Same mothers wear out strength and patience patching and fussing over their boys' clothes. Poor economy, we say. Now,

SHOREY'S READY TAILORED CLOTHING

for boys is so made than continual mending is not necessary. Honest woollen material, stylishly and durably put together, prevents this. We sell clothing for boys which does not wear grey or shabby, and which retains its shape and neatness.

We honestly believe there is no better or cheaper clothing made than the kind we sell.

The spring showing is now ready. Won't you look at it?

Latest from Summerside and Prince County

POTATOES are now bringing 40 cents in Summerside.

THERE were about for y-five passengers on the Northumberland last night.

Miss Isabel Macmillan of Wheatley River is spending a few days visiting friends in Summerside. She is the guest of the Russ Hotel.

THE remains of George Smith, aged 18, who died of diphtheria at Rumford Falls, Maine, were brought over in the Northumberland last night and forwarded to Howland Road.

AN adjourned meeting of the Summerside Improvement and Tourist Association will be held in the Council Room tonight at the usual hour, 8.30 o'clock. It is important that there be a large attendance.

Spring showers bring to mind the need of a rain coat. A visit to our mantle department now will show you the latest styles in Ladies' Rain Coats in specially proofed Gravenette and rubber proofed goods at prices ranging from $4.50 to $10.00 each. McGougan & Wright.

THE following young men leave Summerside this morning for the Canadian Northwest: Roy MacDonald goes to Revelstoke, B. C.; Charles McDonald goes to Calgary, Alberta; Walter Locke goes to Regina, Assiniboia; and Charles Enman goes to Wetaskewin, Alberta. The Guardian in common with a large circle of friends wishes each and all these popular young men every success in their new fields.

In St. Paul's church, Summerside, yesterday morning at seven o'clock the nuptials of James McAleer of Charlottetown, the popular second Steward of the S. S. Northumberland, and Miss Katie B. Noonan of this town, were solemnized. Rev. J. G. McLean officiating in the presence of a large number of witnesses. The groom was supported by his cousin James McAleer of Hope River, while the bride was attended by her sister Miss Cecelia Noonan. The bride was attired in a travelling suit of castor cloth with blouse of cream silk, and wore an eoru hat; while the bridesmaid was dressed in grey cloth, with hat of white. After a sumptuous wedding breakfast the happy couple took passage on the Northumberland enroute on a trip through the Maritime provinces. The bride was kindly remembered by her many friends with a large number of valuable wedding gifts; and many good wishes accompany Mr. and Mrs. McAleer in starting out o'er the matrimonial sea.
