

FROM THE STANDPOINT
OF GOOD BUSINESS
A GOOD BUY

Judging Oldsmobile from the standpoint of good business is one of the best ways to assure yourself that Oldsmobile is the car you want. For Oldsmobile has all the characteristics which identify a good buy.

First, it is a known quantity . . . a product backed by its own remarkably successful record over a third of a century.

Second, it provides known quality. Engine, chassis and Fisher body are designed, not as units of individual excellence, but . . . by Oldsmobile principles of balanced engineering . . . as parts of a perfectly harmonized whole.

Third, in smart appearance, in luxurious comfort and in absolute dependability . . . Oldsmobile offers marked value. Every comparison serves to make that value more apparent.

But why not make your own comparisons . . . let your own sound judgment be your guide. You will find Oldsmobile to be an outstanding performer in every way . . . and from the standpoint of good business . . . a good buy.

We will be glad to explain to you General Motors' Owner Service policy, the most complete in the automobile industry, and G.M.A.C., General Motors' own plan of deferred payments.

COVEHEAD RIFLE SHOOT

The first shoot on the salver was held at the Covehead Rifle Range on Saturday, Aug. 30th. The weather was very hot, and a mirage made it difficult to shoot. The reason that some of our good shots were low was on account of not shooting at the three ranges.

The scores were as follows:—

H. Cudmore	86
L. Maye	84
H. MacLeod	75
J. MacMillan	74
C. Hughes	72
F. Auld	65
B. Maye	62
J. R. Allan	52
E. Marshall	50
J. Berrigan	49
I. Carr	44
J. S. Allan	42
L. MacMillan	36
C. Maye	27
W. McCallum	15

The next shoot on the salver will be held Saturday, Sept. 6th.

Referring in a humorous aside to the Lambeth Conference, Dr. Gwynne Bishop of Egypt, said that a rhyme of Dean Swifts might suitably be adopted to express the feelings of the waitresses who had to look after them—

"Bishops hot and bishops cold
Bishops young and bishops old,
Bishops tender, bishops rough,
'Pon my word I've had enough."

Although the oldest European settlement in Northern America, Annapolis Royal is surely up-to-date when it comes to conveniences in the home—as is shown by the number of modern household appliances which have gone to this thriving city as premiums for Rosebud poker hands. One of the ladies in Annapolis Royal is proudly displaying her new "Wear-ever" aluminum French fryer which she has just received absolutely free in exchange for four complete sets of poker hands. Thus she is sharing in her husband's pleasure, and while he is enjoying the full, rich flavour and fragrant mildness of Rosebud cut plug, his wife is profiting by his preference to Rosebud, to obtain a much needed French fryer.
