New York Stocks

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued its headlong drive Monday with a rally that carried it up to new 25-year peaks.

U.S. Gympsum shot ahead 15 points at 225.

Most sections joined in the upward swing. Steels, motors, rubbers, building materials, and railroads were strong relatively early in the day. Late in the session aircrafts suddenly came to life and advanced strongly, and renewed buying entered the railroad department.

Mail order houses, farm implements, motion pictures and distillers were neglected.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced $1.50 at $140.30. Last Thursday the market established a 25-year high, and Monday's peak topped that. It was the best since Oct. 17, 1929.

The industrial component of the average was up $1.80 at a new high of $129.60, railroads gained $2.20 at a new high of $104.90 and utilities were up 10 cents at $64.60.

New York Central topped the most active list up 1½. It was followed by Jones and Laughlin up ⅞ and Pepsi-Cola up¾.

Canadian stocks were mostly higher. Canadian Pacific gained 7-8, Dome Mines 3-8 and Distillers Seagram 1-8. International Nickel lost 1-4.

Giant Yellowknife, a Canadian issue on the American exchange, also lost 1-4.

Toronto Stocks

TORONTO — (CP) — Industrial stocks surged ahead Monday for a fourth straight session of gains following the United States congressional election.

Low-priced mines recorded big volumes and the day's trading was 6,887,000 shares, third heaviest of the year. It was surpassed Wednesday and Thursday last week when 9,314,000 and 7,457,000 shares were exchanged.

Consolidated Denison was the day's heaviest trader, gaining 20 cents. Quebec Nickel climbed 20 cents and Meta made a small gain.

Two low-priced mines almost doubled their values — Bathurst Mining with a 31-cent climb to close at 59, and Maritimes Mining with a 28-cent climb to 59. Both have properties close to American Metal Company's base metal area in New Brunswick.

Most low-priced mines climbed well in morning trade but eased a little in profit-taking later. Lower on the day were Lorado, off 30 cents, Pronto and Algom.

Hudson Bay climbed $1.37½ to lead base metals up. Golds and western oils closed a little easier but Peace River Gas and Pontiac were strong. Willroy climbed 39 cents in Manitouwadge stocks.
