Hollingsworth Pitches Reds To 5-4 Victory Over Cubs

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, April 27—With two gone in the last of the 10th and long Lonnie Warneke on the mound, Ernie Lombardi doubled and Tommy The enow singled at Cincinnati today to give the Reds a 5-4 victory over Chicago Cubs. It was the only National League game played, today.

This victory was the Reds' fourth in six games against the Cubs this season and it gave them undisputed possession of secon dplace in the National League.

The Cubs outhit the Reds 11-9, but young Al Hollingsworth, a reformed first baseman, bore down in the pinches and retired the toughest part of the Cubs' batting order in the 10th. This was his third victory of the season in as many starts and put him on top of the league's pitching column.

SCHMELING, LOUIS TO WORK-OUT THIS WEEK

(By Eddie Brietz Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, April 27—Both Max Schmeling and Joe Louis begin work this week for their 15-round heavyweight battle in the Yankee Stadium here June 18.

Schmeling decided today to do his training at the Napanoch Country Club, N. Y., and goes there Wednesday to begin limbering up. The camp will be formally opened May 7 when the German will do his first boxing.

Louis is due Thursday at Lafayetteville, N. Y., for two weeks of roughing it before pitching camp at Lakewood, N. J., May 15. Louis is to leave Detroit by auto tomorrow.

Between now and May 7, Schmeling will play golf and do some mountain climbing.

Louis hasn't been in the ring since he fought Charlie Retzlaff in Chicago in January but he has been playing a lot of baseball and riding horseback. He weighs 212 pounds which gives him plenty of work on during the training grind.

Meanwhile, the little fellows refused to let the heavyweights monopolize the fight picture.

Jimmy McLarnin and Tony Canzoneri continued to toil for their 10 rounder in Madison Square Garden May 8, McLarnin taking a snappy workout in a gym here and Canzoneri doin gsome boxing on his up-state farm.

Despite the fact McLarnin looks like his old self in his drills and will have a 10 pound weight advantage, Canzoneri continues to rule a favorite although the odds are shortening daily.

Dick Griffin, engaged in lining up fistic attraction for the Texas centennial exposition, wired Joe Gould today asking if Jimmy Braddock would be interested in defending his title against an outstanding Texas or Oklahoma heavyweight at the centennial during September. Griffin said he could guarantee Braddock $100,000. The offer was declined.

Travis Contender For Batting Championship

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

WASHINGTON, April 27 — Tab Cecil Travis, the Senators' gangling young shortstop, who "hits 'em where they ain't," was a likely contender for the American League batting championship this year.

The 22 year old infielder, doing well afield after his shift from third base, has slapped the ball at a .389 clip during the first two weeks of the year.

Not a long hitter, Travis has learned to place his hits. In his two previous years with Washington the ex-Georgia farm boy was a dead left field hitter. This year he's been mixing 'em up, surprising the outfielders by pulling the ball into right and centre.

Travis, who cost Clark Griffith less than $300 and hit .362 with Chattancoga in his first year in baseball, has a two-year big show average of .318. Most of his hits were singles. Last year he had only eight triples, 27 doubles and no home runs. Out of his 21 hits this year, he had only four doubles and one three-bagger.

ON THE SIDELINES

WITH THE BOUT just a week off, it takes place a week from tonight at the Forum, interest in the Binns-Leslie scrap to determine the Island's heavyweight boxing champ, continues to increase by leaps and bounds. It has been a long while since a mitt-slinging event has aroused so much speculation and indications are that a record crowd will be on hand to watch the leather pushers dish it out.

But not only are the fans aroused to fever pitch. Binns and Leslie are training as if a world's title were at stake. Both boys are in the best shape of their careers and are rapidly nearing their peak. Binns, the local boy, does anywhere from four to seven miles of roadwork every morning and then works out daily at the Y.M.C.A. on the punching bag, heavy bag and winds up a hard day's work with several rounds of boxing. Manager Bill Ryan stated last evening that his boy is faster and better than ever. To use Bill's own words: "Bennie is taking this fight more serious than any one he ever participated in. He will enter the ring Tuesday night in the best physical condition of his life and will be throwing punches from the start to finish."

