Local and Other Items.

THE STANLEY arrived at five o'clock this evening.

NEW HOSE.—The fire department of Charlottetown have ordered five hundred feet of new hose.

ANOTHER RISE IN SUGAR.—Telegraphic advices to-day report a further advance of one-eighth of a cent per pound.

PREACHING.—Elder H. Murray will preach in the Christian Meeting House, Upper Great George Street to-morrow (Lord's Day) at 7 o'clock, p. m.

CORRECTION.—We are requested to state that the paragraph in last night's paper referring to Prof. Logan having gone to Halifax "to secure, if possible, the assistance of some talent from that place for the approaching Philharmonic Concert" is quite a mistake, as the matter has not been mentioned at any meeting of the committee of management.

MONSTER TROUT.—An EXAMINER representative was to-day shown a trout caught at Dunk River, and forwarded to Mr. George Roome, of this city. The trout weighed 5 lbs. 3 ozs., and measured 21½ inches in length, 5½ inches from back to belly, and about 3 inches in thickness. The trout was on exhibition at Weeks & Beer's store to-day, where it was seen and admired by many.

MILITIA ORDERS.—Nos. 1 and 2 Batteries, Garrison Artillery, will meet at the Drill Shed to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, at 2.30 o'clock, for the purpose of attending the funeral of the late Gunner Carpenter.—F. S. Moore, Lieut.-Colonel.

The Charlottetown Engineers and No. 3 Company, 82nd Battalion, will meet at the Drill Shed to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock for the purpose of attending the funeral of Gunner John Carpenter, Garrison Artillery.

THE LYCEUM.—The Hyers Sisters Combination gave their opening performance in the Lyceum last night to a good-sized audience. "Out of Bondage," a sort of musical melange calculated to bring out the specialities of the different members of the company, was, taken all in all, very well performed. The singing of the Hyers Sisters was particularly good, and the singing and acting of the other performers was above that of the average colored troupe. The Company gave a matinee this afternoon, and will give their closing entertainment this evening. They will likely have a big house.

THE PRINCESS BEATRICE.—The steamer Princess Beatrice, recently purchased in England to replace the M. A. Starr, on the route between Halifax and Charlottetown, will make her first trip on the 25th inst., on which date she will leave Halifax for this port, arriving on Wednesday evening or early on Thursday morning. She will be commanded by Capt. A. H. Kelly, formerly of the S.S. Electra. In addition to the places usually called at by the M. A. Starr, the Princess Beatrice will call at Souris weekly, which will be a great boon to the shippers of that port. Mr. W. W. Clarke, whose advt. appears elsewhere, will be pleased to afford shippers and others all further information.

Police Court.

A SNEAK THIEF AND A DRUNK DISPOSED OF THIS MORNING.

John Andrew Curran, a young man about twenty years of age who says he belongs to Vernon River, appeared before His Honor, this forenoon, on complaint of P. J. Foran, charged with the larceny of a coat. It appears that yesterday afternoon, Curran, in company with another young man who gave his name as Keith, entered Mr. Foran's store, and, while Keith was being measured for some clothing, Curran went outside. A few minutes later he came to the door and asked Keith if he was ready to leave. Mr. Foran noticed that he had a parcel loosely tied up in paper, under his arm, and, suspecting that all was not right, went over to him, and examined the parcel, the contents of which he found to be a coat, which he immediately identified as his property. He asked Curran where he got the coat, and he promptly replied, "at George Full's." Mr. Foran told him he was not telling the truth, and snatching the coat from him, placed it on the counter, at the same time despatching a messenger for the police. As soon as Curran heard that the police were summoned he took to his heels, and was not to be seen, when the officers arrived. However, the officers were not to be fooled this way, and set about finding their man, whom they captured on the Ferry Wharf, some time aftewards, as he was about taking the steamer for Southport. This morning, Mr. Foran identified both man and coat. Curran said he was drunk yesterday, and had no recollection of stealing the coat. He said it was the first time he had ever been before the Court, and asked the Magistrate to be lenient. He was given a month's imprisonment, with hard labor.

Joseph Berrigan was fined $2 or 8 days for being drunk and incapable.
