CONTRACT BRIDGE

By B. JAY BECKER

QUIZ

You are the dealer, neither side vulnerable, and have opened One Club. Partner has responded One Diamond. What do you now bid with each of the following four hands?

1. ♠AK8 ♥J ♦QJ52 ♣AQ963
2. ♠AQ6 ♥AJ ♦Q9 ♣KQJ852
3. ♠KJ2 ♥AQ ♦9643 ♣QJ85
4. ♠AQ94 ♥8 ♦K62 ♣AKQJ7

1. Three diamonds. Since the opening club bid may have been based on minimum values of, say, 13 or 14 points, it becomes necessary to identify the extra values, as well as the good suit fit, by giving a skip raise.

The jump to three diamonds guarantees four trumps, a high card content that may range from 15 to 18 points, and some distributional values. Partner is not compelled to bid again over three diamonds. He is merely being urged to continue bidding if he has more than a minimum diamond response. If it turns out partner's hand is so poor that he is unable to bid again over three diamonds, game is extremely unlikely.

2. Three notrump. No invitation to game (such as three clubs or two notrump) should be issued in a hand where the play for game once partner has responded, already seems satisfactory.

There is no guarantee three notrump will be made, but the prospects are good enough to warrant the undertaking even though partner may have had only a minimum response. The risk that partner may pass two notrump or three clubs should not be run. With a good club suit to work on, and enough high cards to take care of most contingencies, game should be bid forthwith.

3. One notrump. The minimum opening bid and balanced distribution are best described by the signoff bid of one notrump. If there is a notrump game in the hand, it is also probably best that it be played from the opener's seat.

Although the diamond length would ordinarily call for an immediate single raise of partner's suit, such action is not advised in this deal. Responder might expect better distributional features with a direct raise, or more in high cards.

4. Two spades. Partner must be apprised of the tremendous game prospects. The jump shift by the opening bidder alerts responder that even though he may have had only 6 points for his diamond response they are enough to produce game.

The opening bidder has good reason to think so. There is sufficient flexibility, depending on partner's holding, to undertake a game in spades, diamonds, clubs, or notrump. Responder, over the two spade bid, takes his pick as his hand indicates. Since the two spade bid identifies a powerful hand, slam possibilities are at the same time inferred.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

EGYPT UP TO DATE

CAIRO (Reuters)—An Egyptian military spokesman Wednesday was quoted saying Egypt's air force has been "brought up to date with the missiles age." The newspaper Al Akhbar reported the spokesman said Soviet MIG fighters and Ilyuchin-28 bombers of the Egyptian Air Force now are capable of carrying atomic bombs.
