pittsburgh edged Washington 14-7 and San Francisco whipped Los Angeles 28-7 in Sunday's other games. Green Bay drubbed Chicago 17-3 Saturday.

Boston beat Kansas City 31-24; San Diego buried New York 38-3 and Oakland surprised Buffalo 16-13 in American Football League games.

STRUCK FOR THREE

The Cardinals, now 8 - 3 - 2, struck for three touchdowns in an 11 - minute second - period burst and held the Browns to four Lou Groza field goals until the closing minutes. Johnson hit Joe Childress on a 46-yard scoring play, passed eight yards to Bobby Joe Conrad for a touchdown and scored twice on one-yard sneaks.

Cleveland's Jim Brown failed to score and still needs one touchdown to tie Don Hutson's career record of 105 The Browns are 9-3-1 going into their finale against the Giants

The Lions took a 10-0 lead over the Colts early in the second quarter and never were headed. Plum hit Jim Gibbons with two six-yard touchdown passes and connected with Terry Barr on a 17-yarder. Baltimore's Lenny Moore ran his scoring string to 16 consecutive games when he recovered a fumble by teammate Jimmy Orr in the Detroit end zone.

Fran Tarkenton's second touchdown pass, a 30-yarder to Bill Brown in the final period, overcame a 21-20 New York lead. Brown ran for 103 yards and Fred Cox botted three field goals for the Vikings. Clarence Childs, who tried out with the Western Football Conference Calgary Stampeders in 1961, scored the Giants' first touchdown on a 100-yard kick-off return.

Quarterback Jack Concannon, making his first start, hit on 10 of 20 passes for 134 yards and two touchdowns and ran for 99 yards as the Eagles completed a season sweep of the Cowboys Concannon's fourth-quarter TD bomb to Pete Retzlaff, good for 31 yards, put the Eagles in front to stay.

Pittsburgh stopped Washington twice on the one-yard line in the final minute and snapped the Redskins' four-game victory skein. Ed Brown's 47-yard scoring pass to Gary Ballman broke a 7-7 tie in the last quarter.

Eagles Shade Combines 5-4

SUMMERSIDE—RCAF Eagles increased their Prince County Hockey League lead to six points yesterday downing Borden Nationals 5-4 at the air base.

The Eagles now have a 6-1 record and Borden shares second place with Enman Drug Combines. Each 3-3 records.

Eagle Doug Tucker scored two goals and assisted on Steve Phillips marker, who was playing his first game.

Jim MacLeod and Gabe Keough scored twice for the Nationals. The game also marked the first appearance for Charley Sark who was sitting out a years suspended sentence, and he drew four penalties.

The Eagles led 2-1 after the first period but Borden tied the game at 2-2 after the second period of play. When Keough scored with the airmen a man short.

As quickly as the Eagles went into an early 4-2 last period lead, Keough scored his second goal to close the gap again Tucker then came through with what eventually was the game winning score at 12:09.

MacLeod added another goal for Borden at 15:49 making the final score 5-4.

Wings Nip Mtl. Canadiens; Paille Stops Black Hawks

DETROIT (CP)—Detroit Red Wings rebounded from a 10-2 clobbering by Toronto Maple Leafs Saturday night to beat Montreal Canadiens 4-1 Sunday night and regain their three-point lead in the National Hockey League.

Rookie Goalie Roger Crozier, whose goals against average zoomed in the Toronto pasting, was sensational against the second-place Canadiens, making 32 saves.

Crozier's bid for a fourth shutout was spoiled at 10:30 of the final period by Ralph Backstrom.

The third line sparked the injury-riddled Wings with Bruce MacGregor, Paul Henderson and Pit Martin all scoring. Alex Delvecchio got the other goal as Detroit snapped Montreal's four - game winning streak.

Martin also was involved in two high - sticking duels with John Ferguson but the biggest explosion was a slugging match between 38-year-old Ted Lindsay and 28-year-old Ted Harris of Montreal.

It started late in the second period when Detroit centre Norm Ullman, playing with a broken finger, and Harris, started shoving behind the Montreal net. Lindsay got in on the action, poking Montreals Claude Larose in the face.

Referee Art Skov didn't call any penalties but as soon as play resumed, Lindsay and Harris met near the boards and started roughing. Just when it seemed settled and they headed for the penalty box, Ferguson hit Detroit defenceman Doug Barkley with the puck.

Barkley went for the puck to fire it back at Ferguson but in the meantime Lindsay and Harris were slugging at the boards.

Lindsay and Harris wound up with 17 minutes in penalties—a minor, major and misconduct.

New York 4, Chicago 1

CHICAGO (AP)—The up-and coming New York Rangers clobbered Chicago Black Hawks 4-1 Sunday night in a National Hockey League contest during which classy Bobby Hull scored his 20th goal of the season—the only puck the Hawks could push past Ranger goaltender Marcel Paille.

New York's French line of Rod Gilbert, Phil Goyette and Camille Henry starred, Gilbert scoring the final two Ranger goals and another failling to Goyette.

The triumph was the first for the Rangers over the Hawks in four meetings this season.

Gilbert's two markers, both gained with the help of Goyette and Henry, came in the final period and put the game away for the fourth-place New Yorkers, who lead the last place Hawks by six points. Gilbert drew the assist on Goyette's second-period goel, thus picking up three points. His goals were his eighth and ninth of the year

Hull scored in the second period, the goal moving him in front of Detroit's Norm Ullman in the league scoring race. Hull has 26 points to Ullman's 25.

Earl Ingarfield put the Rangers in front with his seventh goal of the year in the first period.

Goyette boosted the score to 2-0 midway in the second period before Hull hit for the Hawks. Gilbert then scored on two neat plays by his linemates.

Paille kept the Rangers in the game in the first period when he made 16 saves, while Glenn Hall in the Chicago cage stopped only six. Paille also was sharp in the final period when he stopped 17 shots. Paille wound up with 39 stops to 34 for Hall.

SUMMARY

First period—1. New York, Ingarfield 7 (Marshall, Duff) 8:31. Penalties — Mikol 3:13; MacNeil, 3:13; McKenzie, 12:22.

Second period—2 New York, Goyette 6 (Gilbert) 8:54; 3. Chicago, Hull 20 (Pilote-Wharram) 16:15 penalties— Neilson 5:36; Howell 15:36.

Third period—4. New York, Gilbert 8 (Henry, Goyette) 2:51; 5. New York, Gilbert 9 (Henry, Goyette) 8:12. Penalties—Neilson and Ravlich 8:12, MacNeil 12:52.

Maine Academy Defeats UNB

CASTINE, Me. (AP)—Maine Maritime Academy defeated the University of New Brunswick 76-65 in basketball Saturday

It was the Middles' 10th win of the season against three losses.

New Brunswick scored its first field goal only after eight minutes of play, but led 42-41 for a brief time in the early minutes of the second half

High scorer was Bill Reddin of New Brunswick with 22 points.
