Great racing Promised At Northam

Northam races already this year proved to be one of the summer's best sporting days but coming up on Monday next, Labor Day, is an even program of horse-racing that should be at least the equal if not even better than the equal that preceded it. With four classes scheduled and all filled Secretary Clifford MacDonald has drawn up a program that should give horse-loving fans a thrill a minute. Headed by the free-for-all the other three races on the card are classified but they have been classified in such a manner that seldom or ever have more equal fields come to the wire.

But the racing will not be the only enjoyment to be had. Charlie Chamberlain, well known and popular vocalist will entertain the crowd between hits with selections and then in the evening a horse show and moose dance will be held that should call fans to the program arranged for the week of the great day. Yes, by the look of the program arranged for Northam is in for a great day and with the assurance of a big crowd—Northam always draws a big one—all that remains is some cooperation from the weatherman.

Reviewing the race card we come to the free-for-all headed by that great campaigner Rainey G. Henley. Rainey has thrown several big surprises into race crowds already this season but on Monday will be pitted against four other horses that have loads and loads of speed. Bedford Grattan a horse that always improves as the season goes along; Signal Senator, a horse that can never be counted out of it and one of the toughest; the sensational fast pacer mare Usula Britton who has already chalked up a string of victories both here and on the mainland and then last but not least Major Bowes who last year proved that the longer the racing goes the better he gets.

Coming to No. 1 Classified we find seven starters. Albert E. Grattan a horse that hasn't been out of the money this season heads the list; following the Grattan horse is Direct L. a horse with words of speed. Brian Yorke will have to be considered mightily; Charlotte B. a fast mare who if she hits her right stride will make it merry for the rest; Silent Joe who only last Wednesday at Truro took a new mark; Bebe McElwyn fully recovered from an injury who can also pace very fast; and Paul Abbe, Jimmy Power's great trotter, that has been going so well this season.

A Big Feature

Here is something new and something different. In Classified No. 2 with seven more starters owners only will be driving and this is bound to furnish excitement. Beaverdale will have Pope Clarke at the reins. Scotty Watson will be guided by George Brodies; Ethel Bellini will have the old veteran Ira Carr up; George MacIntyre will be handling George Mac; Silent Mac's destinies will be guided by Nell Waker; George Sobe will look after Lucky Guy while Ruby Volo will have George Kitson at the reins. Try and pick the winner and winning driver.

The last race on the card brings together a field of nine horses all well-known. Raymond Budlong; Hilda Budlong, Margaret Jean, Peter Reamore, a much-improved bit of horse-flesh, Jack Clyde, Little Audrey, Laocopia Lass, Singing Sam, Golden Guy, all well-known performers and all evenly matched that will wind-up a great day's racing card.

Make it a point to be there. Taupé is returning to style. Flared tunics have a young and jaunty look.

42 golfers Entered in Tournament

SAINT JOHN, N. B., Aug. 28—(CP)—Forty-two amateur golfers, led by a contingent of 25 from the Riverside golf and country club, were entered tonight in the Maritime Invitation Amateur and proceeded to the Riverside links next Monday and Tuesday.

Besides the Riverside players nine are entered from Lakeside Golf Club, Moncton; six from the Riverdale Golf Club, Moncton; one from Woodstock Golf Club and one from Algonquin Golf Club, St. Andrews, N. B.

Entries close Sunday at 3 p. m., Atlantic daylight time. Post entries will be accepted up to 10 a. m. Sept. 1, but the starting times for these players will be after all others have led off.

The tournament will include 36 holes of medal play for amateurs and 72 holes for professionals. The meet is open to amateurs of any golf club in any provincial or state golf association and pros of any club of the N. B.-P.E.I. golf association or N. S. golf association.

The play calls for 18 holes Monday and 18 holes Tuesday for amateurs, or the whole 36 holes may be played Monday by any golfer whose time is restricted and who cannot remain for both days.

The professionals will play 36 holes Monday, 18 in the morning and 18 in the afternoon, and the final 72 on Tuesday.

The amateur winner will be designated as maritime champion for 1941 and the pro victor as Maritime professional titleholder for this season.

Prizes for amateurs include: champion and runner-up to champion (gross scores); best net score, second best net, third best net, fourth best net, fifth best net and special prizes for tee shots coming nearest the hole on No. 8 green in both rounds. There will be cash prizes for pros.

