CUBAN REFUGEES ARRIVE IN KEY WEST

Cuban refugees sit on deck of Coast Guard patrol boat (background) and mill around the MMM Miami in which they left Camarioca Sunday. They arrived Monday in Key West. The MMM Miami, reported stolen last Thursday at Miami, broke down enroute but repairs were made and the boat sailed into Key West under her own power. Seventeen refugees made the trip with four of the MMM Miami's four Cuban crewmen. (AP Wirephoto)

NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP) — Low-priced issues dominated the list of trading favorites Tuesday as the stock market put on a scrambled performance in heavy trading.

Volume climbed to 9,480,000 shares despite semi-holiday conditions prevailing in the U.S. due to Columbus Day. This compared with 9,610,000 Monday when all the popular market averages got in gear to make historic highs.

The averages were down to slight losses Tuesday but the number of gainers and losers was almost even on the New York Stock Exchange.

The Dow Jones industrial average, after making a gain of 2.09 in the first half hour, ended the session with a loss of 1.53 at 941.12.

It was an exciting and exciting market due to a number of trading halts in various "hot" stocks as well as some in which the exchange stopped trading temporarily as a precautionary measure pending the distribution of news about the companies.

Many high-quality issues were being neglected. Du Pont lost 2¼, Westinghouse Eelectric 1⅝ and Owens-Illinois Glass 1⅝.
