R.C.A.F. Station S'side To Be Scene Of Conference

R. C. A. F. Station Summerside Tuesday announced that the Prince Edward Island base will be the scene of an important Royal Canadian Air Cadet conference during the first weekend of October.

On September 30th, approximately seventy-five officers, instructors and sponsoring committee members of nine air cadet squadrons in Cape Breton and Prince Edward Island will visit R.C.A.F. Station Summerside as guests of the commanding officer, G-C W.H. Swetman. Delegates from Nova Scotia air cadet squadrons in Sydney, Glace Bay, Whitney Pier, New Waterford, North Sydney Sydney Mines, and Florence as well as the Prince Edward Island squadrons in Charlottetown and Summerside will attend the two-day conclave.

The purpose of the conference is to discuss and consolidate ideas and problems to be presented at the annual provincial conferences scheduled for early in October. The conference will also afford delegates the opportunity to visit appropriate sections of their parent unit and discuss matters of supply and organization that will affect them during the current winter season.

An interesting two day program has been scheduled for the representatives. The Cape Breton leaders will be met at the Sydney airport by Dakotas from Station Summerside on Friday evening and flown to the Island base. On Saturday the officials will inspect the supply section at Summerside and be guided through a Maritime reconnaissance Lancaster before meeting in conference on Saturday afternoon. Activities will wind up with church service on Sunday morning before the delegates are air-lifted back to Cape Breton on Sunday afternoon.

The week-end has been organized by S-L C.N. Stanley, senior Air Cadet liaison officer who will also be chairman of the Saturday afternoon conference.

Wilmot Couple Remembered

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Curtis, Wilmot on September 12 where neighbours and friends gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs. Harry Curtis before leaving to make their home in Lot 16 where they have built a new residence near their daughter, Mrs. W. P. Millar.

The house was filled to capacity. Mrs. Brewer Waugh entertained with piano selections and a general sing-song followed

Mr. Elmer Waugh acted as chairman, and with a few opening remarks called on Mr. John Burrows who read a very appropriate address after which Mr. Melbourne Sobey presented the honored guests with a lovely tri-lamp; also Mrs. Earle Huestis presented Mrs. Curtis with a picture vase from the W. M. S. Society of Wilmot Valley with a purse included.

Mr. Curtis replied in his very pleasing manner inviting all to visit their new home but not all come at once. A dainty lunch was served. All joined in singing For They Are Jolly Good Fellows.

Dear Josie and Harry,

As you have decided to leave Wilmot Valley, we, your neighbours and friends could not let you go without publicly expressing the regret we have experienced at your decision.

You, Josie, will be missed in many ways as you were always interested in any undertaking that was for the benefit of others. You played an active part in church work and in your Missionary Society. Your place will be hard to fill. In your home you and Harry were ever ready to welcome friends and entertain them in royal style. You were always an ideal wife, Josie, always ready and willing to do your share. Thus set a worthwhile example for the oncoming generation.

Harry, you have spent all your time in Wilmot, from babyhood, up until the present and we can truthfully say that you will be greatly missed. Your familiar figure around the corner was a welcome sight to all those passing by. There are few residents of this district who took such an interest in our community buildings, our hall and school. Very seldom, if ever, did you miss an annual meeting of either. Your good judgement and experience will be lacking there.

Much as we regret to have you leave, we are happy for you. To see you moving into a new home, near your daughter, where we know, that with all the modern conveniences at your command your sojourn there will be pleasant and comfortable. We hope that you both will be blessed with good health and happiness in the future.

Please accept this gift and may it remind you of your loving friends and neighbours in Wilmot Valley.

Let's Talk It Over

by "d"

A blind corner at a stop street, plus a speeding car coming along the through street, plus coincidence of time and place, adds up to a serious accident. A car driver approaching a stop sign drives out as far as he dares to see if the through street is clear. He can see only so far up and down, usually far enough to turn into the through street without risk of collision. But a car travelling with excessive speed on the through street upsets the other driver's calculations, and quite often his car in the bargain. We saw a car going down Summer Street in Summerside today at a rate of speed which had all the making's of a first class accident. All it needed was a car being driven out of a side street at the wrong moment to precipitate a crash. The driver of that car, whoever he was, was as much a menace to the community as a man who comes out into the street shooting a gun at random. The gun man might not hit anyone either.

We read a rather original editorial some weeks back which likened car on the highway to speeding projectiles such as cannon, which whizz a feet or two from you as they pass by. A little miscalculation on the part of the driver, and they hit you plumb centre. It was the kind of edtorial that nervous drivers would do well to skip reading, but there was a great deal of truth in it. It might improve the enforcement of traffic laws if cars were considered more like cannon. A lot of care would be exercised in the firing of these projectiles, and a lot of people with licenses to drive a car would not be allowed within ten yards of the deadly engines of destruction.

LONG CREEK W. M. S.

Mrs. Tupper Strang entertained the members of the Long Creek W. M. S. on Monday evening, Sept. 5, fourteen members responding to roll call. Mrs. Melbourne MacEachern was in charge of the devotional period and opened the meeting by singing "Rise up O Men of God."

It was decided to purchase all new blinds for the church, each member to pay $1.00 towards same. Three members contributed to our birthday box. It was decided to hold Thanks offering service in October, the president to contact a special speaker for the evening.

An interesting report of the Baptist Convention, held in Wolfville, N. S was given by Mrs. Hector Currie. Mrs. Norman Stretch invited the members to her home for the October meeting with Mrs. Dan MacEwen devotional leader.

Meeting closed by repeating the Mizpah Benediction, after which a delicious lunch enjoyed by all and a social hour spent.

