ROSS' ARTIFICIAL SLATE.

Truro, Nov. 5, 1853.

To JOHN ROSS, Esquire, Patentee of Artificial & Metallic Paints.

SIR,

WE the Subscribers, House Joiners and Painters, by trade, having been using your "Artificial Slate" for upwards of three years deem it a pleasing duty to express our opinion, that this composition far exceeds any other paint for covering the Roofs of Houses,—apart from its fire proof quality its value for protecting wood from the decaying influence of the weather is exceedingly important. We know of many buildings covered with sawed shingles painted with Artificial Slate, which have stood the test of summer heat and winter cold, which are now as smooth, as when first laid—the whole roof appears to be cemented together, impervious to moisture and consequently not subject to decay.

We regard the application of "Artificial Slate" to sawed shingles as a matter of great economic value, and feel desirous that it should be generally known that sawed shingles so covered are superior in point of finish and durability, to those split and shaved.—We are sir, yours, &c.

Addresses to His Excellency Dominick Daly, Esq.

[Vernon River.]

To His Excellency Dominick Daly, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor and Commander-in-chief, &c. &c. &c.

May it Please Your Excellency:

We, the inhabitants of Vernon River and its vicinity, beg leave to approach your Excellency with our most heartfelt expressions of loyalty and attachment to Her Majesty's throne and person, and our highest respect for your Excellency as her Representative.

We hail with pleasure and satisfaction your Excellency's safe arrival in this Island, and your assumption of the Government thereof; and we cannot but regard Her Majesty's appointment of a gentleman of your Excellency's long Colonial experience and known liberal principles as a renewed token of Her Majesty's deep interest in the welfare of this portion of her people—the loyal inhabitants of Prince Edward Island.

We also beg most respectfully to tender to your Excellency our most hearty welcome to this part of the country. We cannot but view it as an earnest desire on the part of your Excellency to promote the best interests of the Island that you have taken this early opportunity of visiting the various localities, thereby making yourself acquainted with its wants and resources.

That your Excellency and family may long continue to enjoy every happiness, and that your administration of the Government of this small yet fertile Colony may prove gratifying to yourself and conducive to the happiness and well-being of its inhabitants, is our sincere desire and earnest wish.

On behalf of the meeting,

JOHN MCDOUGALL, Chairman.
ARCHIBALD MCNEILL, Secretary.

Vernon River, 14th August, 1854.

REPLY:

Gentlemen:

I heartily thank you and the inhabitants of Vernon River and its vicinity for this loyal address, and for the very gratifying manner in which they have welcomed me to their neighbourhood, on this first occasion of my visiting it.

I have nothing more at heart than to promote the best interests of the people of this beautiful Island, by a just and impartial administration of the Government, which I trust will lead to the harmonious and judicious exercise of the political privileges that have been conferred upon them.

Providence has been most bountiful to you in supplying a fruitful field for the exercise of your enterprise and industry, and I hope to see rivalry confined to the greater perfection in those pursuits.

It affords me great pleasure to meet and become personally acquainted with a population which has evinced so much confidence and kindly feeling in my regard.

D. DALY, Lieut. Governor.

Vernon River, 14th August, 1854.

[Murray Harbor.]

To His Excellency Dominick Daly, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor and Commander-in-chief, &c. &c. &c.

May it Please Your Excellency:

We, the inhabitants of Murray Harbour (South side), White Sands, Guernsey Cove and their vicinities, beg leave most respectfully to congratulate your Excellency on your assumption of the Government of this Colony, as the representative of our beloved Sovereign, and while we assure your Excellency of our loyalty and attachment to the British Throne and Constitution, we believe we may deem it as another proof of Her Majesty's solicitude for our welfare, that a gentleman of your Excellency's Colonial experience is appointed to rule over us.

Hoping your wisdom and experience, in aid of the wisdom and experience of the gentlemen lately chosen as the representatives of the people, will form a Government and Legislature that may do honor to your Excellency and themselves, in bringing into harmonious and permanent working that worthily esteemed boon of Responsible Government, graciously conceded to us, as introduced and fostered by your predecessor, our late worthy Governor Sir Alexander Bannerman.

