N. Y. Stocks

NEW YORK (AP)—Stocks brushed by the magic of atomic power made steep gains Tuesday in the stock market.

Bath Iron Works, for example, shot ahead 11¼ at 72¾. Newport News Shipbuilding was up 5¾ at 76¾, and General Dynamics gained 5⅜ at 80.

The latter company is the builder of atomic submarines. The other two have been mentioned in Wall street rumors in connection with plans for atomic powered ships.

The steel division did well, rails were higher, and coppers were strong as the long anticipated price rise was put into effect. Some oils were in demand. Other groups were either mixed or steady. None was depressed.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 40 cents at $160.30. Volume amounted to 2,770,000 shares.

Baldwin-Lima-Hamilton for the fourth straight day topped the most active list up 3⅝ at 21⅞. The company is getting into the atomic locomotive business.

General Dynamics up 5⅜ at 80 (atomic submarines and warplanes) was second and was followed by American Bosch up 2¼ at 21 and Raytheon up 1¼ at 24⅞, both engaged in government work.

Canadian issues were mixed. International Nickel climbed ⅜; Canadian Pacific and Dome Mines both added ⅛. Hiram Walker and Distillers Seagram each slipped ⅛.

On the American stock exchange Giant Yellowknife and Royalite Oil both remained unchanged.

Toronto Stocks

TORONTO (CP) — Interest in lower-priced mines gripped the stock market Tuesday, sending prices up and volume soaring to the third-highest peak in the exchange's history.

A whopping 12,156,000 shares changed hands, biggest total for one day in more than two years. Volume was eclipsed only by figures for Jan. 28 and Feb. 20, 1953 when 12,264,000 and 12,398,000 shares were traded.

It marked the third consecutive session in which volume climbed over the 10,000,000 mark.

Buyers' enthusiasm for uraniums and other lower-priced stock started trading at a break-neck pace from the opening.

The ticket tape fell 15 minutes behind in the first hour and caught up only for brief periods throughout the day. It was still behind at the close.

Three speculative issues, Can-Met, Lexindin and National Explorations accounted together for more than 1,000,000 shares.

The market, however, developed little trend. Base metals advanced almost 1½ points on the index but industrials were down slightly. Western oils eased but golds moved slightly ahead.

Among industrials Westons dropped 2½ and International Paper $1. Other losses were fractional. General Dynamics led advancing issues with a jump of 4¼. Gatineau climbed ⅞ but losses of less than $1 went to Montreal Locomotive, Standard Paving, and Algoma.

Consolidated Hydro Carbon, posted for trade Monday, climbed 50 to $8.50.

Merrill Petroleum led western oils down with a drop of 35 to $9. Canso Oil fell 30 to $3.80 and Canadian Colleries 25 to $9.15. Central Explorers jumped 35 to $6.90.

Quebec Nickel led base metals up climbing 34 to $1.65.
