THE LEGISLATURE

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEBATE.

On motion of Hon. Mr. Laird, the Bill to allow Louisa M. Hobkirk and others to transfer certain lands in Prince County was read a second time.

The Bill was passed through Committee and reported agreed to.

A Message from the House of Assembly by Hon. Mr. Peters with a Bill to be intituled "An Act to enable the Government to purchase certain lands in Prince County."

Medical Act 1892.

On motion of Hon. Mr. Laird, the Bill to be intituled "The Medical Act 1892" was read a second time.

Hon. Mr. LAIRD.—As far as I can understand the Bill, it is framed on a similar basis to those of the other provinces, and is for the purpose of requiring medical men to come up to a certain standard in their profession. It is paving the way for reciprocity among medical men, and it is certainly desirable that our medical men when they move into the other provinces should be allowed to practice without any unnecessary delay. There appears to be some objection to the Bill by some medical men who have not been long in the province, but I think they are standing in their own light. Sometimes men get rusty in their profession and do not care to go before their fellow practitioners to be examined. Of course this Bill will be open for discussion and I presume open to amendment I have no objection to allowing medical men to have restrictions on the men of their own profession. The object is a good one although the Bill may not be perfect in detail. I hope it will be strict enough to keep out all the bad doctors and liberal enough to allow all the good ones to practice.

Mr. CAMPBELL.—Any Bill having for its object the raising of the standard of any profession is a laudable one. We passed a Medical Act in 1890 which we considered a little too strict, and now we have another before us to improve upon that. Bills of this nature require to be closely criticized. We have a number of men constituting themselves into a Medical Council and asking us to give them certain powers so that they may have control over the whole medical fraternity. They will have the power of saying who shall not be permitted to practice medicine in the Province and also who shall and who shall not be allowed to become medical students. If we pass this Bill, any medical man coming here no matter how high he stands in his profession will have to submit to the will of a lot of monopolists, and will have to pass an examination before men who are not his peers. I understand that one of the most eminent men in the profession is living on sufferance, not being qualified to pass an examination. These men may pluck a young man coming from college because they may be afraid he will take away some of their practice. A young man who wants to study medicine will have to pass a matriculation examination before this council, or have the qualification of a first class teacher, and I think the colleges should be the best judges of the qualification of their students. What right have we to pass a law to make every medical man who comes here be subject to this medical council. If a man is a properly qualified physician he should be allowed to practice. The Bill provides that if a man practices medicine without getting permission from this medical council he shall be sent to jail, and I think we have no right to hand over the rights and privileges of the people into the hands of monopolists. The 26th clause provides that medical men may sue to recover any fees in a court of law. This is fraught with great danger to the country, for it will allow those men to lay down any scale of fees they think proper, and no man will be allowed to practice unless he charges those fees. Why should we allow those men special privileges over merchants and others in the collection of debts? The Bill provides that a doctor may sue before a justice of the peace while other people have to go to the county court to collect debts. A young man may practice medicine, and if he has not permission from this medical council he can be fined, and if unable to pay the fine be sent to jail. We are giving the medical council power to pluck whom they think proper, and it may be the means of preventing our best young men from coming here to practise. Will it be in the public interest to give this medical council the power they are asking for?

Mr. MACKENZIE—The speech of my hon. colleague appears very plausible, but we must remember that there is scarcely anything in the Bill before the House which is not in the Medical Act now on the Statute Book, and if we refuse to pass this the doctors can fall back on the old Act. This Bill is only improving the law now in force, and does not give the Medical Council any greater powers than they have at present. When a man comes here to practice medicine, how are the public to know whether he is a properly qualified physician or not unless we have a medical society. It is necessary there should be some means of preventing mountebanks from coming here and gulling the people. Some men go a short time to a medical college and purchase a deploma. Those men can come here and practice while they are shut out from places where they have a Medical Association to protect them. I am informed that in the state of Massachusetts, a doctor who had a diploma from one of the best colleges in the world could not practise until he put himself on record with the Medical Board there. One of the best graduates of McGill College could not practise in Ontario or Quebec without being recorded by a Medical Association. I suppose our doctors are as well qualified as those of any other place, but if they went to Nova Scotia they would not be allowed to practise until they got their names on the books of the Medical Society there, but if we have a Medical Society here, and their names are on its books, they will be on a level with those in other places. In reference to the clause which provides that where any medical practitioner has been guilty of any infamous or disgraceful conduct he shall be liable to have his name erased from the Register, I would like it should be put in such a way that any person would know what would be considered infamous conduct in a doctor in the eyes of the Medical Board. The Medical Board might consider it disgraceful conduct for one doctor to visit the patient of another, although the patient himself desired to consult the second doctor. I believe it is looked upon as unprofessional for a doctor to publish his business, but I can see no harm in that. I would like the doctors to give us a definition of what constitutes disgraceful professional conduct.

Mr. DODD.—Our doctors would have to go before a Medical Council if they wished to practise in any of the other provinces, and, we have the same right to compel other places to undergo our examination.

House in committee.

Mr. Scrimgeour in the chair.

First clause read and agreed to.

After some discussion progress was reported.

Diarrhœa and Vomiting.

Gentlemen,—About five weeks ago I was taken with a very severe attack of diarrhœa and vomiting. The pain was almost unbearable and I thought I could not live till morning, but after I had taken the third dose of Fowler's Wild Strawberry the vomiting ceased, and after the sixth dose the diarrhœa stopped, and I have not had the least symptoms of it since.

Mrs. Millions's Ride.

When Mrs. Million goes to ride she travels forth in state.
Her horses, full of fire and pride, go prancing from the gate;
But all the beauties of the day she views with languid eye,
Her flesh in weakness waste away, her voice is but a sigh.

FOR Mrs. Million is in an advanced state of catarrh, and all the luxuries that wealth can buy fail to give her comfort She envies her rosy waiting maid, and would give all her riches for that young woman's pure breath and blooming health. Now, if some true and disinterested friend would advise Mrs. Million of the wonderful merits of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, she would learn that her case is not past help. $500 reward is offered by the manufacturers for a case of catarrh in the head which they cannot cure.

Hamilton, April 20, 1892.

I WAS doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp, they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Anti-Dandruff, I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years; when half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti Dandruff has no equal.
