Local and Other Notes.

Gleaned by the Guardian Reporters

MR. BENJ. ROGERS, of this city, is on a visit to his brother in Berwick, N. S.

HON. MR. PETERS entertained a number of the members of the Provincial Legislature last evening.

DIGGING operations have commenced on the site to be occupied by the new building on Stamper's Corner.

ONE of the Black Diamond Line Steamships leaves Montreal the 7th of May and is expected here on the 10th.

MR. ROBT. BEAIRSTO, Auctioneer, is expecting a carload of the celebrated Gananoque Carriage Co's carriages, which, we learn, are to be sold by auction on arrival.

THE young ladies and gentlemen interested in the entertainment and social for Monday night in Euston street hall are determined it will be first-class. Tickets only 15c.

THE building of the foundation of the new Masonic Hall has began. Teams are busy hauling away the clay. The scene presents an active appearance these fine afternoons.

THEIR GEOGRAPHY DEFECTIVE.—By the way, is not Honolulu the capital of the Hawaiian Islands, and are not they identical with the Sandwich Islands?—Examiner. Take a look at the map.

THE amendments to the Bill to abolish the Legislative Council, as suggested in the Upper House, were discussed yesterday afternoon, with closed doors. The discussion will be resumed again today.

SCHR. "Neal Dow," from P. E. I., on Tuesday, with a full cargo of oats and potatoes for Jenkins & Co. Three schooners also arrived yesterday from P. E. I. with porducts of the farm.—New Glasgow, N. S., Chronicle, 21st inst.

THE phonograph, exhibited by Mr. P. S. Ewing, on Stamper's Corner for the past few days has been quite an attraction to old and young. The selection of vocal and instrumental music produced are capital and the specimens of Irish eloquence are very natural and pleasing. The "wonderful machine" is about to become the property of Mr. James Waddell of this city.

NEWS WHICH IS SUPPRESSED.—"Keep it out of the paper" is what a local paper publisher daily hears. Men and women perform acts which become legitimate items for publication, and then rush to the newspaper offices to beg the editors to "hush it up," but they condem the paper for not having published a bit of scandal about some one else, forgetting their own visit to the printing office. The subscribers expect to read the news, and there is always wonder when, for charity's sake, an item which is in everybody's mouth is not found in the next issue of the paper.

THE young ladies of the Wesley Mission Band, held an "At Home," in the parlor of the Methodist church, last evening. There was a full attendance of the ladies of the Band, and some twenty young gentlemen, who became members for the first time. Miss Annie Mellish read a report of the working of the Band for the past five years, which showed that remarkable progress had been made. During this time the snug sum of $500 has been raised by the Band for missionary purposes. The evening was pleasantly passed in social conversation and good music. This first "At Home" terminated in a very successful "Go Home," by the young members of the Band.

THE Entertainment and Pie Social under the auspices of Charlottetown Lodge, No 1, I.O.G.T., nowithstanding the counter attractions was well attended last evening, especially by the ladies. The first hour was pleasantly spent listening to the following program: Opening ode by the choir. Readings by Miss Fairclough and Mr. Lawson. Solos by Mr. Davidson and Mrs. Ritchie. Recitation by Master Willie Lawson. Addresses by Prof. J. T. Mellish and Mr. Underhay, M.P.P. As for the pie program, we can simply state it was the most enjoyable feature of the evening's entertainment.

FRENCH Village, Lot 37, has lost one of its most estimable citizens in the person of Elisha K. Coffin, Esq., who departed this life on Thursday morning, 14th inst, aged 71 years. Deceased possessed many excellent qualities which won for him the respect of all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. A warm, generous, open-hearted man, whose hand was ever ready to help the needy, and whose home was ever open to the stranger as well as to the friend. He was a most hospitable and kind-hearted man in his own home He for a number of years held the office of Supervisor under the late Government, and faithfully performed the duties in connection therewith. He was a consistent member as well as a liberal supporter of the Presbyterian congregation of Mount Stewart and West St. Peter's. The high esteem in which he was held by all classes was shown by the large number of people that followed his remains to their last resting place. He leaves a widow and three sons, who have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

FALSELY ACCUSED.—The College boys were greeted with a good house, last night, at the Lyceum. "Falsely Accused" was given in splendid style, all the characters acting their parts well. Following was the cast:

Jasper Roseblade.....T. Campbell.
Jonathan Roseblade....J. J. Macdonald.
Claude Roseblade.....F. Murphy.
Humphrey Higson, Steward to the Earl of Milford..A. C. McEachen.
Jonas Hundle, formerly a poacher.....P. D. Maguigan.
Rev. Owen Hilton, Vicar of Milford.....B. Pratt.
Lord Viscount Elmore....W. Mackenna.
Lieut. George Florville...J. F. Johnson.
Lord Chief Justice .James A. Macdonald.
Graftson, Counsel for prisoner.....P. Gauthier.
Serg't Stanley, Counsel for prosecution.....D. F. Morrison.
Blinks Brown, Squinty Smith, Eccentric Sports, F. Trainor, D. Campbell.
Sir Henry Harrington.....C. Gauthier.
Clerk of Court.....J. B. Macdonald.
Sheriff.....D. Cameron.
Usher of Court.....J. E. O'Brien.
Grange, Thorpe, Gamekeepers to the Earl, Wm. Daly, J. F. Salomon.