* * * * *

LESLIE, THE SOURIS boy who jumped into ring prominence when he entered Jack Dempsey's White Hope tournament at Toronto, is also leaving nothing undone in order to score a victory over the Island middleweight champion. His latest move in placing himself under the care of "Big Jim" Pendergast is one that is bound to improve him for the coming fight. Pendergast is a man that knows the ring game from every angle and his experience has been gained in rugged ring battles ringing from the Yukon to Boston, Massachusetts. At one time he was being groomed for a crack at the world's title, then held by the brilliant negro battler, Jack Johnson.

* * *

LESLIE IS ALSO reported to be in the "pink." For the past month and a half he has been holding daily workouts and is in far better shape than on his Toronto appearance. Any defects in his boxing will be looked after by "Big Jim" from now on and it is the concensus of opinion that Binns will be facing by far his toughest opponent on the night of May 5th.

BASEBALL TALK appears to be at a low ebb these days and with May rapidly approaching few plans are being heard for the coming campaign. Talk of several teams being formed go the rounds from time to time but always they seem to fade out. Quite a few of the boys however are getting anxious to begin work and it is probable that something definite on the matter will be heard the latter part of the week. Then it is expected that a meeting of the City League will be called to determine just what attitude the players and managers are taking in respect to the coming season.

* * *

JUST WHERE THE games will be staged this season though remains a matter of doubt. It is not known whether or not the Abegweit Grounds will be available and many are of the opinion that this will prove the case. However this should not deter the ball players to any extent. With some work the Victoria Park diamond could be put in great shape and would draw large crowds.

* * *

NOT SO MANY years ago, when the City League first came into existence, it was not a rarity to see close to a thousand fans attend the games and there seems no reason why this could not be repeated or even exceeded. We feel sure that the City Council would do all they could to aid the boys in any work they undertook in putting the diamond in A1 condition and when plans are formulated it is up to the players and respective managers of the teams to wait on the "City Fathers" and ascertain just what can be done in this respect.

The greatest discoveries of medical science have not been pure accidents.

Indians Defeat Browns To Retain League Leadership

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, April 27—George Blaeholder's seven-hit pitching and Bruce Campbell's homer in the seventh inning gave Cleveland Indians a 2-1 victory over St. Louis Browns at Cleveland today and kept the Indians on top of the American League heap in the only game scheduled.

The Indians were able to get eight hits off Russ Van Atta and the game was tied when Campbell smacked his homer over the wall in deep right centre. His other hit of the day was a single.

The Indians scored their other run in the first when Roy Hughes singled to right, stole second, went to third on Earl Averill's fly ball to the outfield and scored on Joe Vismik's single to left.

Bht the Browns came back and tied the score in the fourth on Harland Clift's triple and Rollie Hemsley's single to left.

Then each team only got two hits in the next three innings but one of these was Campbell's home run drive in the seventh with one out.

Injury Completely Healed British Ace Prepares For Tennis Comeback

(By The Canadian Press)

CANNES, France, April 27—Fred Perry, the world's ranking tennis player, is on the comeback trail, deliberately rounding into form on the courts along the French Riviera.

The smiling British ace says the back injury he suffered in a fall while playing Wilmer Allison in the semi-finals of the United States championships at Forest Hills, L. I., last September is healed completely.

On that occasion Allison beat Perry, then defending champion, in straight sets, but many claimed the Texan won a hollow victory at best bescause the Englishman sprained his back in the third set.

"I feel no pain now, and my muscles are hardening," says Perry. "If I round into perfect condition again, I am going to help England keep the Davis Cup at home."

Physicians who examined the British champion say the six-week period of training with the Arsenal soccer team is largely responsible for his return to form.

Perry believes it's too soon to express a definite opinion of his condition, but tennis forecasters predict he'll rank No. 1 again this year. "Temperamental Fred" breezed through two minor tournaments on the Riviera with ease, pulling off sharp angle shots and volleying faultlessly.

His appearance on the Cannes court marked an end to his six-month desertion of the courts, during which time he was encased in bandages. "I didn't touch a racquet in all that time," he declares. "The first layer of bandages came off only several weeks ago."

Perry expresses the opinion the United States would regain the Davis cup with ease if Ellsworth Vines were on the American team. "Vines is undoubtedly the world's best tennis player today," says the world's No. 1 amateur racqueter. "Of all the men I've played, Vines was the only one I really feared. In six matches against him, I was lucky to win two."
