Women

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD J. LAWLOR

Hunter's River Girl Weds At St. Dunstan's Basilica

Gladioli decorated the altar of St. Dunstan's Basilica in Charlottetown in August when Mary Audrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John LeClair of Hunter's River, became the bride of Richard Joseph Lawlor of Marshfield.

Reverend Clarence Roche performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass. The altar boys were William MacKinnon and Brian Afleck. Mrs. Joseph Dougan, organist, accompanied Miss Bernadette Power as she sang appropriate hymns.

Guest pews were marked with marigolds tied with white satin bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a floor length gown of white nylon organza over satin fashioned with a fitted bodice, a round neckline trimmed with lace and tiny seed pearls and full length lily point sleeves. The bouffant skirt was gathered in the back with roses of white organza. Her shoulder length veil of tulle illusion was held by a crown of tiny lace flowers. She carried a crescent shape bouquet of red roses and her jewellery was a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by Miss Marjorie Curley, maid of honor, in a frock of lime green peau de sole with matching shoes and headdress. She carried a nosegay of white carnations with tinted green centers.

Miss Ann Connolly and Miss Gerarda LeClair as bridesmaids were in frocks of gold peau de soie with matching shoes and headdresses. They carried nosegays of white carnations with tinted gold centers.

The little flower girl, Miss Jocelyn Saunders, cousin of the groom and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Saunders of Marshfield, was in a frock of lime green peau de soie and carried a basket of mixed flowers.

Michael MacKinnon, cousin of the groom, acted as bestman and the ushers were Joseph Caswell, cousin of the groom and Howard Court.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. LeClair chose a two piece navy blue dress with white accessories with a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. John Caswell, grandmother of the groom, wore a green flowered silk dress with beige accessories with a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for 85 guests at the Queen Hotel, Charlottetown. The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with a gold cross, intertwined rings and decorated with silver leaves. The tables were decorated with vases of mixed flowers.

Joseph Caswell as master of ceremonies called upon the groom's father, Richard Lawlor, to say grace. The toast to the bride was proposed by Clifford Matheson and responded to by the groom. Michael MacKinnon proposed a toast to the bridesmaids

Mrs. Charles Jenkins circulated the guest book.

For her honeymoon the bride chose a two piece wool suit with black patent accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by the Misses Marjorie Curley and Gerarda LeClair at a personal shower. She was also tendered a community shower in Hunter's River. Following their return Mr. and Mrs. Lawlor were honored at a community shower in Marshfield Hall.

The young couple have taken up residence at 9 Alexander Drive in Charlottetown. The bride is a teacher at Marshfield School and the groom is employed with Hillside Motors.

(Photo by C.D. MacKay)

PROBE ATOM POWER

A study is being made into the possibility of building a nuclear power station on South Australia's Yorke Peninsula.

HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevenson, Summerville, Mass. (formerly of North River) are guests of the former's brother Brenton Stevenson, North River and are also visiting other relatives.

Miss Peggy Beck of Montague whose marriage to Dr. John MacIntyre took place Saturday, Sept. 14 at the family summer residence has been widely entertained.

The Development Engineering staff of the Department of Public Works honored Miss Beck at a buffet supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Johnston, Charlottetown. A beautiful silver tray was presented to the bride-to-be.

The congregation of the Church of Christ, Montague, entertained at a party. After Peggy had opened a dazzling array of wedding gifts the elders on behalf of the church presented her with a Westminister chimes clock. Wilfred MacDonald read the complimentary address and Douglas MacLaren made the presentation.

Young members of her family tendered Miss Beck and her fiance a ranch style party. The hostesses were Mrs. Malcolm Beck and Mrs. Paul Jenkins, Charlottetown. Nelson Douglas was in charge of arrangements and Sandy Beck was master of ceremonies. Miscellaneous gifts were presented and toasts were proposed by Gordon and Scot Beck.

Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Lawson entertained at a dinner party at their spacious home in Inkerman where Dr. MacIntyre and his future bride were presented with a lovely gift.

Mrs. Don MacQuarrie and Mrs. Ivan MacDonald were joint hostesses at Mrs. MacDonald's home in Montague. Guests were first cousins of the bride. Music was furnished by a stringed trio. Gifts for the bride's kitchen were presented.

At a delightful party at the home of Mrs. H. M. Smith, Montague, the members of the St. Andrew's choir presented Dr. MacIntyre with a gift.

Mrs. Ruth Inman and Mrs. Preston Beck entertained members of the Charlottetown Chorale Members of the Music Festival Association, close friends and church friends at an interesting shower for Miss Beck. An original skit with Lillian Duchemin as the dentist and Joyce Norris as the assistant was most entertaining. Members of the chorale with Helen MacRae as accompanist presented an hour of music.

