OBITUARY

MALCOLM A. MacLAUGHLAN

As the noon hour was approaching on the morning of June 29th, 1966 at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, the shades of night were drawn on the mortal life of Malcolm Alexander MacLauchlan when God called him to "Eternal Day" after a heart illness of eight days in his fiftieth year. His passing came as a shock and a profound sense of loss to all who knew him but most keenly felt by his sorrowing wife and family.

He was the son of Mrs. James MacLauchlan and the late James MacLauchlan of Stanhope, who predeceased him twenty-three years ago.

The late Malcolm MacLauchlan was a man of many sterling qualities of heart and mind possessing a personality at all times pleasing. He had a high regard for the principles and concepts of the true Christian way of life and though a progressive and energetic farmer, his deepest concern in his later years was "in making his calling and election sure"; and drawing the attention of his relatives and friends of the need of "a closer walk with God". He was ever ready to give a helping hand wherever needed. Truly it may be said of him, "everyone was his friend and he was a friend to all". He was a faithful member of the First Pentecostal Church of Charlottetown and later of the Apostolic Pentecostal Church of East Royalty.

Through thrift and industry he maintained, together with his devoted wife that ideal of home and family life which was woven with love and affection among the members of this family which is the strongest of human bonds and though deep may be the grief, these things are everlasting. In sorrow we come to accept the Christian humility that which we as yet fail to understand. His hospitality will long be remembered by all who became partakers of it.

During his illness he was skillfully attended by Dr. Lea and Dr. Drysdale and the attending nurses of the Intensive Care Division of the P.E.I. Hospital. All that was humanly possible was done to restore him to health but God willed in place of the trials and struggles of this life to give him a "Crown of Righteousness". "To live in the hearts of those we love, is not to die."

In manifestation of the esteem in which he was held, there was a large procession of relatives, friends and neighbours joined the funeral cortege in a final tribute of love and respect. The funeral took place at West Covehead United Church where Rev. R.H. Baxter conducted the service assisted by Rev. Cecil McKillop of St. John's Apostolic Pentecostal Church and prayer was offered by Edwin Featherstone. A duet "I Won't Have To Cross Jordan Alone", was sung by Aubrey McAllister and James McKillop accompanied on the electric organ by Dana McKillop. Those two brethern also sang at the graveside "In The Sweet Bye and Bye". Congregational hymns sung: "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "What A Friend We Have In Jesus", were led by the combined choirs of Church Charge. Rev. Mr. McKillop took for his text, 1st Timothy, verses 7 and 8. "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only but unto all them also that love his appearing. The services at the grave were conducted by Rev. R.H. Baxter and Rev. C. McKillop, where the mortal remains of a loving husband, father, son and brother were tenderly laid to rest in the family plot.

Left to cherish his memory are his bereaved wife, the former Erma Mallett, one daughter, Jean, P.W.C. and three sons, Harvey on the homestead and Arnold and James at school. A daughter, Helen Elaine, predeceased him sixteen years ago. Also surviving is his mother, Mrs. James MacLauchlan also five sisters, (Edith) Mrs. Gregor MacCallum, Brackley Point) (Beth) Mrs. Bruce Ellis, Stanhope; (Wanda) Mrs. Walter Mallett of York; (Marguerite) Mrs. Kenneth Ellis of Bowmanville, Ontario and (Joyce) Mrs. John Skinner of Parkdale, Charlottetown also five brothers, Walter and Gideon of West Covehead, Alvin and Harry of Stanhope and Leslie of Ottawa, Ontario, also a large number of nieces and nephews.

The pallbearers were: Malcolm MacLean, Ira MacDonald, Lloyd Shaw, Keith Douglas, John Myers and Roy Bell. Flower bearers were nephews of the deaceased: Norman MacLaughlan, Donnie Ellis, Ralph MacCallum, Blair MacLauchlan, Gordon Ellis, Howard Ellis, Allen MacLauchlan, Roger MacLauchlan and John Mallett.

The many beautiful floral tributes, Gideon Bibles and messages of sympathy are silent tokens of love and respect.

The funeral was under the direction of the MacLean Funeral Home and the sound system reached hundreds who could not be accommodated in the church.

CARD OF THANKS

The wife and family of the late Malcolm Alexander MacLauchlan wish to express their sincere thanks to Dr. Lea and Dr. Drysdale and the nurses of the Intensive Care Division of the P.E.I. Hospital and visiting clergy and pastors. The MacLean Funeral Home and for the choir which led the singing at the church also the floral tributes, memorial Bibles, cards and letters of sympathy and all the kind relatives, friends and neighbours who helped in any way during his illness and at the time of his death.

TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — Industrials slumped on the Toronto Stock Exchange Friday following reports that the Soviet Union and North Viet Nam rejected the the latest U.S. peace proposal to settle the Viet Nam conflic

However, some analysts said that if a peace settlement had been reached it would have had a deflating effect on the economy because a large segment of U.S. industry is geared to war production.

Inco, which had been as low as 84⅜, closed 1¼ lower at 85¼.

Falconbridge dropped 1 to 87½. Royal Bank ⅝ to 68⅜ while Trans-Canada Pipe Lines gained 1¼ to 28 and Dofasco ⅜ to 20½.

GAINE RECORDED

Uraniums paced a higher base-metal market with Denison, which has the world's largest known reserves of the metal, ahead 1¼ to 55¾. Roman Corp., whose chief asset is Denison shares, added ¼ at 14⅜ and Rio Algom ⅜ at 24¼.
