Secretary-General Will Give Intentions

UNITED NATIONS (AP) — U Thant will announce Sept. 1 or 2 — after his return from a trip to Mexico and Chile — whether he intends to step down as UN Secretary - General, a spokesman said recently.

The spokesman said Thant had no comment on published reports that he had already made up his mind to leave his UN post and had communicated his decision to key UN delegates.

Thant had announced previously he would make his decision known by the end of this month. A spokesman said the secretary - general would return Aug. 31 from a week-long trip during which he will dedicate a new building for the UN economic commission for Latin America at Santiago, Chile.

Thant is under considerable pressure to seek a new five-year term as secretary-general. His present term expires Nov. 3.

A delegation from the powerful 36 - nation African group called on him last Friday and asked him to stay on the job. A spokesman said Thant would take their views into account.

MUCH SUPPORT

Thant has the support of the big powers — the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and France — and the overwhelming majority of the UN membership.

He has made known, however, his reluctance to serve another term. Informed sources said this stemmed partly from discouragement over failing to get a settlement of the Viet Nam war and also failure to obtain commitments from UN members to make up deficits for past UN peacekeeping operations and to commit themselves to support future operations with pledges and cash.

Spring Hesitation Is Starting To Show

By JAMES NELSON

OTTAWA (CP) — This spring's hesitation in the long upward surge of the economy has started to show more clearly in official statistics. But economists say later information indicates continued good times, troubled only by strong inflationary pressures.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics' index of industrial production, which measures about one-third of national output, moved up an average of 1.7 points a month in the first quarter of the year.

But in April and May it moved ahead only nine-tenths of a point a month. The May index announced recently was 275.6, based on 1949 production equalling 100.

Noticeably slack was output of durable goods, regarded as a key indicator of consumer and business assessment of the future.

NO DOWNTURN SEEN

Industrial production and the general economy have been on the upswing together since early 1961, in the longest sustained advance since the Second World War. The hesitation that appeared this spring was neither a downturn nor a levelling-out of the line, but just a moderation in its upward rate of climb.

Trade Minister Winters recently reported that despite Finance Minister Sharp's urgings to move ahead more slowly, business capital investment this year will be six per cent greater than businessmen themselves forecast at the beginning of the year.

Such a business capital investment program, with its ramifications throughout the economy, adds to inflationary pressures.

Coupled with it as danger signs for the months ahead, say some economists here, are the wage demands being made by many parts of the labor sector, and the buying impetus among farmers and others in western Canada resulting from big wheat sales to Russia and China.

Montreal Police Question Prisoner

MONTREAL (CP) — City police recently questioned a prisoner in Bordeaux jail in an investigation of a gang of hired killers believed to be operating in the city.

The man being questioned last week led provincial police officers to the Laurentian mountains grave of a Montreal woman who had disappeared in January 1965.

Mrs. Jean-Guy Lauziere, 35, was found in a lime-filled shallow grave 75 miles north of here. She had been shot once through the head and twice through the body.

Det.-Lieut. Jacques Parizeau of the Montreal police said Wednesday the police knew that a gang of hired killers were operating in Montreal's east end section.

SEEK LINK IN SLAYINGS

Police said they are investigating possible links between five Montreal slayings, with one of which Mrs. Lauziere was connected.

Mrs. Lauziere disappeared shortly after she witnessed the rifle-killing of Roland Chretien at the All Nations Cafe on an intersection of east-central St. Lawrence Boulevard, Jan. 27, 1965.

The man being held in Bordeaux jail is to appear as a material witness at the coroner's inquest into the death of Mrs. Lauziere, set for next week.

The other four killings being investigated are those of walter Laurier Labelle, taxi driver, Raymond Bellehumeur and the 1950 double-slaying of two east-end men, Rejean Raymond and Arsene Malot.

Opening lead — three of diamonds.

Claiming tricks before play is concluded is a practice used by many declarers who see no point to continuing the play of a hand where the rest of the plays are clearly automatic.

However, some claims by declarer are not well thought out and create considerable confusion when they occur. In such cases, especially in tournament play, the decision usually goes against the claimant. He is held strictly responsible for any confusion he may have caused, and he frequently winds up with the short end of the stick.

One of the most famous cases of an improper claim occurred two years ago in the Masters Pairs in England. South got to three notrump and West led a low diamond. East won it with the ace and returned the duce.

Declarer had a chance to err by paying low on the basis that West had the king and East the jack, but he diagnosed the situation correctly and put up the queen.

He then led the nine of clubs to the ace. East showing out. His choice of the nine turned out to be extremely unfortunate, especially after he put his cards on the table at this point and said expansively to the opponents:

"I'll cash two hearts, finesse the club, and take nine tricks. Make your own arrangements."

The defenders promptly did. West stated that if a low club was led, he would cover it with the eight, while if the jack was led, he would cover it with the queen.

South had to stand by his announcement that he would first cash the A-K of hearts and then take a club finesse, the result of which was that he could cash only four club tricks because the suit would then become blocked. He went down two.

Despite the outcome of this hand, South, who shall be nameless, finished second out of 30 pairs in the event.

QUEBEC (CP) — Quebec Premier Daniel Johnson has said the government plans to grant Sidbec more time and money for the completion of its study on the establishment of a steel industry in Quebec.

At first, Mr. Johnson said that the government was studying the matter and would make a decision later in the week.

Later in the press conference he said: "The government will grant all the time and money necessary."

Sidbec, Quebec's proposed integrated steel plant, asked in a report handed to Mr. Johnson last Friday that it be granted a delay of six months and a extra $1,500,000 in order to make worth-while recommendations to the provincial government.

Plans for Sidbec, as originally announced five years ago, were for the establishment of an integrated plant which would have cost some $200,000,000. Since then, studies have shown that the real cost would be much higher.

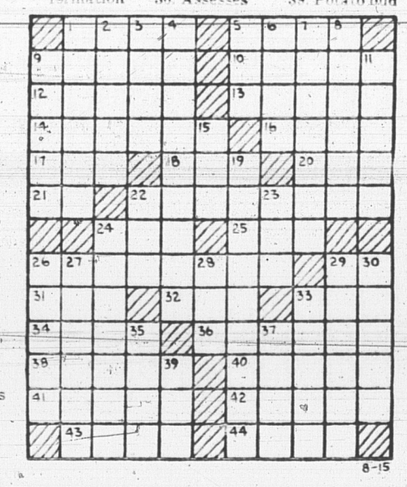
Saturday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