Mrs. Neil Hooley, Montague, entertained at a miscellaneous shower. Decorations and arrangements were cleverly executed. This party was a complete surprise to the bride-to-be. The guests— office friends and intimate friends showered Miss Beck with beautifully wrapped gifts for her new home.

The Montague Chorale of which Miss Beck was accompanist and her fiance a member of the bass section, met at the home of Mr and Mrs. Ralph Beck. The evening of music was climaxed by the presentation to the honored pair of an album with records of all the concerts that had been presented by the Montague Chorale.

Neighbours on the Riverside Drive block in Montague presented Miss Beck with a beautiful woolen blanket.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril MacGregor and Eric MacGregor entertained for Miss Beck and Dr. MacIntyre at a charming dinner party at the Willow Room on Wednesday evening when they were presented with a silver candelabra by their hosts.

Mrs. Myron R. Bell entertained at a dinner party at her home on Goodwill Avenue, Charlottetown. Guests were intimate friends of the bride-to-be. After receiving valuable recipes and kitchen helps, Miss Beck was presented with a beautiful piece of crystal.

Dr. MacIntyre was entertained at a stag party on Thursday evening at the home of Dr. Bill MacIntyre.

Miss Beck was the recipient of a gift from the members of the Montague Retarded Children's Association.

Mrs. Donald Lidstone, Summerside, returned recently from Ottawa where she attended a meeting of the Advisory Council of the National Library. Mrs. Lidstone is the P.E.I. representative on the council.

Mr. Elliott Ferguson of Markham, Ontario, is spending his holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Victor Ferguson, Hampton.

House guests this week of Dr. and Mrs. L.M. Callbeck, Summerside, were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hollinger, Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Hollinger, for the first time, visited many points of interest on P.E.I. and will from here go to Nova Scotia and around the Cabot Trail on their return home by way of Edmundston, N.B., and Quebec.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lockwood, St. Timothy, Quebec, accompanied by their son Edward of Toronto and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Thompson from Valleyfield, Que., have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gaudet, Parkdale.

Couple Reside In Montague Following N.S. Honeymoon

A pretty summer wedding was solemnized at the United Baptist Church, Murray River, when Sandra Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lowe, Murray River, became the bride of Harry Laird, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter King, Sturgeon. Rev. A.G.J. Steeves officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of summer flowers and the guest pews were marked by tiny bouquets of lily-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Phyllis Harris was in charge of the wedding; music and accompanied Miss Heather King as she sang "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony, and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a floor length wedding gown of white satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, bouffant skirt with a broaded panel in the front, rounded neckline and lily point sleeves. Her shoulder length veil of tulle illusion fell softly from a headdress of sequins, and she carried a bouquet of red roses. Her only jewellery was a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by her two sisters who wore identically fashioned street length dresses of nylon net over satin, with matching headdresses of net and tiny artificial flowers. Miss Doris Lowe, as maid of honour, wore a pink dress with white accessories and carried a nosegay of pink tinted mums. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Grant Sencabaugh, chose a blue dress with white accessories and carried a nosegay of blue tinted mums. Little Miss Mary Lou Lowe, youngest sister of the bride, was flower girl. She was winsome in a dress of pink nylon net over taffeta with matching headdress and carried a basket of pink roses.

Garfield Graham was best man, while Bud Lowe, brother of the bride, and Winston White ushered the guests.

Mrs. Lowe chose for her daughter's wedding a powder blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. King, mother of the groom wore a two piece beige dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception for thirty-six guests was held at Hillside Inn, Montague. The bride's table was centered with a beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr Steeves, and responded to by the groom. The guest book was circulated by Miss Sandra King sister of the groom.

For a honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia, the bride wore a three piece pale blue suit, with white feathered hat and white accessories, and a corsage of white carnations.

The young couple are residing in Montague where the groom is employed with Doug's Service Station, while the bride is on the staff of T.M. Llewellyn Ltd.

Prior to their wedding, Mr. and Mrs. King were entertained at miscellaneous showers at Murray River, and by friends from Sturgeon, Montague and Lower Montague in the Lower Montague Hall. They were also guests of honour at a shower tendered them by the congregation of the United Baptist Church, Montague.

station after serving in France for the past three years.

Ralph Sinnott arrived here from Hamilton, Ont., over the week-end to attend the wedding of his brother Clement and spend the rest of his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Sinnott.

Miss Katie O'Brien who has been spending some time here looking up old friends after a long absence in the U.S.A. will leave this week on return to her home in Boston.

