POLICE SCOUR MT'L CITY FOR HOLDUP MEN

Bandits Make Clean Getaway in Well Timed Daring Daylight Holdups.

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, May 12.—A miniature crime wave swept Montreal today.

In quick succession, two daring daylight holdups netted bandits almost $6,300. A trio of holdup men divested two clerks of the Catell Macaroni Products Company of $2,237, the Company's weekly payroll, and less than three hours later Armand Gagnon and Joseph Lachapelle, partners in a shoe manufacturing firm, were held up and robbed of another payroll approximating $4,000.

Police tonight scoured the city in search of the bandits. They attributed both robberies to the same daring trio.

"Shoot him" shouted one of the bandits as Lachapelle refused to hand over the company's payroll when ordered to do so by the bandits who stopped him and his partner as they returned from a bank.

Gagnon, the partner, urged Lachapelle to part with the payroll. Having obtained the money the holdup men disappeared in a waiting automobile.

Earlier in the day, two men took a leather bag containing $2,237 from two clerks of the Catell Company, almost at the door of the plant, and escaped in a car bearing two different license plates and driven by a confederate.

Both robberies were perfectly timed, the bandits intercepting the payroll carriers during their trips from the bank to their factories. Each time the bandits threatened to shoot if their orders were not complied with.

Cornerstone To World Economic Parley Is Laid

Eight Key Nations Agree To Tariff Truce Previous To Conference—World Parley Looked Forward To With Confidence.

(By Frank H. King, Associated Press Staff Writer)

LONDON, May 12.—The cornerstone of the World Economic Conference was laid today by the adoption of a Tariff Truce which was declared immediately effective in the eight key nations represented on the Conference Organizing Committee.

The text of the Truce will be sent to other nations by Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, who will ask them to adhere to it until June 12, when, upon the opening of the Conference, the United States will formally propose that the armistice be continued throughout the parley.

Today's agreement, which came after a three hour session at the foreign office, is a definite agreement enabling the World Economic Conference to start in an atmosphere of confidence so that with no threat of new barriers to trade and commerce the nations can turn to a solution of world economic and financial problems without fearing new problems further to paralyze international trade.

Nurses Graduate On Anniversary

P.E.I. Hospital Training School Exercises Held On Birthday Of Florence Nightingale — Three Receive Diplomas.

Last evening on the anniversary of the birth of Florence Nightingale, founder of the nursing profession, three nurses, graduates of the Prince Edward Island Hospital Training School for Nurses, received their diplomas. They were Misses Bernice Lois Mutch, Ella Jeanette Edwards, and Marion Jean Wilson. The graduation exercises were held in St. Paul's Parish Hall, and were very largely attended. Mr. W. K. Rogers was chairman.

In connection with the presentation of the diplomas, a very enjoyable programme was given. The Florence Nightingale pledge to the graduating nurses was given by Rev. H. D. Raymond. His Worship Mayor Stewart, who presented the diplomas, congratulated each of the recipients. Dr. F. W. Tidmarsh delivered the address to the nurses.

The special numbers were heartily enjoyed, and each one was enthusiastically enjoyed. Mr. Raul Raymond delivered a bass solo in fine voice. Miss Mary Sinclair brought laughter with her reading "I Bought a Bed." Miss Margaret Sterns and Mrs. H. S. Henderson charmed the audience in the fine rendition of their solos. Equally appreciated was the number rendered by the quartette composed of Messrs. Leigh Dingwell, Jack Sterns, Roy Quigley and Marcus Calder, and the piano duet by Mrs. G. E. Full, and Miss Lillian MacKenzie.

On the stage with the chairman were Mayor Stewart, Rev. H. D. Raymond, the doctors of the Hospital Staff, and becomingly attired in their uniforms, the graduating nurses, Miss Mair, Lady Superintendent; Miss Saint, Assistant Superintendent, and a number of nurses in training.

The chairman remarked in congratulating the graduates that they had finished a difficult course. The fact that only three graduated was due to the fact that a number had dropped out due to sickness. He also congratulated Miss Mair and Miss Saint, and also the Ladies' Aid, which had sponsored the program. Mr. Rogers also extended thanks to the St. Paul's Church for the use of the Hall. He then briefly outlined the history of the P. E. I. Hospital.

STUPENDOUS CLIMAX TO MEANS TRIAL

Claims Tiny Body Found Was Not The Real Lindbergh Child — Communist Head Implicated.

(By The Canadian Press)

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(A.P.)—With a breath-taking assertion that the tiny body which Col. Charles A. Lindbergh identified as that of his kidnapped son was in reality "a plant" and not the "real Lindbergh child," Gaston B. Means today brought to a stupendous climax his bizarre account of the Hopedale tragedy.

Lolling comfortably in the witness chair at his trial here for conspiracy to defraud Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean through a ransom hoax, the former federal agent brought repeated gasps from the spectators who jammed every available bit of space in the courtroom.

"Wellington Henderson," said Means, referring to a man he described as the ringleader of the kidnapers, "told me that the baby was a 'plant' they had made up in Jersey, and that later I would see Communist data in regard to it."

"Henderson visited me at my home in Chevy Chase on May 17 a year ago while I was out on bond. He also stated that the autopsy performed on the body found in New Jersey proved that it was not the right child, due to a marked difference in measurements."

"Henderson told me that the real Lindbergh baby was alive then and in Juarez, Mexico."

Earlier Means had told the court of how at a later date he

Franco-Canadian Trade Agreements Are Far Reaching

Pacts Which Are Advantageous To Both Countries And Which Are Expected To Improve Trading Relations Are Signed.

(Canadian Press)

OTTAWA, May 12.—The two treaties negotiated between Canada and France were signed in Ottawa today and tabled in the House of Commons late this afternoon. They contain important tariff concessions and are expected to improve the trade between the two countries. They take the place of the treaty terminated a year ago.

Canada gives France the British preference on seven items which includes certain books and periodicals, surgical instruments, hospital supplies, etc. France also gets a reduction below the intermediate tariff on a large list of articles ranging from 10 per cent to in some cases 20 per cent. In addition to this on an extensive list the intermediate tariff is applied.

Canada gets the minimum tariff on wheat. She gets a tariff as low as any other nation on canned salmon. The minimum tariff is also extended to Canadian copper, lead, aluminum and a large list of manufactured articles. Particularly important is the minimum tariff on rubber products such as certain tires and a broad list of other lines.
