"They thought I must die."

"THE STRONGEST STATEMENTS COULD NOT TELL HALF IT HAS DONE FOR ME."

Hereditary Liver Trouble,

ENLARGEMENT OF THE LIVER,

Diagnosed by the best Physicians, CURED.

GENTS:—My father died of Consumption of the Liver, many in my family have died with the same disease, and a large part of the time for the past two years I have been very sick, no appetite, bowels alternating between Constipation and Diarrhœa. Pains all over my body, and severe pains all through my Liver, so nervous I could not sleep nights, and in fact was much emaciated and run down. My Physician said I had Enlargement of the Liver.

BETTER THAN COLD

The day before I commenced the use of SKODA'S REMEDIES, I had two different Physicians call upon me. People thought I must die. I had doctored so much and taken so many different kinds of patent medicines, without any benefit, that when SKODA'S DISCOVERY was brought to me, I threw away doctor's medicines, and began its use.

Soon I commenced to gain; my appetite increased; from being weak and feeble I began to grow stronger; bowels assumed a natural condition; sweet and refreshing sleep came to me nights; I began to increase rapidly in flesh.

I have now taken less than a full course (six bottles) of SKODA'S DISCOVERY, with SKODA'S LITTLE TABLETS, and to-day I am strong, am able to do my own work. In fact, am well and happy. The strongest statement I could make would not tell half your wonderful Remedies have done for me.

Respectfully yours,

RAISE IN WAGES

Concessions to the Ontario Mill Hands.

Two Rogues in Priest's Clothing.

Importation of Horses Restricted.

[SPECIAL TO GUARDIAN.]

OTTAWA, April 25.—The mill owners of Chaudier have decided to increase the wages of their men $1 a week over last year, for eleven hours each day. Tonight the question of reducing the hours of labor to ten hours was discussed, but the employers could only allow one hour for dinner instead of three-quarters. It looks as if concessions will have to be made in the saw mills in Ontario and Quebec.

Rogues in Priests' Clothing.

MONTREAL, April 25.—Two men in the garb of Roman Catholic priests, have been canvassing Montreal, Ottawa, Kingston, etc., for money for church work in Ireland, and succeeded in securing large subscriptions. In St. Mary's Roman Catholic church yesterday, the people were warned against them, as they are frauds.

House went into committee, with closed doors, to consider the amendments of the Legislative Council to the bill respecting legislation.

The Work of a Mad Man.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 24.—All circles of society here are greatly perturbed because of the horrible deeds committed by one of the Czar's trusted servitors, a highly talented man. The man in question is the choir master of the private chapel of the imperial palace at Peterhoff, sixteen miles from the city. It has just been discovered that while in delirious frenzy he murdered his wife, after which he chopped her body into fragments, which he burned in a stove. He then threw his three children into the river.

Prominent St. John man Dead.

ST. JOHN, N. B., April 24.—About 6 o'clock this afternoon, Daniel Patton, one of the best known business men and capitalists in the city, remarked to some one in the house that he did not feel well. A few minutes later he was dead. Deceased was under sixty years of age and apparently a healthy man. He had by far the largest wholesale liquor business in the province. Some fifteen or twenty years ago he bought out Senator Dever's business, he having previously been in Mr. Dever's employ. He made a good deal of money and had become one of the largest holders of real estate in St. John. His wealth is probably in the neighborhood of a quarter of a million. Mr. Patton had a great number of friends and was regarded as one of the most reliable business men in the place.

Fierce Fighting.

UTTER ROUT OF THE GOVERNMENT FORCES BY THE VENEZUELA REVOLUTIONISTS—GREAT EXCITEMENT.

NEW YORK, April 23.—A cable to The Herald from Puerio Cubello, Venezuela, says:—"This seaport is in a terrible state of excitement over the utter rout of the Government troops on April 14. At sundown on that day Palacio's army made its final and futile attempt to dislodge a force of insurgents under command of General Mora, who were entrenched at a spot just beyond Polito. Twice the Government soldiers had attacked the enemy and failed to drive it from its position. Discouraged over their ill-success, Palacio's troops showed signs of panic, but under the stirring appeals of the leader they rallied and again charged the foe. The encounter was brief, but furious. They were defeated all along the line and, turning, fled in every direction. The insurgents followed in hot pursuit, and did not abandon it until the terror-stricken Government troops were well on the road to this town. There were many dead, dying and wounded left on the battlefield. Some of them were rebels, but the large majority were followers of Palacio. Nothing definite could be learned as to the exact number of those slain, but it is officially announced that the Government lost one third of its force in the encounter. In this loss by far the greater portion was caused by desertions. As soon as Palacio's men saw that they were overcome many of them threw down their arms and went over to the enemy. The news of the battle's results spread terror throughout Puerio Cabello. It was almost immediately followed by a general conscription order. The town has 9,000 inhabitants. Every able-bodied man among them has been forced into military service. This state of affairs natually has had the effect of almost paralysing the entire commerce of the port.