Wedding Anniversary Is Observed At Rosebank

Hillcrest Farm at Rosebank was the scene of a very happy occasion on Monday, September 26th, when Mr. and Mrs. Lester E. Profitt celebrated their golden wedding. On September 26, 1905 Lester Profitt and Margaret Gordon were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Gordon, Cascumpec. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William McDonald, Minister of Bloomfield Presbyterian Church, and the wedding music was played by Miss Lennie Carruthers of Howlan. Rev. Wm. McDonald is now living in retirement at Grand Pre, N. S. Six of the wedding guests were on hand Monday to offer congratulations and good wishes. They are Mrs. LePage, sister of the bride, Mrs. F. C. McAusland, Mrs. G. Heber Hardy, Mrs. Alton Rayner, Mr. Murray Gordon, brother of the bride, and Mr. A. C. Green. Two other guests who were present fifty years ago now reside in Vancouver and were unable to be present. They are Mrs. J. H. White and Mrs. Fred Harwood.

Participating in the festivities on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Profitt's son and daughter, Heber and Leila, Mrs. Fred Leard and their two little granddaughters, Lois and Enid Profitt. Joining with them were a host of friends who called during the afternoon and evening. Some of these recalled the fact that they had been to the chivari fifty years ago. Guests who came from a distance included Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Haywood of Worchester, Mass.; Mrs. J. H. Riseley of Kingston, N. Y.; Mrs. George B. Crofts of Cape Cod, Mass.; Mr. Herbert Donald and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Donald of Sea View, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay Hardy and Mr. Cecil Barbour of Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Profitt received in the afternoon and evening. Mrs. Fred Leard and Mrs. Reginald Mac Ausland attended the door and Mrs. Arthur Metherall was in charge of the guest book. The tea table, covered with a lace cloth, was centred by a three-tier wedding cake attractively decorated and flanked on either side by tall yellow tapers in brass candle holders. The cake was made and presented by Mrs. R. F. MacAusland. In the afternoon Mrs. Alton Rayner and Mrs. Errol Stetson poured. Mrs. Heber Profitt, Mrs. R. F. MacAusland and Mrs. Robert Hunter assisted in serving. In the evening ice cream and cake was served.

During the evening two presentations were made to Mr. and Mrs. Profitt. One from the immediate family was made by their son and daughter and on behalf of Bloomfield Congregation of the United Church of Canada an address was read by Rev. R. R. Wagner and gifts were presented by Mr. Clayton Stetson and Mr. R. F. MacAusland. Many other gifts and messages were received by Mr. and Mrs. Profitt, among them a telegram from Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Baker of Windsor, N. S.

Mr. and Mrs. Profit are highly esteemed by all who know them. For fifty years their home has been a centre of Christian influence and gracious hospitality. It is the sincere wish of many friends throughout this Province and beyond that they may share many more happy years together.

Following are the addresses:

Rosebank
Sept. 26th, 1955.

Dear mother and dad:

We are so happy to be with you this evening as you celebrate the 50th anniversary of your wedding.

We rejoice that you both have a fair measure of health and strength and so can enjoy your life and your friends from day to day.

Our feelings toward you are too deep to be expressed in words, but we would like to express, at this time, a little of the appreciation we feel for your love, care and guidance to us through the years.

From our childhood you have always given us everything within your means for our good, materially, often at a great personal sacrifice. We deeply appreciate this and are grateful for it, but we wish especially to say "thank you" for the many things you have given us which money cannot buy. You have brought us up to love and cherish the Christain faith, and by your teaching and example have started us on the Christian way of life the following of which is now our responsibility.

By your love and devotion to each other as man and wife you have shown us what happy married life can be, and for these and many other priceless gifts we are very grateful.

We cherish many happy memories and could mention many more things but our hope is that you know the love we have in our hearts for you both, and that we by our actions day by day can express that love in a more tangible way than in words.

As a very small token of this love and esteem we your children—two of whom you have had for "many years" and the two who have joined the family by marriage ask you to accept this gift, hoping it will give you pleasure as you use it.

Sincerely
Heber, Verna, Leila and Fred.
Mr. and Mrs. Lester Profit
Rosebank
September 26th, 1955.

Greeting and Felicitations —On this, your golden wedding anniversary, we your loved ones, friends and acquaintances have gathered here to join with you in this happy and memorable occasion.

Yours is a fortunate experience. Only a select few reach this zenith of maritial bliss. Our congratulations are yours in this favorable position.

Since September 26, 1905, fifty years have passed. They have been fifty golden years, because your marriage has been rich in love, affection and sincerity, binding you two into one. Your marriage has been rich in hospitality to friend and stranger alike as these have found their way to your open door. Your marriage has been rich in friendliness to your neighbours and in service to your beloved community.

Your marriage has been rich in the quality of the children which you have reared and given to God's world. So, we say, congratulations, on fifty years of gold.

At this time you will be remembering with gladness those lively days of fifty years ago, when young delight blossomed into full love. They were days of joy, hours of happiness, minutes of bliss.

We do believe that mirth and gaiety then captured, has captivated you both as together you have climbed another hill, the hill of life.

Another type of wind had blown—the wind of adversity. Yet with that mirth and gaiety you ever moved playfully forward. Now you sit on the throne of that hill, resplendid in adoration for each other in love from your children, and in affection from your friends.

It is our delight and joy to help you crown this day and these golden years by offering to you our heartfelt felicitations and best wishes.

Moreover, as you have always seen the silver lining behind each cloud; as you have begun each new day with faith in God; as you have sown seeds of kindness all around; may you so do, as on through the years, arm in arm, you make your happy ways.

And that you might remember,
After we have left,
These feelings that will live forever
Within our hearts still felt,
We offer you the following
Our gifts
And may it please you now
To receive them from our hands.
And may God continue to richly bless you both.

O'Leary pastoral charge, the United Church of Canada.
