Black Widow Is Maligned

VICTORIA (CP)—Pity the black widow spider. It's the most maligned member of the insect family.

So says Dr. Clifford Carl, head of the provincial museum here, who claims the black widow really is a timid insect that hides under rocks and woodpiles and rarely bites.

"The tendency to regard it as dangerous is greatly over-emphasized," said Dr. Carl.

The black widow's only distinction is that it often devours its mate. This little ecentricity, together with its shiny jet black cover, gives the spider its name.

Dr. Carl said the black widow is prevalent in many parts of British Columbia. They are seen most often in autumn months when they emerge to hunt for food in the cooler weather.

"Their bite is poisonous all right," admitted Dr. Carl, "but all spiders are poisonous. There have been a few reported cases of black widow bites here but I have my doubts."

Toronto Stocks

By The Canadian Press

TORONTO (CP)—With the New York market closed for Thanksgiving, lack of leadership had a dampening effect on Toronto stock exchange activity Thursday.

Senior base metals tended lower, but Falconbridge gained ¼ although trading ex-dividend. Noranda slipped ⅞. Good ore reports sent Merrill Island up 22 cents to $2.67 on 168,000 shares and Nama Creek ahead 21 to $1.62 on 34,000 shares. Consolidated Sudbury added 25 at $4.90. Granduc, United Keno and Eastern Smelting posted 15-cent advances. Temagami and Coldstream gained pennies. Cassiar moved down 35 to $7.85.

Golds alone of the major market sections posted an index advance. Wright - Hargreaves, which announced Thursday it will undertake an underground development program to lengthen the life of the mine, jumped 18 to $2.05. About 20 cents higher were Preston East Dome and Consolidated Discovery.

Among uraniums, Chibougamau-Kayrand added a dime at 84. Meta fell 4½ cents to 20½ on announcing it will suspend its Beaverlodge operation.

Calgary and Edmonton, off ½, headed a weaker western oil section. Bailey-Selburn dipped 25 at $9 and Security 13 at $2.42.

Index changes: Golds up .19 to 85.3.3 base metals down .59 to 210.70 and western oils down .68 to 113.51.
