Here's how champion Sonny Liston and Floyd Patterson compare for their heavyweight title fight which takes place tonight at Las Vegas, Nev.

Mutch Controls Shooting As Rifle Assn. Meet Ends

Lieut. Al Mutch of Charlottetown, dominated the shooting on Saturday, the final day of the Provincial Rifle Association's three-day annual prize meet at Squaw Point ranges.

To start the day, Mutch registered a possible 50 points at 300 yards to take the Batt and MacRae match. In the main event of the program the Jones Memorial Match, he started off by again registering a possible at 200 yards, and with his scores at 500 and 600 yards, ended up with a total of 165 out of a possible 175 points.

In addition to winning the two matches, Mutch also captured top honors in the 200 yard aggregate, with 146 out of 150, and the consecutive bullseye aggregate with a string of 21 bulls.

He also wound up as top Islander in the Ottawa aggregate, finishing second to Cadet Ralph Grant, Dartmouth, N.S. Both marksmen had an aggregate of 728 out of 775 points, but Grant was given the nod for first place money by virtue of having the better aggregate score at 600 yards.

Following are the results of Saturday's matches and the principal aggregates:

Flyers Take On Rovers

Flyers and Rovers renew City Baseball League activity this evening at 6.15 at Memorial Field.

Rovers, after a long losing streak, came to life in their last outing and garnered a victory. They are hoping to keep up that kind of work tonight.

Forbie Kennedy's Flyers, on the other hand, intend to stop their win streak at one game.

Fans should see a lively contest.

Local Race Track Has Stellar Card

Harness racing returns to Charlottetown Driving Park tonight after a nine-day absence.

Classifier Frank Acorn has been successful in lining up a great program for the big crowd expected to wend their way to the local oval tonight. He has nine dashes ready for the customers and things shape up as one of the best cards of the 1963 campaign.

Dashes five and nine have attracted seven starters. Albert Bernard has the rail with Hollis Jenkin's Jolly Abb. Albert gave this pacer a great mile last week in Summerside and tonight this rail horse should be tough to beat. But just take a glimpse at what is there. The other half dozen are Mr. Rock, Sunny King, Duration, Janet M, True Long and Hurrah. These definitely are two dashes that will cause plenty of bettors much concentration.

Races four and eight should be equally as thrilling. In this class, Albert has again drawn the rail with Earle Macdonald's Callie Hal. In her last CDP appearance Callie came through with her first victories of the season. Many are expecting her to repeat tonight.

But trying their best to beat her will be Just Gary, Ginger E, Willard's Choice, Dale Regent, Ellen Joyce, Garth's Best and Torrid Waters.

Every one of the other five dashes promises action galore and nobody should be disappointed in this stellar program.

First dash leaves at 8 o'clock sharp.
