THE ALL CANADIAN ROUTE TO MONTREAL.

Via the Intercolonial Railway Maritime Express is the only All Canadian Route to Quebec, and Montreal from the Maritime Provinces. The Maritime Express is generally admitted by experienced travellers to be the most comfortable train in America. This is especially true in regard to the dining and sleeping car service. The diners of the I. C. R. are rommy and well ventilated and furnished in the best of taste. The excellent meals are served Table d'hote at a price away below the a la carte rates prevailing on the company owned lines. The sleeping coaches are up-to-date in every particular, and the smoothness of the road bed makes the long journey easy and pleasant. Being popular with a class of travellers who are generally found to be the acme of good company, the through journey is never found dull, and even during the winter months there is much of scenic interest in the day's ride through the Provinces of Quebec, Montreal is reached at the convenient hour of 6.30 p. m., and connections are made at Bonaventure Union Station with the through trains of the Grand Trunk Railway for Toronto, Buffalo, Detriot, Chicago, and other point in western Canada and the United States. Connecting train from Pictou leaves at 4.20 daily except Sunday. 2-4dti

The best new things are shown in such complete variety that you will have no difficulty in getting just what you want quickly. You can save a lot of time and bother by coming straight to Paton's for the things you need." 3-30d3i.

"The spirit of Easter permeates every nook and corner of this great store. Paton's. 3-30d3i.

HOUR BY HOUR

One single day
Is not so much to look upon. There is some way
Of passing hours of such a limit. We can face
A single day; bu place
Too many days before sad eyes,
Too many days for smothered sighs,
And we lost heart
Just at the start.
Years really are not long, nor lives—
The longest that survives—
And yet to look across
A future we must tread, bowed by a sence of loss,
Bearing some burden weighing down so low
That we can scarcely go
One step ahead—this is so hard.

God broke our years to hours and days,
That hour by hour
And day by day,
Just going on a little way,
We might be able all along
To keep quite strong.
Should all the weight of life
Be laid across our shoulders, and the future, rife
With woe and struggles, meet us face to face
And just one place,
We could not go;
Our feet would stop. And so
God lays a little on us every day;
And never, I believe, on all the way
Will burdens bear so deep,
Or pathways lie so threatening and so steep,
But we can go if, by God's power,
We only bear the burden of the hour.

PETTY POLITICS BEATS NAVY PLAN.

WASHINGTON, March 28—There will be no new battleships for the navy if the caucus decision of the House Democrats is not overridden by the Senate.

By a two-thirds vote the caucus refused to rescind its action, declaring against battleships and new naval construction and a decision by caucus Chairman Burleson declared this final and binding on the Democrats of the House.

It was remarked today that Grant never made a truer statement than when he said that when the Republican party was in distress it could always depend on the Democratic to make a fool of itself.

Petty politics and the domination of Underwood, carried the day against the navy and sent the United States to the fifth place among the naval powers of the world. Because a little postoffice could not be built in an obscure place represented by some new Representative the naval defence of 90,000,000 are to be broken down.

Representative Burnett, of Alabama told this when he said: "More than one hundred new Democratic Representatives were elected to this Congress. During their campaigns the Republican opponents told the voters that if the Democrats were elected there would be no building.

SCHOOL CHILDREN AT TAFT RECEPTION.

WASHINGTON, March 28—President Taft held his second large reception in the East Room for visiting school children from New England. Representative Wilder had a delegation of twenty-five from his district, and Representative Harris had twenty-from the Kingston, Mass., High School. There was also in line 150 students from Keene, N. H., and twenty-seven from Connecticut, with 400 from Vermont, who were in charge of Senator Dillingham.

Dodd's Kidney Pills Work Wonderful Cure.

Mrs. Ed. Lloyd, Weak and Worn and Wracked with Pain Found Relief and cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

ARDBEG, Ont., (Special).—"Dodd's Kidney Pills have done wonders for me," so says Mrs. Ed. Lloyd, wife of a well-known farmer living on the line of the C. N. O. Railway near here.

"I was so weak I could hardly walk around," Mrs. Lloyd continues, "I suffered from female weakness and kidney trouble. My heart troubled me so that at times I would almost pant with the palpitations. I was treated by the doctor but he could give me no relief.

"I was sick all over when I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, Rheumatism, Lumbago, and Neuralgia adding to my sufferings. But Dodd's Kidney Pills helped me almost at once. After taking eight boxes I was completely cured."

Naturally Mrs. Lloyd wants other suffering women to know how she found a cure, and Dodd's Kidney Pills will do for other sufferers just what they did for Mrs. Lloyd, make new women of them.

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATED BY PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND COUPLE.

John D. and Mrs. MacDonald, one of the best known couples in Avon, Mass., observed their golden wedding at their home on Robbins St., February 27. In the morning they attended a mass of thanksgiving in St. Michael's Church, celebrated by their pastor, Rev. C. F. Glennan, and in the evening received a large number of their friends and relatives.

Both are in the enjoyment of good health, and each day finds them attending to their duties, the former at his blacksmith shop, which trade he has followed for over 60 years.

John D. MacDonald was born in East Point, P.E.I., on June 14, 1833, the fifth of a family of eleven children of John and Christina MacDonald. Of the family all are now dead with the exception of a sister, Mrs. Mary Beaton, who resides in Omaha, Nebraska. He was brought up on a farm and at the age of 16 years began to learn the trade of blacksmith. Two years later he went to Belfast, Me., where he worked in an edge tool factory for two years. Then he returned to his native home and engaged in the blacksmith business in partnership with a cousin. Three years later this business was dissolved, and he took up shipbuilding. Later he bought a farm, and engaged once more in blacksmithing and farming.

On February 27, 1862, he married Helen MacDonald, daughter of the late Angus and Ann MacDonald of Rock Barra, P.E.I. The marriage was performed in the Church of St. Columba by the Rev. James Phelan. Of the guests at the ceremony only three now survive, all residing in the far west, Omaha, San Francisco and Portland, Oregon. Their union was blessed by six children, Mary C., James A. and Arthur D., now deceased, and Misses Celia and Anna MacDonald and Arthur MacDonald, all of whom reside at home. In 1868 they went to Boston, and went later to Wilmington, Mass., where Mr. MacDonald engaged in business for a short time, later moving to East Stoughton, now Avon, in 1870. He hired a shop of the late Bartlett Collins and was engaged there for thirteen years, and in 1883 he moved to his present location on Robbins Street. Here for nearly thirty years he has conducted a blacksmithing and painting business with his son, the late James A. MacDonald, and later with his son Arthur.

Mrs. MacDonald, a woman of lovable personality, was the second youngest of a family of nine children, of whom there survives Mrs. Sarah MacDonald of Rock Barra, P. E. I. and Mrs. Catherine McPhee of Big Pond, P.E.I. She attended the public schools there, which meant an attendance every day in the year excepting every second Saturday, which the children hailed as their great vacation day. The schoolmaster was a brother of the man she was later to wed.

Both Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald are regular attendants at St. Michael's Church and active in affairs connected with it. He is a member of the Holy Name Society.—Brockton Enterprise.