A market shopper in the city last week reports getting two, ten-pound bags of potatoes that were nothing short of culls, some as big as turnips, rotten in the center and others cut sliced and rotten. This is a poor advertisement for farmers. This customer also reports a two lb. bag of carrots costing 29 cents was of the same low quality.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hooper, who were visiting their old home here left on Thursday for their Boston home. Many old friends remember that awful night years ago when Harry Hooper was severely burned in an explosion and fire at the old village rink. It almost cost him his life and he was left permanently scarred. Mrs. Hooper was the former Agnes Flynn.

Halifax, N.S. were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Gallant.

Mr. and Mrs. Justin Corcoran, son Donnie and daughter Aileen spent the weekend visiting relatives here.

Dan Dalton is progressing favourably in the Charlottetown Hospital where he is a patient.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Arsenault were Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Gallant, Saint John, N.B., also Mrs. Gerry Gallant and Miss Ann Gallant, Howlan.

Freddie Gallant and Hermin Gallant won prizes in French at St. Anthony. Prizes were donated by the Assumpsion Society.

Forty hour devotion was held at St. Anthony's this week. Seven neighboring priests assisted Rev. Clarence Pitre.

Melvin Blanchard employed in the east end of the Island spent the weekend at his home here.

YORK

Mr. and Mrs. Benhard Schmaly and granddaughter, Ruth Ashley, were visitors to Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman MacLennan and daughter, Glen Valley spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laken Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Edison Watts and son, Summerside spent the weekend in York.

PIUSVILLE

Mrs. John P. Gallant is around again after being a patient in the Prince County Hospital, Summerside.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murray, Boston, Mass., spent a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Warburton Murray, Piusville also Mr. and Mrs. Keir Murray Mimingash.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Arsenault,

BRISTOL

Joseph Donovan entered the Charlottetown Hospital some time ago, suffering from a heart attack and is still a patient there.

Mrs. Charles Eldershaw was in Summerside for a few days last week, visiting her daughter whose husband has been transferred to the Summerside RCAF

ASTHMA QUICK RELIEF
CHRONIC BRONCHITIS
Are you off work, unable to sleep because you wheeze, cough, gasp for breath? Take TEMPLETON'S RAZ-MAH specially made to help asthma sufferers breathe more easily, so you can work and sleep more comfortably. Only 65c and $1.65 at drug counters everywhere.
T63-10

island furriers

MATCHED SETS

by "Parkhurst"

Not exactly as illustrated

UNFORGETTABLE FASHION . . . full fashioned sweaters . . . pencil slim skirts. Truly delightful is the gay array of smart, new fall shades. Long sleeve Botany wool sweaters from 9.95; matching skirts 12.95; Angora sweaters (long sleeve) from 12.95; skirts to match 15.95. Sweaters 36 - 42, and skirts 8 - 18.

island furriers ltd.

79 Grafton Street Dial 2-1273

ELLEN'S DIARY

Sunset's Amber Ribbons Herald Autumn's Arrival

Now came the September wind and the showers, bending the treetops before them, beating down the proud stalks of the prairie, playing havoc with the harvest apples.

"This is our field-day!" a sow of those, whose open doors let them out and in from the piggery at will to the remnants of old orchard, chuckled. "Well, what's keeping us?" she queried, nodding to the others to follow as she led off in a blithe race to pick up the dropped fruit. Indoors, the first of the fall litters, the only one up to this, has reached the roguish playful stage.

"I want to touch one!" Peter will say. And what happiness it gives the little lad to feel the body silken-sided, and warm, beneath his young hand...

"Interrupting you for a moment!" Curiosity speaks up from his cushion on the couch, "but isn't it 'in the wind' that Tabby's had her young'uns?"

"There was word of it today" we say.

"Well confidentially now, who ...whom, I should say, in your opinion did they resemble?"

And the old clock ticks away in the ensuing silence. And the night comes up from the quiet fields to stop at our windows. James has not yet come from some late chore at the stables. There is no one here but ourself and the cat.

"You perhaps didn't hear me?" he questions, a bit anxiously.

"Oh yes. And your question is easily answered. No one, just no one, has as yet discovered Tabby's hideout."

"Oh, so that's that!" he nods, and relaxed, he returns once more to his napping.

And "the wind she blew" through the hours of today up to the sunset when she retired over the damp fields to sleep.

The sun set in a tumult of colorful clouds—and in good promise for the weather of tomorrow. But watching the rich shades mass, and part and dissolve before long, in cool amber ribbons of autumn, we had a yearning to see again a peaceful sunset, such as spreads over a daisied meadow, when summer is full and sweet all about.

