Banner Hockey Season For Alberton Regals Discussed

It was announced at the annual meeting of the Regals Hockey Club on Tuesday evening that a native of Alberton now living in Montreal had generously offered to sponsor a three year program of skating and hockey which would provide free, four hours of skating and eight hours of hockey each week for school age boys and girls of the town of Alberton. Members of the Regals hockey team are to arrange the program in co-operation with the rink management and also supervise all activities.

A second pleasing development both to fans and players was the appointment and acceptance of Mr. Ivan Nicholson, a former prominent hockey player, as coach of the Regals hockey team. Mr. Nicholson gave an interesting talk on coaching fundamentals and spoke of some interesting experiences with the Chicago Black Hawks and American League teams.

It was decided to purchase new uniforms and crests for the team also jerseys for practice purposes only. The promenade boards next the ice surface are to be painted white in time for the opening game of the hockey season. It was noted that ice flooding had already commenced following the cold snap and depending on the weather an earlier than usual season is expected.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

President, Earle Atkinson; 1st vice president, Fred Millman; treasur, George Gibson; managers, John Rochford and Wesley Hardy; secretary, John Rochford; coach Ivan Nicholson.

Messrs John Rochford and Wesley Hardy were appointed to enquire into the formation of a Prince County intermediate "B" league, comprising Alberton, O'Leary ,Mount Pleasant and Summerside.

Mr. Perley Hardy presided at the meeting which was held in the Legion hall. Minutes were read by the secretary, John Rochford and the financial statement presented showing a good sum of money on hand.

Churchill Critical Of Labor M.P.

LONDON, (Reuters)—Prime Minister Churchill strongly criticized a Labor member of Parliament in the House of Commons Thursday for suggesting Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery should be prosecuted under the Officials Secrets Act.

George Wigg, a colonel in the army educational corps during the Second World War ,said the field marshal had signed a declaration "on leaving the army" that he had not then in his possession or control certain documents. But he had retained such documents.

The prime minister said Wigg was not only ill-informed but ill-natured.

He added: "Field marshals are always in the army. I am surprised that an army schoolmaster didn't know that."

Montgomery sat in the gallery during this exchange.

Kensington Home, School Ass'n Meeting

—Following discussion at the regular meeting of the Kensington Home and School Association last evening a committee was appointed to study the possibilities of providing larger and more suitable accommodation for the public library at Kensington.

This committee, with its findings, will meet with the Town Council to discuss the matter.

The meeting last evening expressed concern for the provision of adequate library facilities, noting that the Town Hall in which the library is presently located, has been offered for sale by the Town Council. It was the general hope of the meeting that the council would see fit to provide suitable accommodation for the library in either the Town Hall building or the old post office.

The committee appointed to meet with the Town Council consists of the president of the Home and School Association, Roscoe Walker, Eugene Spicer, Mrs. George Brookins, Theo Ling, and H. B. Chandler, superintendent of P. E. I. Libaries.

Mr. Chandler was present at last night's meeting and gave an outline of the work of the libraries in P.E.I. and the various types of books available.

On conclusion of his address he was tendered a vote of thanks by Rev. L. M. Murray, seconded by Austin Pendergast, and supported by Theo Ling.

The president, Mr. Roscoe Walker presided, and refreshments were served by the ladies at the conclusion of the meeting. S

A recreation period followed during which Miss Jennie Boomhower directed a demonstration of various new types of square dancing. An enjoyable sing-song was also part of the interesting program. S.

Supreme Court Orders Third Trial For Ovila Boucher On Murder Charge

OTTAWA (CP) — The Supreme Court of Canada Thursday ordered a third trial for Ovila Bouchard of St. Henri de Levis, Que., on grounds the jury was misdirected and the prosecutor infringed court rules. Convicted of murder, Boucher was scheduled to be hanged Friday, Dec. 17.

Chief Justice Patrick Kerwin said in his remarks on the 7 to 2 decision that prosecutor Paul Miquelon infringed the rule against use of "inflammatory or vindictive language" in his address to the jury.

The 36-year-old blacksmith was found guilty of killing Georges Jabour-Jarjour, an elderly merchant, in June, 1951.

The Supreme Court ruled that the trial judge misdirected the jury concerning the weight it should give to circumstantial evidence. The court, however, found that the trial judge did not misdirect the jury involving the principles of reasonable doubt.

In another decision, the Supreme Court ordered lawyers to appear Dec. 20 to clarify a point not previously dealt with in the appeal of a Quebec father convicted of murdering his four children.

The appeal was made by Georges Herbert, 46, of Quebec West, convicted in 1953 for the ax slaying of his two sons and two daughters, aged three to nine. Hebert, who pleaded insanity, was sentenced to be hanged Jan. 21, 1955.

