O'Leary and Vicinity

Mr. Kennedy McCormick of O'Leary will leave on Saturday, Sept. 23, to begin his basic training in the R. C. N. at H. M. C. S. "Cornwallis"

Mr. Andrew Gunn of East River St. Mary's in Pictou County, N. S., was a visitor to O'Leary on Friday, Sept. 22 and called upon Rev. W. G. and Mrs. Dickson.

—Mr. Allison Turner, O'Leary, has left to return to Mount Allison University in Sackville, N. B. where he will complete his senior year in Arts and will receive the B.A. degree next May.

The funeral service for the late Mrs. Edward Gorrill was held from the residence of Mrs. D. S. Gorrill of O'Leary on Friday, Sept 22 and was conducted by Rev. Leslie Dignan of Port Hill, assisted by Rev. W. G. Dickson. It was very largely attended and sympathy is extended to the bereaved. Interment was at Port Hill.

Due to the absence of the minister Rev. Blair B. Colborne, who is on his vacation in Ottawa, the guest of Mrs. Colborne's parents, Justice M. B. and Mrs. Archibald, the services on the West Cape pastoral charge of the United Church of Canada were conducted on Sunday by Mr. George Shaw of Cape Wolfe and on Sunday, Sept 24, by Mr. Russell Leard of Fortune Cove. Good congregations attended all services.

—Mr. John Arbing of Woodstock, near O'Leary, left on Wednesday, Sept. 27th to return to his studies at Dalhousie University in Halifax. This is Jack's senior year and he will graduate next May with his B.A. degree. He is also planning to take a one year's post graduate course at Dalhousie where he will study for his B. Comm. Degree.

—The Bloomfield United Church Young Peoples Union met for their regular fortnightly meeting on Tuesday night, Sept. 26th in the Y. P. U. room of the Church with the President Mrs. Errol Stetson presiding and conducting preliminary worship. Clayton Stetson was the leader of the study period and his topic was "Newfoundland, our newest Province." A number of the young people participated in the program. The Y. P. U. decided to hold a Hallowe'en party on Oct. 31st. The meeting closed by the Mispah Benediction after which bean bag games were enjoyed.

There was a large congregation on Sunday night, Sept. 24, when the annual Women's Missionary Thankoffering service was held. The Church was very appropriately decorated with beautiful flowers and autumn leaves and with the produce of garden and field. The president, Mrs. A. W. Craswell, presided. The Scripture was read by Mrs. John Lewis. Prayer was offered by Mrs. R. F. MacAusland. The Responsive reading was taken by Mrs. W. G. Dickson. Mr. Alban Craswell was heard in a greatly enjoyed solo and the choir with Mrs. Ira Hardy as organist rendered special music. The guest speaker was Rev. Percy Fitzpatrick of Alberton, who was heard in an eloquent address on "Japan". He said J was for Jesus — A meant assures —P was for power —A was all — N meant nations. This splendid message was greatly enjoyed by the very large congregation in attendance.

The September meeting of the Dunblane Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Ralph MacIsaac. The roll call was answered by health hints. Thirteen members were present. The remaining three cook books were sold. The sick committee reported two visits with treats. The new committee appointed were: Mrs. Percy MacPherson, Mrs. James Livingstone, Mrs. Neil Boulter. Correspondence was read and discussed. It was decided to send for a number of Home Nursing manuals for the members. It was also agreed that the W.I. get more cans for the Institute members. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry MacPherson. The roll call will be answered by donating a couple of grabs. The Institute News was passed around also a book of poems. A number of short readings were enjoyed also a contest on "triplets" by Mrs. Neil Boulter. The meeting closed by the National Anthem after which a dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

On Sunday afternoon, Sept. 24, the whole front of the O'Leary United Church was decorated with vases of beautiful flowers. In the center of the Communion Table were three large baskets of Memorial Flowers in memory of three young soldiers who were drowned on Sept. 23, 1944 at Beaton's Bridge, near O'Leary, while on military manoeuvres. The soldiers are:—Tpr. Wallace Dennis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Dennis of O'Leary; Sgt. Carrfield Ramsay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ramsay of O'Leary and Tpr. Claude Brooks of Wellington. The lovely baskets were placed in the Church by the parents of the lads who made the supreme sacrifice. There was also a large vase of dahlias by the MacLean family of Milo in memory of Trooper Dennis and the other bouquets of flowers were from friends of the three young men. There was a large congregation in attendance and the service was conducted by the minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson. In the evening the flowers were placed in the Knutsford Baptist Church where the service was conducted by the Minister, Rev. C. O. Howlett.

NEW ELECTRONIC DISCOVERY FOR DEAF REVEALED

Acoustical Engineer Claims Even Severe Hearing Loss Can Now Be Corrected

CHICAGO, Ill. (Special)—New hope for the 15 million persons in the United States who are hard of hearing was voiced by Sam Posen, noted electronic scientist, and president of the Beltone Hearing Aid Company, in an exclusive interview with the Business Research Associates in Chicago.

Posen

He said that "through the miracle of modern electronics it is now possible to recapture hearing, even if the loss is severe, without a button showing in the ear." He demonstrated how the deaf can hear again with a clarity and ease they never dreamed possible.

To acquaint the hard of hearing readers of this paper with Mr. Posen's amazing new electronic invention, full details are described in a fascinating booklet, "New Discoveries to Help the Deaf Hear," which will be sent free in a plain wrapper to anyone who requests it. Address: Mr. Sam Posen, President; 1450 West 19th Street, 587-H Beltone Building, Chicago 8, Ill. A penny postcard will do.—Adv.
