N. Y. STOCKS

NEW YORK (AP) The stock market advanced for the sixth straight session Wednesday in the longest string of daily rises since last October.

Selected industrial issues led the market to a moderate advance in a follow-up to Tuesday's late rise in the wake of President Eisenhower's renewed decision to run.

Among the losers, however, were a number of industrials, notably among the steels and motors, which participated in Tuesday's rise.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 50 cents to 187.10.

Best gain of a Canadian issue on the New York exchange was Hudson Bay Mining's 2¾ points. McIntyre Porcupine was up ¾ and Aluminium Ltd. and International Nickel ¼. Canadian Pacific was down and Distillers-Seagrams ⅞.

On the American exchange Shawinigan was up ⅞ and Great Sweetgrass Oil was up ⅛.
