DAILY MARKETS

TORONTO

stock has been as low as 35 this year. Roman Corp., whose chief asset is Denison shares, fell 1¼ to 15⅝ and Rio Algom ½ to 26¾.

The popularity in uraniums follows expected heavy world-wide demand for the metal for reactors by the late 1960s and early 1970s.

Trading continued to be sluggish as most major groups were unable to sustain any advance. A total of 2,594,000 shares were traded compared with 2,469,000 Monday.

Industrials fluctuated throughout with the index, a measure of key stock movements, closing off .53 to 158.01. It had been as high as 158.64 in early afternoon activity.

Brokers say the poor performance of the market was due to investors waiting to see what the New York market would do after it suffered its worst daily loss Monday since November, 1963.

STRIKE A FACTOR

They attributed Monday's slide to continuing pressures of the war in Viet Nam, tight money and the prolonged U.S. airline strike.

In the main list, Bathurst A was off 2 to 56, Peel-Elder 1⅞ to 14⅞ and Toronto-Dominion bank ⅛ to a 1966 low of 60.

Among other base metals, Pine Point retreated 1½ to 60 and Noranda ⅞ to 53¾.

Home A pared western oils lower, falling ⅜ to 18, and Pacific Petroleum was off ⅛ to 11¼.

Dynamic highlighted speculative activity, climbing 45 cents to 3.75, while United Keno, which jumped 1.70 Monday, dropped 50 cents to 6.25 in profit taking. Brokers couldn't give any reason for Keno's activity.

Declines outnumbered advances 326 to 233 with 207 issues unchanged.

On index, golds were down 1.42 to 184.57, base metals 2.52 to 26.87, western oils .73 to 101.08 and the TSE .71 to 150.76.

Sex Obsession And The "New Morality"

It seems wherever you go, these days, you find people talking of the "new morality" . . . the "new freedom" . . . the "sexual revolution". Does this foretell the moral collapse of our society? History indicates the answer is "no" but read what a perceptive critic has to say in the August Reader's Digest. Read why we may indeed be headed for a change in morality and why every parent now has a special responsibility. In the August Reader's Digest — now on sale.
