Suitable Eyewear Improves Appearance

You will occasionally hear a person complain that she objects to wearing a correction of her errors of vision because of the effect on her "looks." That argument no longer applies. The modern eye service considers appearance, which can now by correctly chosen eyewear be enhanced.

STOCK QUOTATIONS

Morning Stock Letter

(Received over Pitfield and Co's Private Wire)

NEW YORK, May 2—The House of Representatives passed the $531,068,707 naval bill. Except for this news there is no other news this morning that will have much effect on the market. Radio Corporation's earnings for the first quarter showed net income of $1,268,691 against $1,618,025 for the first quarter last year. General Motors is scheduled to meet for dividend on Monday and according to Standard Statistics, Standard Brands is also. According to the Journal of Commerce on Wednesday next U. S. Rubber may announce refinancing plan. Mr. Joseph P. Kennedy, has been retained by Paramount Corp. as an advisor. We would expect an irregular market today with possible strength in stocks such as General Motors, Commercial Inv. Trust, Sperry Corp and Montgomery Ward.

TORONTO, May 3—From the view point of the present producers the budget is not so favorable as the hoped for increase in depletion reserve was omitted and corporation income tax increased 13 1-2 to 15 per cent. Dunning, however, stressed the great contribution of the mining industry to Canada and pointed the great future which appears to be ahead for it in the opinion of many, he stated, we have just started to tap the various mineral wealth of this country. His comments on the subject of mines tax were also encouraging and it is apparent that he realizes how important this phase can be in discouraging new capital in the mining industry. He states "I may add that certainty of taxation is a definite deterrent to the making new commitments in a hazardous industry. The mining industry may rely upon it that the government will not apply discriminating tactics.

NEW YORK, May 3—The Canadian dollar gained 1-32 cent in terms of the United States dollar Saturday, closing at 99 13-16 cents.

The pound sterling at $4.94 was ahead 1-8 cent while the French gold franc at 6.58 3-8 was unchanged.

BROTHER SENDS LOST WAR DIARY

(Canadian Press)

LACOMBE, Alta., May 3—A diary Robert Hainsworth kept during the war is being returned to him by his brother, M. Hainsworth of Doncaster, England.

Seriously wounded during the Great War, Hainsworth asked a German soldier to send it to his relatives. Private H. Lace, an English soldier, was handed the volume while serving in the Saar during the plebiscite.

The Central Guardian

FAITHFUL, the love story of a girl who was too true to be good—to herself, who, though poor, clung to her costly ideals, by Margaret Gorman Nichols, starts in The Guardian next week.

FORMER ISLAND LADY — Mr. John Stewart, Boston, arrived in the City Saturday accompanying the remains of his wife's aunt, Miss Christena Campbell, home for burial in the family plot at Canoe Cove. Mr. Stewart will remain for a few days renewing old friendships after an absence of 15 years.

CELEBRATES 40TH ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Drake, 191 Grafton St., were receiving the congratulations of their various friends and relatives on Thursday, April 30th, the occasion being their 40th anniversary. They were the recipients of some very beautiful mementos. All guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Drake many more years of wedded bliss.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Morrissey was held from Frank Hennessey's Funeral Parlors on Thursday morning to St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River, where Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. P. D. MacGuigan who also conducted the service at the grave. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Anthony Beagan, Wm. Coady, James Morrissey, Peter MacInnis, John MacInnis, Dennis Carey.

MARITIMERS IN NEW YORK—Among those who attended the last dance of the Canadian Maritimers in New York, at the Hotel Capitol, on April 18th were the following: Mr. Mickey Place, Charlottetown; Mr. Paul McNeil, Summerside; Mr. J. A. McDonald, Georgetown; Mr. Hughie L. MacDonald, Georgetown; Mr. J. C. MacLeod, Souris; Miss Inez Mutch, Charlottetown; Miss Evelyn Connolly, Charlottetown; Mr. Harry Connolly, Charlottetown; Mr. Arthur Connolly, Charlottetown; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson, Charlottetown. Over 2,000 invitations for the next dance, to be held on May 9th, have been sent out to Canadians living in New York City and vicinity, and judging by the interest shown in the coming dance, the largest crowd of the season is expected.

Personals

Miss Alice Garrett and Miss Eileen Halloran left Saturday morning on a visit to Boston and New York.

Misses Edith Court and Emily Stewart of Donaldston spent the week-end visiting friends in Charlottetown.

Mr. Thomas Mason of the Mason Beauty School, Grafton Street, left Saturday by boat to spend the week-end among relatives in New Glasgow, N.S.

Miss Millie Coffin, teacher, Suffolk, and Misses Ina and Sally Coffin, Charlottetown, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Coffin, Rollo Bay West.

PROPOSE HIGHWAY FIRST AID STATIONS

(Canadian Press)

VICTORIA, B. C., May 3—A proposed scheme by the Victoria branch of the Red Cross Society to establish first aid stations along the Island's highways has been forwarded to the Victoria Automobile Club. The scheme also has approval of the St. John's Ambulance Association.

In Memoriam

MR. HUGH S. MacKAY

Mr. Hugh S. MacKay, late of New London, P.E.I., passed to his eternal rest early on Sunday morning, April 5th, in his ninety-fourth year. He was born at Stanley Bridge, Aug. 14th, 1842, the son of Donald and Margaret MacKay. At the age of four he was brought to the farm where he spent the remainder of his life. He had suffered many hardships and met with accidents even in his later life which would have ended the earthly journey of many men. Mr. MacKay was a member of the Clifton congregation of the Presbyterian Church and always took a keen interest in its affairs. His cheery spirit refused to be depressed by increasing deafness and weakness. At the last he passed peacefully away without pain or struggle. The community sees the loss of one who linked us with the pioneers, one who was genuinely respected as a good citizen and neighbour. The Church has lost an unfailing supporter and friend.

The family mourn the passing of a wise, patient and affectionate father. The funeral service was held at the home on Wednesday, April 8th, and although the day was stormy and roads very bad a considerable number of friends, neighbours and relatives attended. His minister, Mr. V. E. Orsborn, spoke from the text Hebrews XI:4 "He being dead yet speaketh." The pall-bearers were Messrs. Frank Ramsay, Angus Green, Marshall Constable, Russel White, Wallace MacKay and John MacLeod.

There are left to mourn, one son A. Stirling MacKay, farmer, of New London, Mrs. Margaret Wickens, Laurence, Mass., and Mrs. Harry Goss, on the home farm. He will be sadly missed by his son and daughters and long remembered by all who knew him.

The Moose River Catastrophe

On Easter Sunday evening
Three men went down in the ground
To inspect the diggings,
A share of which they owned.

Then came an awful cave-in
With a roar of falling rock,
Trapped, between man and eternity,
My Lord! What a terrible shock!

Down in a subterranean cavern,
Trapped in a closed up mine,
The rescuers start right in working
To see if those men they can find.

Blasting and shovelling and picking,
Clearing the debris away,
Then came another cave-in,
Just at the close of the day.

There's Robertson, Magill and Scadding
Down in the wet and the cold,
There in a living sepulchre,
Down in a black, dark hole.

Scadding's the mine timekeeper,
Magill was a lawyer of fame;
Robertson he is a doctor
Who has earned himself a great name.

The whole Dominion is breathless
Waiting for news all the time
Of those three men at Moose River,
Trapped in the Moose River mine.

At last, at last they are rescued
By those brave draegermen,
Who risked their lives and their happiness
To bring them up again.