N. Y. Records Still Missing

MONT ROLLAND, Que. (CP)—Two New York state officials waded through tons of paper Thursday to recover historical state documents accidentally baled as waste and sent to a mill in this Laurentian town north of Montreal.

Howard Crocker and Donald Sager, members of the state historian division, arrived here earlier to take up the search left off by Dr. Albert Corey, state historian.

Fifteen, 1,000-pound bales were traced to the Rolland Paper Company mill by Dr. Corey who recovered 400 pounds of documents Friday from three bales.

One bale, however, was destroyed by the time the records were traced.

Mr. Crocker said a complete section of public records dating back to the late 1700s are involved.

"Unless we find them all a whole section of New York state history will be a blank," he said. "How they found their way to Canada I'll never know.

"He had told an Albany scrap dealer to remove certain papers from our office that we had no further use for and these valuable papers were taken along with the scrap."

Mr. Sager said the papers are only records of purchase of land from Indians, and canal and railway toll records and such, but they are useful in compiling a valid history of the state.

All papers are said to be records of the state comptroller's office up to about 1850.

Fish Landings Up For October

OTTAWA (CP) — Canada's sea fishermen landed two per cent more fish in October but the value of the catch jumped 25 per cent, largely because of a big salmon catch on the Pacific coast.

The bureau of statistics reported Thursday that the month's landings weighed 179,949,000 pounds and were valued at $6,629,000, compared with 177,006,000 pounds worth $5,388,000 in October, 1953.

Landings in the January-October period rose to 1,611,621,000 pounds from 1,455,036,000 and the value climbed to $74,020,000 from $68,580,000.

The bureau said October landings on the Pacific coast were down slightly at 112,817,000 pounds compared with 113,217,000 last year, but salmon made up 76 per cent of the total catch and were largely responsible for the 36 per cent increase in the value to $4,451,000 from $3,267,000.

East coast fishermen landed 67,132,000 pounds of sea fish in October, five per cent more than last year's 63,789,000 pounds. The value rose three per cent to $2,178,000 from $2,121,000.

Evidence In Agreed Charges Probe Concludes

OTTAWA (CP) — A one-man royal commission studying the agreed charge method of setting railway freight rates Thursday completed hearing evidence after sitting for 33 days in Ottawa and four western cities.

Hon. W. F. A. Turgeon, the commissioner, adjourned the hearings until Tuesday to give counsel time to prepare final argument. This phase of the inquiry is expected to end next Friday.

The commission sat 28 days in Ottawa, two in Vancouver and one each in Winnipeg, Regina and Edmonton. Representations in opposition or in support of agreed charges—special low contract rates given by the railways in return for a guaranteed percentage of a shipper's business—were made by 34 parties. More than 4,000 pages of evidence were taken and 74 exhibits filed.

During Thursday's hearing J. J. Frawley, counsel for Alberta, accused the Steel Company of Canada of failing to wage a strong enough fight with the railways for reductions in existing rates on the movement of eastern steel to Alberta points.

Mr. Frawley made the accusation in referring to an agreed charge under which eastern steel is shipped to Vancouver at low rates. He said the introduction of the agreed charge had resulted in much higher rates to Alberta.

Canadian U. N. Ass'n Pulls Out of World Federation

OTTAWA, (CP)—The 4,000-member United Nations Association in Canada has pulled out of the 30-national world federation of UN associations, it was learned Thursday.

A spokesman for the Canadian group said main reason for the withdrawal is insistence by the world federation on reaching unanimous decisions. This had led to extraordinary concessions to the Communist point of view because the federation includes associations from five Communist-controlled countries. Russia is not one of them.

The spokesman said the federation's desire to achieve political unanimity was unrealistic and resulted in nonsence or dangerous propaganda. The federation's attitude came from woolly-minded pacifists rather than from left-wingers.

The Canadian association feels, the spokesman said, that the federation has tried to become a duplicate of the UN and spends its time discussing questions and making decisions which only governments can deal with.

The Canadian association, a member of the world federation since its organization in 1946, believed the federation should be a clearing house for exchange of ideas on how best the member associations could operate in their own countries. The federation had rejected this idea.

Canada's Industrial Production Declines

OTTAWA, (CP)—Industrial production in Canada dropped two per cent in the first nine months of this year compared with the corresponding period in 1953, the bureau of statistics reported Thursday.

The index for the first nine months this year averaged 242.9 against 249 for the corresponding period last year. September's index stood at 254 compared with 257.1 in September last year. The index is based on 1935-39 equals 100.
