CADILLAC-DECOSTE

Saint Dunstan's Roman Catholic Basilica was the scene of a busy wedding Monday morning at five o'clock.

The church was beautifully decorated with summer flowers for the occasion.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, was dressed in a floor-length gown of white satin on Princess lines.

Mr. Edward Decoste supported the groom.

During the Nuptial Mass, Messrs. Clarence Pincus and Connie Le-Clair rendered "O Love Divine" by

BERGE, and other hymns suitable to the occasion.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy young couple left, amid showers of confetti, for the home of the bride, where a delightful breakfast was served to immediate relatives and friends.

Following this Mr. and Mrs. Decoste left on a honeymoon trip to Toronto, Niagara and other places of interest in Central Canada.

The bride's going-away costume was a navy-blue suit, with accessories to match.

Before her marriage the bride was a valued member of the staff of the Prince Edward Island Sanatorium, whilst the groom is employed by Carvell Brothers in Charlottetown.

COMFORTABLE RAIN JACKET

Sportsmen and sportswomen, too, will find a loosely-cut, transparent showerproof jacket just the right accessory to prevent the dampening effects of sudden showers on the golf course.

Mr. Edward Decoste supported the groom.

New Shoe Firm Opens Here Tomorrow

Mr. Howard McInnis, a native of Prince Edward Island has returned to Charlottetown to open a shoe store tomorrow in the Tweel Building, Great George St.

Mr. McInnis who is a brother of Mr. A. E. McInnis, insurance agent of Charlottetown and Mr. James McInnis, Editor of the Pioneer, Summerside, received his early education in Charlottetown and went to the United States gaining wide experience in the shoe business.

He came back to Charlottetown in 1927 with Alley & Co. In 1928 he accepted the responsibility of operating a shoe store for Manchester Robertson Allison Ltd. St. John where he has remained since.

Believing there is an opportunity in his native city for a shoe store dealing exclusively in quality merchandise, Mr. McInnis resigned from the St. John firm and has founded his own store here.

He is of the opinion that quality footwear need not be high priced, and will confine his business to merchandise that will give his customers utmost satisfaction.

A most important consideration is correct fitting and his years of experience in the large cities of U. S. A. and Canada qualify him to do this.

Mr. McInnis is widely known throughout the Province and his friends welcome him back once more and wish him every success.
