"I Itched Intensely!"
A TERRIBLE SKIN DISEASE
Of Eight Years' Standing
"PERFECTLY CURED"
BY
Skoda's Ointment and Discovery.
LEWISTON, ME.
GENTS:—I wish to inform the suffering through you that SKODA'S GERMAN OINTMENT and SKODA'S DISCOVERY will cure the worst Skin disease to be found. This statement may seem strong, but I think a free statement of my own case, will convince the most sceptical.
For some eight years I have had a terrible Skin disease from which I have suffered untold misery. I have tried Physicians of repute and about all the so-called "skin cures," but the result was failure.
My body was covered with white scales. I itched intensely, and when I would rub or scratch the scales off, a burning sensation such as only those afflicted as I was may know, tormented me.
My skin was so dry that my elbows, knees, hands, etc., would crack open so badly that they would bleed freely. My scalp was so that I could not comb my hair, and had to keep it clipped close to my head.
I have now used a half dozen bottles of SKODA'S DISCOVERY and about eight ounces of SKODA'S OINTMENT. The result is I am PERFECTLY CURED. My skin is soft as an infants. Instead of torment I have sweet sleep at night, and a good head of hair.

Numerous Icebergs.

NEWCASTLE, May 16.—The Norwegian barque Europa arrived here from Arendal today. Capt. Grundi, who is a regular trader here, reports seeing more icebergs on the 3rd and 4th of May in latitude 48 to 49 north, longitude 43 to 48 west, than seen in his twenty years' experience. They had heavy southerly wind, and although the weather was thick during the two days they counted thirty-seven bergs, and on one occasion passed between two that were very large. They were about 100 feet out of water, and not more than two lengths of his ship apart.

A Case of True Love.

NEW YORK, May 16.—A marriage notice is published this morning stating that Heyward Hall McAllister and Miss Janie Champion Garmany, of Savannah, were married in this city August 22, 1887 Heyward Hall McAllister is the youngest son of Ward McAllister, and Mrs. McAllister is the daughter of the late George W. Garmany, a prominent lawyer of Savannah, who died in the spring of 1888, having no suspicion that his daughter Janie was married. The secret has been kept absolutely. The reason now given by the husband and wife for marrying was that they wished to make sure of each other beyond force of separating accident, and the reason for keeping such strict secrecy was the opposition of Ward McAllister to the match.

Returns to His Wife.

BUT SHE HAD GOT ALONG WITHOUT HIM, AND DID NOT WANT HIM.

WINDSOR, Ont., May 14.—Twenty-one years ago, Thomas Norman, an employee of the Kingsville woolen mills, deserted his seven months' bride and disappeared. The union had been a happy one, and no reason could be advanced for his unhusband-like act. A few months after Norman's disappearance a child was born, and since then Mrs. Norman has continued an employee of the mill. On Wednesday last a stranger came to Kingsville, and after making some enquiries informed Mrs. Norman that he was her husband, and endeavored to secure a reconciliation, but she told him she had gotten along without him for 21 years and could continue to do so the rest of her life. Norman says he has been all over the world, but refuses to give the reason why he deserted his bride. He says he has considerable property in Chicago, which he states he has willed to his son, T. H. Norman, a prominent young man of Ruthven.

A Doctor Arrested for Debt.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 16.—Dr. R. W. Buchanan at one time practiced medicine here and is well known in Halifax. He married the daughter of John Patterson, boiler maker of this city. The pair were divorced a few years after marriage. He subsequently settled in New York and married a Philadelphia lady, who died a few weeks ago, leaving him considerable money. It is understood the doctor came to Halifax at this time to meet his divorced wife. They have been seen together several times within the past week. This afternoon Buchanan went to North street station to start for Boston, but was intercepted by the police, armed with capiases for debt. One was at the instance of A. Lamphire for $41 and the other at the instance of C. H. Smith. A check was tendered in payment, but was refused as being on a "sand bank." After some words the doctor was taken to the police station, and, of course, missed his train. Dr. Buchanan's father-in-law paid the amount of his capiases and he was liberated. Later in the afternoon he started for the United States, accompanied by his first wife. The police were in search of him with further legal documents, but this time they were too late.

Confession of a Drunkard.