QUITE a large number of young people spent a very enjoyable time at Kensington Hall last evening. The Stereopticon views exhibited by Mr. Hazzard were of a varied and interesting character, and the explanatory remarks by Mr. Sutcliffe added very much to the interest of the entertainment. Among the views that were most admired we may mention Robbie Burns; Scenes from the life of Sir Walter Scott; The Stanley; The late Judge Young's Residence, and Ten Nights in a Bar Room—the last scene representing the drunkard's death in a most impressive manner. The choruses rendered by the choir during the evening were excellent. Mrs. Sutcliffe deserves the thanks of the audience for the graceful manner in which she played the accompaniments.

Souris News.

The dust is flying on our streets, while the roads in the vicinity are almost dry.

A small fleet of fishing schooners called this week for bait, a demand which the shore fishermen were unable to supply, no bait having been secured.

The three steamers, the St. Olaff, Fastnet and Premier, have commenced making regular trips, and our merchants are filling up their shelves with new goods.

The rumsellers in blissful ignorance of the near proximity of the Inspector under the C. T. Act, still ply their nefarious trade, so that foolish drunkards or drunken fools may be seen on the streets almost any day.

Souris Division initiated three new members at its regular meeting to-night.

Souris, April 20, '92.

Obituary.

We are called upon to-day to chronicle the death of two highly respected residents of Crapaud—Mr. Edward Rogerson and Mr. James Cameron—who have recently been called very suddenly away. Mr. Rogerson was in the 68th year of his age, and leaves behind him a widow, sister of Isaac Smith, Esq., of Crapaud, and one daughter, Mrs. Robert Moore, of Westmoreland. Two brothers also survive him—William and Thomas, William being the eldest of the family, and Thomas, the youngest—and a large circle of relatives.

Mr. Cameron was in his 77th year and leaves behind him a widow, three sons and three daughters. One son and three daughters are living in the States. The two sons living here are R. H. Cameron, of the firm of McLean and Cameron, and W. W. Cameron, Augustine Cove. Mr. Rogerson was a member of St. John's Episcopal Church, Crapaud, and was buried in the cemetery here on Saturday, the 16th inst. Mr. Cameron was connected with the Methodist Church, and was buried in the cemetery at Tryon on Friday, the 15th inst. The funeral processions in both instances were very large. The bereaved families have the sympathy of the entire community.

Family ties are broken,
We know not the reasons why,
But God, who knowest all things,
Will reveal to us bye and bye.

Crapaud, April 18, 1892.

FROM THE WEST

SUMMERSIDE NEWS

Branch Office, Central St.

THE buoys which mark the channel are all in position.

S. of T.—Summerside Division, No 175, meets tonight.

BENJAMIN HAYWOOD, of Mill River, was in town yesterday.

WE learn that the farmers of Albany are about to begin general operations in farming.

DON'T decide on buying your suits or fancy trowersings until you see McSween the tailor's stock and prices.

CHARLES LAFFERTY intends to give the interior of his shop the usual course of spring treatment in a day or so.

THE Stmr. Fastnet arrived in S'side yesterday morning, and departed with a quantity of freight for Ch'town at 1 p. m.

THE prayer meetings in the different churches, Wednesday evening, were well attended, notwithstanding counter attractions.

THOMAS HENRY, of Montreal District, Agent for the N.P.R.R., and Rev. J. Coffin, Bloomfield, are registered at the Russ.

WE noticed an individual leaving town recently on a load of boards, who appeared highly pleased with himself, judging from his musical efforts.

WE notice different parties, who are recovering from attacks of the grip, take advantage of the sunny afternoons, by having a quiet stroll.

WE learn that the different steam lumber mills throughout the west are doing a rushing business principally in sawing ship plank, boards and shingles.

ALBERT Goody, lobster packer, is the first, we learn, to place the back lines and other necessary fastenings on the fishing ground in readiness for the much sought shellfish.

PENTZ Bro's, furniture manufacturers, who assigned some time ago to L Morris, of this town, held an auction, yesterday, of the machinery in connection with the plant, which, we learn, was bid in by E. Wright, at $210.

THE "Little Detective" in the Market Hall Wednesday evening by the Boston Comedy Co., is highly spoken of. We understand that the Co. will proceed to Alberton Monday and will remain in that town until Wednesday evening following.

EDWARD Holland, of St. Eleanors, had 27 wild geese on the market square yesterday, all of which he shot Tuesday at the north side. As he offered them at 60 cents, they met a rapid sale, and in the course of a few hours his wagon was emptied.

THE following are the exports per steamer Northumberland on 21st inst: 2 horses, $275; 6 cases eggs $15; 3 bbls potatoes, $2; 100 bushels oats, $49; 20 bbls oysters, $40; 529 bushels potatoes, $106; 7 bbls flour, $35; 380 yards cloth, $304.

WE learn that while Nelson Clark, of Cape Traverse, had his horse tied to a post during divine service last Sunday at one of the churches, the animal broke loose and ran with the carriage about two miles before its capture was effected. Considerable damage is reported.
