White Sox Beaten Twice; Cleveland Dumps Yankees

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Staff Writer

Boston's fifth - place Red Sox threw the American League pennant race into a two - team tie Thursday, sweeping a double-header from Chicago White Sox 8-3 and 9-2 as the New York Yankees, shut out for the first time this season, dropped a single game to Cleveland, 2-0, on Early Wynn's four-hitter.

That left the White Sox, who took a half - game lead into the day's action, and Yankees deadlocked for first with 40-25 records.

Wynn's nine - strikeout job for his 10th victory, hoisted the third-place Indians within four games of the lead while fourth - place Detroit gained a half game to trail by six despite a 7-2 defeat at Washington. Baltimore and Kansas City were not scheduled.

In the National League, Milwaukee's Bob Buhl four-hit Brooklyn for a2-1 victory that lifted the Braves into a second - place tie with Cincinnati and within four points of first-place St. Louis.

NIGHT GAMES

The Cardinals and Redlegs played night games, with Philadelphia at St. Louis and the New York Giants at Cincinnati.

Pittsburgh defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-4, in 10 innings in the other NL game as Jim Pendleton, who had half the Pirates' six hits, tripled home the clincher.

The Red Sox, who had lost seven in a row to the White Sox moved within a half game of fourth place with a pair of four-run first innings — against Jack Harshman in the opener, and then against 10 - game winner Billy Pierce, who lost his fourth in a row and sixth of the season.

Frank Malzone, who drove in five runs with three hits, counted three with his fifth homer as Mike Fornieles, the ex - Oriole, gained his second victory and third complete game in as many starts for Boston with a seven hitter.

Minnie Minoso, 5 - for - 8, hammered a two-run double for Chicago in the opener, but Frank Sullivan already had his sixth victory locked up after one hit, four walks, and a hit batsman chased Harshman in the first.

McDOUGLAD HITS TWO

Wynn, who has lost eight while becoming the AL workhorse with 130 innings, was touched for two hits by Gil McDougald, one a fifth-inning double and the other a scratch single in the seventh after Hank Bauer had doubled with two out.

The 37-year-old right hander got out of the jam by fanning pinch-hitter Harry Simpson. Joe Collins singled for the first Yank hit in the fourth. It was New York's first regular-season shutout since last Sept. 26, when Baltimore rookie Charlie Beamon won 1-0, also with a four-hitter.

The Indians, with only five hits off Tommy Byrne, scored one in the first without a hit, then counted again in the seventh as Dick Williams got his second single and Bobby Avila tripled.

Byrne, losing his third in his first start, gave up only one walk —wild - pitching a fourth ball to leadoff man Al Smith, who scrambled allthe way to second, then scored on a fly ball and Vic Wertz' ground out.

LEMON 3-FOR-4

The Senators, who had lost five in a row jammed nine of their 10 hits into the first three innings gainst loser Paul Foytack (8 - 5) and Billy Hoeft for a 6 - 0 lead. Camilo Pascual won his fifth, with relief help after bonus kid Steve Boros singled home both Tiger runs in the sixth. Jim Lemon was 3-for - 4, one his 12th home run, and had two RBIs along with Julio Becquer.

Buhl, 6 - 1 against the Dodgers last season, beat them for the third time without defeat this year while winning his fifth in a row for a 9-2 record. He lost a two-hit shutout in the ninth.

Hank Aaron's triple won it, after Don Drysdale gave his only walk to Buhl, and Charlie Neal booted Billy Bruton's grounder in the eighth. Gil Hodges, who had two hits, and Gino Cimoli singled off Buhl in the ninth with Hodges scoring on an infield out.

Trainor Trains In Halifax For Fight Here With Mays

For one minutes and 57 fleeting seconds of the opening round at the Charlottetown Forum on the night of July 12, 1955 Don "Duck" Trainor turned tiger and scored a brilliant knock-out over Billy Crawford in what was probably the greatest punching disply ever given by Trainor in an local ring.

The man guiding Trainor from the corner that night was Tom McCluskey, the mastermind who has brought Ruchard "Kid" Howard to near greatness. And now once more Trainor has turned to McCluskey for guidance as he prepares for his ten round bout with tough Billy Mays of Boston at the Sports Arena on Thursday night, July 4.