Pros expected to enter include Vernon Balch and Syd Stewart, Riverside; Archie Skinner, Algonquin Golf Club, St. Andrews, N. B.; New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island pro and open champion; Fred Hancock, Fredericton Golf Club; Larry Thornton, Moncton Golf Club; Earle Jamieson, Ridgewood Golf and Country Club.

Yanks win In 10-innings

NEW YORK, Aug. 28—(AP)—The Yankees gave good proof in at the reins. George Brodies will be guided by the old veteran Ira Carr up; George MacIntyre will be handling George Mac; Silent Mac's destinies will be guided by Nell Waker; George Sobe will look after Lucky Guy while Ruby Volo will have George Kitson at the reins. Try and pick the winner and winning driver.

His Excellency Shades winner of Hambletonian

SYRACUSE, N.Y., Aug. 28—(AP)—Setting a season's record for three-year-old trotters, when he went the second mile in 2:03 Bill Strang's His Excellency scored one of the year's biggest Grand Circuit upsets when he shut out the Hambletonian winner, Bill Gallon, in all three heats of the $8,000 Governor's Stake, before a crowd of 10,000 here today.

His Excellency, which won the first heat of the Hambletonian, was driven by Ben White, who got his Brooklyn-owned colt out in front in the stretch of all three heats and had enough to stave off Lee Gallon's desperate drives with Bill Gallon.

Cards take Advantage of Idle Dodgers

NEW YORK, Aug. 28—(AP)—St. Louis Cardinals look advantage of an open date for Brooklyn Dodgers today to crush New York Giants 5-0 and cut the margin between first and second place in the National League to one game.

Howard Pollet, the 20-year-old rookie southpaw sensation, held the Giants to three scattered singles while his teammates blew the struggle wide open with a five-run blast in the fourth inning.

It was Pollet's third start since being called up from the Texas League two weeks ago and was his second victory.
Tom Earley's two-hit pitching gave him a slight edge in a stirring hurling duel with Vallie Baves of Chicago Cubs, enabling

Win final Match of tour

LAVAL SUR LE LAC GOLF CLUB, LAVAL, Que., Aug. 28—(CP)—The eastern team of Stan Horne and Jules Fuot salvaged the last of a five-match series with westerners Stan Leonard and Fred Wood today when they rallied to gain a one-up victory in the east-west professional tour.

Leonard, from Calgary and Wood from Vancouver, had won the first four matches played on western courses. The five-match series was played for the benefit of the Red Cross.

The Braves to win a 2-1 verdict at home.
For eight innings, El Pearson, Phillies righthander, had a shut-out at Philadelphia, but Pittsburgh Pirates exploded in the ninth to score three runs with two out for a 3-2 victory.

Dozen pros Shatter par

HERSHEY, Pa., Aug. 28—(AP)—A dozen professionals took the long, tough Hershey Country Club layout apart today, and leading the first round of the $5,000 Hershey open golf championship at the end of the day was a quartet of top notchers tied at 69, four under par.

Deadlocked for the lead were Ben Hogan, the host professional; Clayton Heafner, Lanville, N.C.; George Fazio, of Philadelphia and Harry Nettiebladt, Framingham, Mass.

Heafner's was the more remarkable performance. He started skakily, scrambling for pars on the first two holes and taking a sad seven on the long third.
Then he started to hit the hole. He canned a 15-footer on the seventh for a birdie three, holed a chip from the edge of No. 8 for another birdie, hit the par-five 12th with

Marvin Ward Shoots way Into semi-final

OMAHA, Aug. 28—(AP)—Marvin (Bud) Ward of Spokane, Wash., went into the semi-final round of the United States amateur golf championship today with a 5-and-4 victory over Steve Kovach of Pittsburgh.

Pat Bishop of Boston, the New England champion and somewhat of a surprise survivor, beat the tournament's growing sensation, Lon Jennings of Portland, Ore., 5 and 3 to go into the lower half semi-final.
Pat Abbott of Los Angeles, who was a finalist in 1938, drew the semi-final bracket opposite Bishop with a 3-and-2 decision over Ray Billows of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

The bracket opposite Ward, the 1939 champion, was filled by Bob Riegel, 26-year-old former Virginian who now lives in Houston, Tex., and who outlasted Bruce McCormick, Los Angeles fireman, in an 18-hole dog fight for a 1-up triumph.

THE POET

The bard his sweetest music pours when happy thoughts of life he sings when God reveals them to him.
So, when the muse blows well, he sings in his heart welling; And though they fall on stony ears He feels the joy of writing.