"Now what do you suppose happened to this?" Mack asked soberly, bringing by the limp body of a flicker he had picked up down by the white bridge on the roadway... What pretty birds these are, marvellously spotted and speckled in their plumage, and fetchingly brightbarred.

"A stray shot perhaps?" we suggested.

"No-o. At least there's no mark of one. I reckon he just must have died" he observed. "Too bad, for he was one of the pair I've been noticing down there when we're on the way out to school."

"Just died" — as the day dies now, with James' welcome step on the back verandah, and his hand on the opening door.

Until tomorrow — Diary — Good-night.....

H. BENNETT CARR
Insurance Counselling
Dist. Supt. Sun Life of Canada
Phone 4,5817 - 4-5455
Charlottetown, P.E.I.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES GALLANT

Stella Maris, North Rustico, Scene Of August Ceremony

The marriage of Joan Carolyn Zimmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Zimmer of North Granby, Connecticut, to James Deric Gallant, son of Mrs. Douse Gallant and the late Mr. Gallant of North Rustico took place in August at Stella Maris Church, North Rustico.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Reverend T.M. McClellan, assisted by Reverend Francis Corcoran. Miss Bernadette Gaudin, organist accompanied the women's choir. Bouquets of gladioli and snapdragons decorated the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of filmy nylon organza over layers of nylon netting and taffeta, fashioned with a tiny nipped waist and a classic scoop neckline, decorated with tiny seed pearls and sequins. The bouffant skirt with cascades of lace fell into a charming bustle at the back, which was centered with a large rosette and tiered bow of nylon organza. Her crown of seed pearls and sequins held her shoulder length veil. She carried a white prayer book adorned with pink roses.

Miss Judith Ann Zimmer was maid of honour for her sister in a street length turquoise satin gown with matching hat. She wore a corsage of yellow roses.

Aiden Doiron acted as best man; the ushers were Wayne Gallant, brother of the groom, and Douglas Gallant.

The bride's mother wore a powder blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore a pale green dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

A reception was held for 60 guests at the St. Lawrence Motel, North Rustico, the summer home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and decorated with silver leaves and white rose buds. A toast to the bride was proposed by the best man.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Martino and grandsons Michael and Timothy Moroz, all of Granby, Connecticut; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Doyle and Mr. and Mrs. John Weatherbie of Charlottetown; Mr. and Mrs. Blaire Beazley of Halifax, Nova Scotia; and Mr. Clive Keirstead of Toronto.

For their honeymoon trip to Cape Breton the bride wore a beige and brown knitted suit, white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Prior to their marriage the bride was honoured with showers at the homes of Mrs. Francis Gauffier of North Rustico and Mrs. Michael Doyle, Charlottetown.

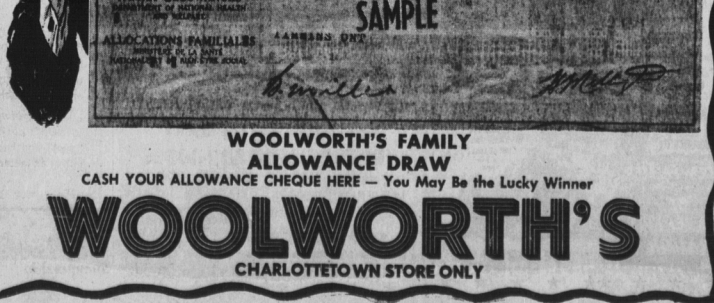
The bride and groom will reside in North Rustico where they are both teaching at Stella Maris Regional High School.

FAMOUS FOR BRANDED INSPECTED
STEAKS
GOOD OR MONEY BACK
ZAKEMS

Family Footwear
WHERE SMART STYLES ORIGINATE
Agnew-Surpass
Queen St. Ch'town

GUARANTEED INVESTMENT CERTIFICATES
5½%
Eastern Trust Guaranteed Investment Certificates are issued on amounts of $100.00 and upwards. Interest will be paid half yearly by cheque or allowed to accumulate at the same rate.
The EASTERN TRUST Company
Established 1899
2461

YOUR BABY BONUS CHEQUE
CAN WIN YOU YOUR NEW FALL
Coat From Our Wide Selection . . . Pick
Of Your Choice . . . At Any Price.
Misses or Ladies Value Up To $36.95



WOOLWORTH'S FAMILY ALLOWANCE DRAW
CASH YOUR ALLOWANCE CHEQUE HERE — You May Be the Lucky Winner
WOOLWORTH'S
CHARLOTTETOWN STORE ONLY