Trainor is now in Halifax and in training under the coaching of McCluskey and it goes without saying that Trainor will need as m's help as he can get for in Billy Mays he is meeting who has has 48 professional fights and has stopped many of the best around the New England States.

Trainor and Mays will highlight a July 4 card at the Arena that will see promoter Ivan Doherty staging two ten round fights in the first main bout doubleheader brought to the Province in almost two decades. In the other ten round bout Cobey McCluskey will fight Dick Hall of Boston.

There will also be two six round prelims on the card. "Peanuts" Arsenault of Summerside will meet Freddy Dunn of Nova Scotia and Leo (Shipper) Steele of Charlottetown fights George Burns of Nova Scotia.

For Don Trainor this will be his first fight at the Arena this year. Trainor was schedule to appear on the opening card six weeks ago but in winning a ten round decision over Mario Nini of Bathurst he suffered a cut over his left eye and since then has been preparing for his fight with Mays.

At the time he fought Nini, Trainor was razor sharp. He won an unamimous ten round decision over the man who claims the middleweight championship of New Brunswick and the boxer whom North Shore fans are claiming is their next "Yvon Durelle".

Bathurst sports writers were lavish in their praise of Trainor after the Nini fight. They liked the Charlottetown boy and made no bones about it and its no secret that Trainor is in big demand in boxing circles on the North side of New Brunswick.

A tall, rangy 23 year old fighter with his best years ahead of him, Trainor has boxed considerably in the U.S.A. He started training this year under the guidance of Charlie Goldam of New York and worked out for a month under his manager Lew Myers who is also the American manager of Yvon Durelle. While Don was in New York he boxed wiith Spider Webb (No. 3 in the World's Middle weight ratings), Yvonne Tourenne, Jackie LeBau and Sugar Hart.

In a letter to Ivan Doherty, Myers stated he had a lot of faith in Trainor to go a long way. He instructed Doherty to match Trainor well and to keep him quite active as all he needs now is experience in the ring.

And now Trainor is making his first start here this year to gain that experience. The man he meets has the experience and he can punch as well and if clean living likeable Don Trainor is to go up the ladder in the fight game this is his big chance.

This could be the fight of the year. Local boxing fans will be pulling for the Charlottetown boy to come through all the way.

Little Beaver And Tiny Tim Win Wrestling Match Thurs.

Approximately 2,300 wrestling fans were on hand at the Sports Arena last night to witness the famed television midgets in action. The tiny foursome kept the large crowd well pleased and amused for almost an hour with their hilarious tactics and their many trick manoeuvers.

Little Beaver and Tiny Tim eventually came out victorious in their match with the rough Irish Jackie and his partner Sky Loo Loo In the other event on this wrestling card, Tim Geohagen was sent down to defeat, for the first time in Charlottetown, by big rough Bull Montana.

Little Beaver came out to grapple with Irish Jackie in the first fall of their best two out of three fall match, but soon was on the receiving end of some very hard punching and kicking by both members of the unpopular team. He failed to recover from this bad beating in time and was pinned for the count of three.

Little Beaver and Tiny Tim came back strong in the second fall and proceeded to make short work of Irish Jackie and Sky Loo Loo. Jackie got the worst of this fall and was finally pinned by Tiny Tim to even the match at one fall each.

In the third fall Tiny Tim was in trouble almost as soon as the bell rang but managed to get to his corner and tag Little Beaver. Beaver came in the ring and let go with a series of drop kicks that felled Sky Loo Loo as well as Irish Jackie. Little Beaver pounced on Sky Loo Loo and held him down long enough for the referee to make the count and award the match to Tiny Tim and himself.

In the other match on the program Bull Montana manhandled Dr. Tim Geohagen for the best part of an hour and went on to defeat the famed wrestler for the first time in Charlottetown.

Montana won the first fall in an easy manner. He just banged the Doctor around the ring until he was to tired to fight back and then he jumped on him and held him long enough for referee Fred Hayter to make the count.

Geohagen, a limp tired man in the first fall, came back strong in the second and trapped Bull into his famous sleeper hold. Bull soon passed off into dreamland and was just another victim of Geohagen's sleeper.

