Pupils Of Mr. Arthur Vesey In Excellent Recital

The pupils of Mr. Arthur Vesey were heard last night in an excellent pianoforte recital, given in the Heartz Memorial Hall.
Many of the pupils are from York, Union and Brackley, as well as Charlottetown, and among them are several who played with much artistic insight and who show great promise.

Mr. W. E. Bentley, K. C.
The hearing was concluded yesterday afternoon, and decision reserved after which the court adjourned.

The case of Mary Ellen Bell vs.
Thomas Hughes, will, it is expected be heard this morning.

Mexico's second national highway congress, in which the governments of Cuba and Central American countries will participate, will be held in Mexico City in September.

In Memoriam
In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. John MacQuarrie, who departed this life June 29th, 1926.

Though we may mourn
Those in life the dearest,
They shall return,
Christ, when Thou appearest, Soon shall Thy voice Comfort those now weeping, Bidding rejoice.

All in Jesus sleeping.

LIBERAL CANDIDATE.—Mr.
Colin Bruce was nominated at the Liberal convention yesterday to contest the fourth district of Queens in the coming by-election.

FUNERAL NOTICE.—The funeral notice of the late Major Harold Stanley, D. S. O., whose remains will arrive in the city this evening will be held from the MacLean Funeral Home King Square tomorrow (Saturday). Hour will be announced in this evening's paper. Interment Sherwood Cemetery.

MCKENNA'S "STOCKS" GOING UP.—In a letter from Eddie Meade, manager of Jack McKenna, the Guardian was informed that Mc-Kenna made a great name for himself when he won his recent bout with Gerard of New York. He adds that the redoubtable Jack will soon be primed and ready for either Mickey Walker or Ace Hud-kins. McKenna, in the bout referred to, scored a clean knockdown in the fifth round and had the fans just as delirious in this fight as they were during the ten rounds of fighting between Walker and Hudkins.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.—The funeral of the late Charles Harper was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to the People's Cemetery. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev.
W. B. Muir assisted by Canon Malone. The funeral was under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. and their regular service at the grave was conducted by J. J. MacKinnon and George MacLeod. The Honorary pallbearers were John MacDonald, Howard Dingwall, W. W. Owen, J.
G. Bennett, John MacLaren and Laughlin MacDonald. The active pallbearers were Wm. Down, Gordon McLachlan, E. C. Vandierstede, Henry Laphorne, James Vickersson, and Louis Stewart.

—TAKES SUMMER COURSE.— Miss Kellie Holman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Holman, Summerside, left Friday morning for Woods Hole, Mass., where she will take a summer course in biology at the United States marine biological station. Miss Holman secured this scholarship when completing her arts course at Dalhousie University this spring.

—PRESENTATION.—Mr. Earl McLeod for several years a valued member of the dry goods staff of R. T. Holman, Ltd., was presented with an address and travelling bag by his fellow workers on Tuesday afternoon previous to his departure for Moncton where he has secured a lucrative position.

—RED SOX WIN AGAIN The Red Sox gave the Independents the short end of a 9-3 score last night in the fifth game of the Summer-side baseball league series. Doc Noonan hurled great ball for the losers but was short on infield support. While the Sox were airtight in both infield and out gardens.

—ANTICIPATING THE END.— Though the lobster season does not end until Tuesday, June 26, some factories on the North Shore were taking in their traps at the end of past week. The packers evidently want to end the expense.

—ANNUAL TEA PARTY.—St.
James Church, Georgetown, July 18th.
