NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP) The stock market rammed its post-election rally through the third session Friday but it wasn't easy.

Prices rose slightly at the opening, fell back fairly substantially around mid-day and then recovered in late trading.

Volume was the lightest since Monday because many financial institutions were closed for Remembrance Day.

Steels led the late turnaround as Bethlehem declared a special year-end dividend on common shares and Republic, Crucible and Carpenter joined in a price increase for stainless steel sheet and strip. Gains by steel issues included Bethlehem 1⅝, Republic 1¼ and Jone and Laughlin 1⅛.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials advanced 2.22 to 819.09 after having been down more than 3 at one stage. The Associated Press 60-stock average also erased a loss and closed up .8 at 299.5 with industrials up 1.3, rail up .2 and utilities up .6.

Standard and Poor's 500-stock index, which represents 85 per cent of the quoted price of all stocks issued on the New York Stock Exchange, edged up .05 at 81.94. The New York Stock Exchange common stock index showed a gain of 4 cents for the price of an average share.

Of 1,387 issues traded, 604 advanced and 510 declined. There were 19 new 1966 lows and 10 highs.

Volume slipped to 6,690,000 shares from 8,900,000 Thursday.

TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — Western oils scored one of their sharpest gains this year on the Toronto Stock Exchange Friday as the market advanced for its fourth consecutive session.

The oil index, an indicator of how key oil stocks move, jumped 3.11 to 117.95 after climbing 2.53 on Thursday.

Analysts attribute the jump to anticipation of drilling results expected within the next few months from the Rainbow and Zama Lake regions of northwestern Alberta.

Banff climbed 1 to 14¾, Hudson's Bay ¾ to 22¾, Great Plains ⅝ to 11⅝ and Canadian Superior ½ to 27½.

Industrials were led higher by Interprovincial Pipe Line which gained 2¼ to 80. Inco was up 1 to 87; Distillers ⅞ to 33⅞ and Falconbridge ⅝ to 86.

Among golds, Dome added ⅝ at 36¾ while Campbell Red Lake backed off ½ to 18¼.

On index, industrials were up .52 to 145.34 and the TSE .53 to 139.36. Base metals were down .35 to 89.34 and golds .59 to 137.98. Volume was 2,431,000 shares against 2,830,000 Thursday

Advances outnumbered declines 196 to 166 with 218 issues unchanged.