Geohagen tried to get Big Bull in the sleeper hold as soon as the last fall started, but Bull was having no part of it this time, he made for the ropes and broke the hold. Bull then started to punch Geohagen as he had done in the first fall and soon had him on his back on the floor. Montana covered him with a body press and thus handed Geohagen his first defeat as a single in a Charlottetown ring this year.

Orioles, Called Clowns Now Near 1st Division

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore "clowns" are putting on quite a show in the American League, in case you haven't noticed.

An exasperated manager Paul Richards caustically blamed the slide of his Orioles to within 3½ games of the cellar just one month ago on their "playing like a bunch of clowns."

Since then, the club has won 18 against 12 losses and now is within 1½ games of fifth place and 2½ of fourth.

They've acted more like ringmasters than clowns in the month of June. They've won three out of four games from the New York Yankees and five out of seven from Chicago, the league leaders.

Detriot also has lost a series and Kansas City two to the high riding Birds. Only Detroit and Cleveland have been able to take a series from Baltimore this month.

NIEMAN WORRIED

The Orioles, running hot with a four-game winning streak, start a four-game set with Cleveland tonight. Detroit and Kansas City were unable to score a run on the Orioles in the last 32 innings. And only one opposition batter walked in that span.

In his moment of miff last month, Richards announced "if it's at all possible, I'mm going to make wholesale changes."

He wasn't quite that drastic. But he did acquire outfielder Jim Busby, utility infielder Billy Goodman and pitcher Ken Lehman and recalled outfielder Joe Durham from the minors.

The Orioles have looked so good that Bob Nieman, last year's leading hitter for Baltimore, isn't certain of being able to break into the starting lineup. He's ready after being hobbled for two weeks with a pulled leg tendon.

"But do they need me back in there?" Nieman asked. "The way the team is going lately, looks like I'll save a tough time beating somebody out."

SPORT FORUM

McCluskey Always Clicked

Stiff punching Cobey McCluskey of Dartmouth, N.S. one of the most popular performers to show here in several years will highlight the Sports Arena Boxing Card on July 4th, when he swaps punches with undefeated Dick Hall of Boston, middleweight contender, in the ten round main bout. McCluskey made his last Island start against Jimmie Skinner at the Sports Arena in July 1955.

The Island born mittslinger has always impressed the fans, beating Gary Simon, Johnny McDonaugh and Rudy Watkins. Cobey's bout with Watkins a few years ago is ranked as one of the best witnessed in this province.

Cobey's training hard in a Halifax gym. A clever boxer he rolls from punches with graceful movements and is always on the move, he punches well to the body and hits with good power too. Hall propably hits harder than Cobey but he'll likely have trouble finding the target, the pair seem nicely tailored for an outstanding scrap, particulary if McCluskey carries the fight to the American star. Its an important fight for Coby because promoter Doherty has declared that if Hall can establish his fistic star locally its okay with him. Hall would be an ideal drawing card if he's as good as they say he is said Doherty.

One thing one has to say about this Billy Rocky Mays who will be taking a few shots at or catching some from Don Trainor in the other 10 rounder on the card. He is the frank type and this is going to by his record in Nat Fleischers ring record book.

Fighters or their managers, have been known to be striken suddenly with absent mindedness, when it came time to devulgh their win and loss record. They just happen to forget a few of the "losses" especially those that K.O. by, but Mays ring history is laid out in detail in the book all the wins and losses and even the K.O. bys. "What the heck" says Mays" I'm a fighter, I don't expect people to believe in going through unbeaten, you can't win them all you know. I lose so long as I know I've given it my best try. Seems as if Mays must have been giving it the best try certainly he must have made a lot of good fights else he wouldn't have been as busy as he has been since he took to fightiing for a living eleven years ago, when he got out of the service he's been exceptionally busy at it ever since too the extent of 48 bouts.

By comparison Trainor is a callow youth. Trainor has had 29 pro bouts however the kid is on his way, going by his performance against New Brunswick Middleweight Champion Mario Nina a month or so back. Mays is said to be a waderinner and this is a racket that is right in Trainor's kitchen.
