TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — Prices of industrial and western oil issues were slashed as market support diminished Thursday on the Toronto Stock Exchange.

The industrial index, a yardstick of how hey stocks move, tumbled 1.41 to 146.86, following the trade on the New York Exchange.

Brokers attributed the weakness to investor uncertainty about Finance Minister Sharp's mini-budget Monday.

Inco led the list lower, falling 2 to 92¼. Interprovincial Pipe-Line slid 1¾ to 83 and Versatile and Bank of Nova Scotia ¾ each to 26 and 62¾.