We therefore most cordially welcome your Excellency and your friends to this part of the Island, sincerely hoping your stay amongst us in the Island may be as pleasant and satisfactory to yourself and family as beneficial to the country at large.

By order of the meeting,

JAMES RICHARDS, Chairman.

Murray Harbour, 15th August, 1854.

REPLY:

Gentlemen;

I thank you very sincerely for this manifestation of loyalty to our beloved Sovereign, and for the very gratifying terms in which you congratulate me on my assumption of this Government.

It is very satisfactory to me to find how truly you estimate the advantages that may be derived from the excellent system of Government that has been conferred upon this Island, which it is my pleasing duty to see carried out in the fullest and most satisfactory manner practicable.

It has been a great pleasure to me to have witnessed the evidences of industry, contentment and progress which mark Murray Harbor and its vicinity, and I can assured, gentlemen, that I shall not cease to retain a pleasing recollection of the very cordial welcome you gave me on this my first visit to your very interesting portion of Prince Edward Island.

D. DALY, Lieut. Governor.

Murray Harbour, 15th Aug., 1854.

[Hillsborough.]

To His Excellency Dominick Daly, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor of Prince Edward Island, &c. &c. &c.

May it please Your Excellency:

The inhabitants of St. Andrew's and neighbouring Settlements in King's and Queen's Counties, being now assembled, hail your Excellency's visit to this part of the Colony with feelings of the liviest satisfaction and pleasure.

We therefore take this opportunity of renewing our often repeated assurances of loyalty and attachment to the person and Government of that gracious Sovereign, with whose commands you have been recently honored to preside over this small but highly favoured section of her wide spread dominions.

We have always felt convinced that it is Her Majesty's desire to promote the happiness of her people in this Colony, and in selecting your Excellency for the charge with which you are intrusted, we are satisfied that object was kept in view. But the favourable reports which preceded your Excellency's advent to the Colony, and the wise and impartial manner in which you have discharged the onerous duties of your elevated position since you have come amongst us, fully justify our most pleasing anticipations, and enable us to say that though we rejoiced under the rule of your immediate predecessor, your Excellency is likely to take as firm a hold upon our affections, so that we may always give you, when you feel inclined to come amongst us, as we do now, a warm and unanimous welcome.

On behalf of the meeting,

JOHN E. W. ALLEYNE, Chairman.

REPLY:

Gentlemen:

Accept my best thanks for this loyal address, and for the hearty welcome you have given me on this my first visit to St. Andrew's.

The confidence which you are disposed to place in me, as the Representative of our most gracious Sovereign, shall not be misplaced. I trust I am too well aware of the responsibilities attending the high office which has been graciously conferred upon me, to be led away from the strict course of impartiality and justice, which can alone secure to me the approbation of my Sovereign, and the esteem and confidence of an energetic, industrious and a free people.

With the great natural advantages which this beautiful Island possesses, and in proportion as it is are those advantages more conspicuous than in this spot, where splendid ships advancing to completion, and an abundant harvest, are about to reward the enterprise and industry, which a bountiful Providence has given you the means of exercising to such advantage; and when I add to these a right sense of the freedom you posses in the constitutional privileges that have been conferred upon you, you have great reason to be thankful for the blessings you enjoy.

Let not the demon of discord mar this fair prospect of progressive improvement which is assured to you, and which, I sincerely believe, only requires the united exertions of the people to produce results that will exceed your most sanguine expectations, and which it would be my greatest gratification to witness.

D. DALY, Lieut Governor.

St. Andrew's, 15th August, 1854.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES IN CHINA.—The service in the Chinese temples consists of a low, monotonous, and rapid chant, the priests kneeling, one behind the other—one of the front priests keeping time by striking a tom-tom to every syllable, varied by another priest every now and then striking a silver gong. At intervals, a young priest, whose position was always alone, stalked up to the altar, bowed, and went back again. The priests' dress is of pale yellow and brown silk stuff. His head and face are close shaved. They are a despised class, being generally foundling. Any parent, thinking his son sickly, and not likely to be of much use to him, may deposit him in a temple, when he is considered dedicated. Up to the age of twenty-one a man may enter the priesthood, and he can never leave it.