WESTERN MEN UNDER ARREST FOR PARTICIPATING AT A LYNCHING.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., May 12.—George Friend and his brother-in-law, Milion Everett, are in gaol here charged with the murder of Deputy Sheriff Williams of Taney county, and the alleged wife slayer, John W. Bright. Their arrest was made on information filed by W. J. Meshew. Meshew states that last Saturday night Everett, who is a farmer about thirty years of age, came to Springfield, and the two men, who were at the same boarding house, were assigned to the same room. Everett had been drinking heavily and before going to bed was restless and agitated, and conversed continually about the Taney County affair. In his sleep Everett constantly exclaimed: "Don't shoot him, George! don't shoot him!" The next morning, under a promise of secrecy, Everett confessed to Meshew that Friend fired the shot that killed Williams. Meshew related in full the confession of Everett, which described the shooting Williams and lynching of Bright, to Justice Chinn, and swore out a warrant on which the two were subsequently arrested. Friend is about sixty years of age and has a large family. There is great excitement both here and in Taney County over the arrests.

Roman Catholic Opinion.

So Archbishop Ireland says: "What a delusion (?) the good man has—that people should vote as they pray, preach, profess, or practice. What a pity he is not as discrete and as conservative as many other prelates! He ought to be careful. He may 'go too far,' and a man better be a drunkard than a 'too far' reprobate. He gets more warnings than the 'too far' drinkers."

Again, "The C. T. A. News is now showing the good which absolute prohibi- of the liquor traffic does in increasing the value of property. That's progress, and to some minds a stronger argument than saving the souls of men. One by one they come over to us."

Rev. Father Matthew, the loving and faithful advocate of total abstinence, who accomplished such a noble work in Ireland, wrote to a friend as follows: "The principles of prohibition seem to me the only safe and certain remedy for the evils of intemperance. This opinion has been strengthened and confirmed by the hard labor of more than twenty years in the temperance cause. I rejoice in the welcome intelligence of the formation of a Maine Law Alliance, which, I trust, will be the means, under God, of destroying the fruitful source of crime and pauperism." Cardinal Manning, at a meeting of the United Kingdom Alliance in Manchester, Eng., expressed similar views regarding this subject. Is it necessary to quote more to show that the Roman Catholic Church is in favor of the abolition of the liquor traffic, and that its people are ready to join hands with Protestants in working for and accomplishing prohibition? Perhaps not, but here are a few more pithy ones, well worth reading:

"One of the great blessings of No License is that it has crippled the power of the saloon, one of the most powerful, bold, persistent and audacious opponents to what is good.—Rev. Father Thomas Scully, Cambridge, Mass.

"The saloon is the recruiting office of the devil, of blasphemy, and of infidelity. It is the duty, therefore, of all who love God and the Church, to oppose the influence of the Saloon.—Rev. Father C.F. Burns, Providence, R. I.

"We know that intemperance has wrought evil in the liberties of our country and in the politics of our country. Oh, the meanness of our politics that will be led by the grog-selling element!—Rev. Father W. Elliot, C. S. P., of New York.

"Any American citizen who says it is impossible for us to put down those evils, to enforce the laws that are upon the statute-books against the liquor interests, I would say to him he ought to abdicate. We are able to do it.—Most Rev. W. H. Elder, D.D., Archbishop of Cincinnati.

Appointed Registrars in Admiralty.

OTTAWA, May 16.—An order-in-council has been passed appointing registrars in admiralty of the Exchequer court under the act of last session, as follows:—James Dunbar, Q. As I Want
TO give every Farmer a chance to reap a good harvest, I have decided, after a year's experience in the Lime business that I can, with a small profit and large sales, put the price of Lime within the reach of every Farmer in the country to get sufficient Lime to enable his land to yield him the fruits of his labor, which it is impossible to expect land to do without the aid of lime or some other more expensive stimulant. Parties taking Lime throughout the cropping season, will have the benefit of the cash price by settling their accounts by July 1st, 1892.
Price and terms for this season:
Unriddled Lime for farm purposes, cash 62 cents; credit 67 cents.
Riddled Lime for Mason and Plastering, cash 65 cents; credit 70 cents.
Riddlings or Slack Lime, cash 20 cents; credit 25 cents.
