

EASTER AT HOLMAN'S

The New SUITS.

This Spring you'll choose a Suit with naturally feminine lines. A well-defined waist—carefully accented hips and new softened shoulders—all conspiring to produce gentle elegance. This is the sum and substance of the 1948 Suit Fashions.

An outstanding assortment of Spring Suits—The Ballerina, the Dressmaker, the Tailored Suit made up in wool crepes, tweeds, flannels, worsteds and gabardines. The colors are lovely and so flattering. Spring Suits in sizes 10 to 46 are priced from 13.95 to 65.00.

Reverend Father E. Robin of Burton, Lot 7, was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Corcoran.
Miss Marie Jones, Coleman, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Jones.
The regular meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. William Gallant. The roll call was answered by an Irish Joke, which amused everyone. The various committees gave their reports. Mrs. Cyress Gallant was appointed on the Sick and School Committee for the next month. The roll call for the next meeting is to be a household hint. Mrs. William Gallant agreed to canvas her section of the district for the Appeal for the Children of Europe. Miss Aubina Gallant collected at the other end. Mrs. Cyrus Gallant kindly invited the members to her home for the next meeting.

After your crystal candelabra and fine glassware have been thoroughly washed and rinsed, try dipping it in witch hazel for added sparkle.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Slavert entertained at the latest Friday night party when the pupils of Irishtown School and their friends enjoyed an evening of fun and frolic. Many amusing stunts were carried out including "pinning the tail on the donkey" when Miss Irene Profit came closest, and Mr. Oliver Eymont finished farthest from the goal. A delicious lunch was served. Those assisting the hostess were Mrs. Cecil Campbell, Mrs. James Simmons and Miss Ruth Profit.

Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Warren and Mrs. Heath Mayhew entertained at a card party at the home of Mrs. Warren at Margate on Friday evening. Mrs. Leigh Paynter marked up the high score for the evening while Mrs. Edred Simmons was awarded the consolation prize. A dainty lunch was served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Keith Warren. Other recent Margate hostesses at crokinole and card parties were Mrs. Edwin Brown, Mrs. George Mayhew, Mrs. Don Baker, Mrs. Ed Eymont, Mrs. Harold Woodside and Mrs. Arthur Profit at Mrs. Woodside's home.