The Morning Guardian,

APRIL 26, 1892.

An Unwise Change.

The following innocent looking advertisement, signed by the Superintendent of the P. E. Island Railway, appears in our issue of this date:

On an after 2nd May next Train No. 3, leaving Summerside for Charlottetown at 6.30 a.m., and Train No. 4, leaving Charlottetown for Summerside at 1.50 p.m., will be discontinued.

The Cape Traverse Branch Train will run Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays only, after the above date.

There is not much to it, but it means considerable.

At present three trains per day run from Charlottetown to Summerside and vice versa. The first to leave Summerside is at 7.30 a.m., the next at 11.35 p.m., and the express, on the arrival of the boat. The early morning train is to be taken off. From Charlottetown, going west, the first train now leaves at 7.30 a.m., (boat express); the through train to Tignish at 8 15 a.m., and the third at 2.50 p.m. The latter train is to be taken off. By this arrangement there will be no train going west later than 8.15 a.m. Summerside people, or, indeed, people living west of Charlottetown Royalty, cannot come to Charlottetown and return home the same day.

Then let us take a look at the last paragraph of the innocent looking notice.

At present the train leaves Cape Traverse at 7.30 a.m., connecting on time with the express at Emerald. Under the proposed arrangement a passenger takes the train, say on Tuesday morning, at Cape Traverse, at 7.30. He arrives at Emerald at 8.20. Now, we have not a word to say against Emerald, but we submit it is not the most desirable place for a man or woman to wait, in order to catch a train, from 8.20 in the forenoon until 1.30 p. m. in the afternoon. Charlottetown is finally reached at 3.30 p. m. Wednesday there will be no train going over the branch, so the passenger must remain in the city until 8.15 Thursday morning.

Once on his way home, let us follow him. He gets to Emerald at 10.09 a. m. Having spent several hours here on Tuesday he has taken in all the sights and has no desire to tarry again. But he must. That is unless he walks, for the train will not start for Cape Traverse until 5.10 p. m. The advertisement should have read: "Ladies will please bring their knitting when travelling over this route." ONLY SEVEN HOURS OF A STOP BETWEEN CHARLOTTETOWN AND CAPE TRAVERSE!

The Superintendent has not enlightened us as to what he intends to do with the eastern trains. We presume they will be left as at present, one a day.

We don't believe in grumbling, but really all this is too rich for our blood. It will come very hard on the people of Summerside. They cannot come to Charlottetown, as formerly, to transact their business and go home again.

We look upon the change as a very unfair one. Talk about getting the tunnel. Why, instead of getting increased facilities for travel we are losing those we have.

We suppose economy will will be given as the excuse for all this. There are surely other ways of cutting down expenses besides depriving the whole Island of its travelling accomodations. Do away with one half the fat and unnecessary offices, but do not take from the people the privileges they enjoy and which they have a right to expect will be continued.

We protest against the new order as an injustice to the people of this province, and hope the railway authorities will see th error they have committed and immediately cancel the order.

A Lesson in Humanity.

Mr. George Taunt writes: "The approaching Grand Horse Show is one of the leading attractions of the week. There will be seen at this equine exhibition handsome coaches, magnificent vehicles, beautiful harness and well-groomed steeds. But for those who have an eye for the well-being of the horse, which is as sensitive to suffering as the most delicate lady that will be among that vast throng of spectators, there will be seen curb-bits, blinders and a few check-reins, and the finest specimen of horse-flesh suffering from life-mutilation. I refer to the short-docked horses that will be on exhibition. To the kind-hearted ladies who will grace that vast gathering, I would say, observe how sensitive the horse will appear before you, not only to the manipulation of the reins of the rider or driver, but even to the tones of his voice.

If you but reflect upon the cruelty inflicted upon the animal for the mere gratification of a senseless and barbarous fashion, and the fatal consequence so frequently following the operation of docking, might you not be prompted to use your best influence to abolish this odious custom? In England during the past year over 100 horses died from the effects of lack-jaw, caused by docking. In one instance a veterinary surgeon reported 31 cases of lock-jaw, 27 of which followed the operation of docking. It is needless to say that the horse has exactly the same sense of pain and suffering as the most delicate of ladies. The check-rein may be conspicuous by its absence, not from any human motive, but in consequence of the mandate of Her Majesty ordering its disuse in the royal stables. The drift-wood of fashion necessarily floats in the current. The leaders of fashion among the ladies of Boston prohibited horse docking." Might not the leaders of fashion in Charlottetown do likewise?
