Pistons, CeeBees Captures Wins

The Pistons gained sweet revenge last night at the Queen Charlotte diamond by trounicing the Power Kings, 16-10. The Kings took the first game Monday evening by an 8-7 score. The best of seven series now stands at 1-1. The Pistons pounced on starting and losing hurler Jim Cormier for five runs in the second inning and continued early assault on reliever Tom Monaghan. Together the combined efforts of Cormier and Monaghan allowed a total of 21 base knocks in seven walks.

Winning pitcher was Barry Stevenson, who is still undefeated in league play. Ernie Sellick and Ralph Knechone were top batters for the winning Pistons, going 3 for 4. Ron Rice had a very respectable at the plate with 4 for 6. For the losers, Lloyd Blanchard led all the hitters with a 2 for 3 evening, followed by High Mackinnon and Norm MacLeod, each with 2 for 4. The Power Kings garnered 11 hits and two bases on balls from the offerings of Stevenson. The umpire was Jack Chipman, assisted by Dick Bevans on the bases.

Tonight the Bankers and the RCMP play their first game in Series "B" due to a postponed game Tuesday evening.

League leading Corran Bann Ceebees trounced the fourth place Ellis Brothers Juniors 7-3 in a regular City Softball League game played last evening at Memorial field.

Joe Caswell emerged the hero of the game slamming a two-out grand slam home run in the bottom of the seventh inning with the bases loaded.

John Hughes hurled four hit ball, striking out six, walking seven in garnering the win. Loser Urban Gaudin gave up five hits, striking out two and walking four, one of these being an intentional to Andrews, setting the stage for Caswell's long blow.

Five Ceebees connected for hits. H. Morrison, A. Andrews, K. Hughes and John Hughes all with singles and Caswell's home run. N. Morrison scored two of the Ceebee runs reaching first each time by walking.

The Juniors hits, all singles were garnered by Gillis, MacIsaac, Petrie and Gaudin.

The game handled by Bud Lund assisted by Ed Savidant on the bases featured good ball with the Ceebees playing perfect ball in the field and the Juniors guilty of three miscues.

YUR OUT . . . NO SAFE

Umpire Mel Steiner signals San Francisco's Willie Mays out, but Pittsburgh Pirates third sacker Jose Pagan juggled the ball and Mays was awarded the stolen base. Action took place in fourth inning yesterday at San Francisco's Candlestick Park where the two clubs battled for first place in the National League. (AP Wirephoto)

Entries will be accepted at the local courts from Monday to Friday between the hours of 12.00 and 1.00, and 5.00 and 6.00.

Pirates Rob First Place;

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Two ninth-inning errors by third baseman Jim Davenport and Bill Mazeroski's run-scoring single lifted Pittsburgh back into first place in the National League Wednesday as Pirates downed San Francisco, 5-3.

The victory gave Pittsburgh the league lead by two percentage points over Giants.

Donn Clendenon, who homered earlier, opened the Pirate ninth with a bunt single and continued to second when Davenport threw wildly past first. Then Jim Pagliaroni sacrificed and was safe when Davenport bobbled the ball.

Mazeroski followed with his single and Manny Mota, delivered a sacrifice fly for the second run of the inning.

BALTIMORE (AP) — Three home runs, including Frank Robinson's 30th of the season, lifted Baltimore Orioles to a 7-1 victory over Cleveland Indians Wednesday night.

Dave McNally, who won his 10th game of the season, opened the seventh with his third straight single. After Boog Powell walked, Robinson rocked reliever Dick Radatz for a three-run homer.

Rookie Larry Haney and veteran Luis Aparicio also homered for the Orioles.

BOSTON (AP) — Kansas City battered five Boston pitchers for 15 hits and routed the Red Sox, 14-2, Wednesday night as Rookie Jim Nash won his fourth game.

The Athletics packed 12 of their runs into two innings, scoring five in the first inning on four singles, a walk and an error and getting seven more in the fourth on five hits and two errors.

Staked to the big lead, Nash breezed to his fourth straight victory with Wes Stock finishing up.

Mike Hershberger led the Athletics' attack with two singles and a homer. Jim Gosger also homered as Kansas City sprayed 13 singles around Fenway Park.

NEW YORK (AP) — Bobby Richardson and Joe Pepitone clubbed two-run homers and Haroce Clarke lashed a two-run triple, powering New York Yankees to a 6-3 victory over Minnesota Wednesday night.

The Yankees spotted the Twins two first-inning runs and then roughed up 14-game winner Jim Kaat for four runs in their half of the first. Richardson drilled his fifth homer after a leadoff single by Tom Tresh, then Mickey Mantle and Elston Howard singled and Clarke capped the rally with his two-out triple.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fred Valentine continued his blistering pace against California pitching Wednesday night with a grand slam homer and run-scoring double in Washington's 7-5 victory over the Angels.

The Senators outfielder now has 25 hits in 48 times at bat and has knocked in 20 runs against the Angels this season.

Ryan Leads Umps Ass'n

A Prince Edward Island Baseball Umpires Association was formed last evening in a meeting held at the Brighton compound following a ball clinic for all baseball officials. Umpire in Chief Charles Ryan was voted president while the Prince and Kings counties were represented on the executive by Don McAllister and George Smith, both vice-presidents. Carl MacQuaid was elected secretary.

Representatives from Souris, Morell, Georgetown, Montague, Mount Stewart, Tignish, Summerside, Charlottetown, and the Armed Forces Base.

All umpires must come from the association if they wish to umpire any of the various P.E.I. baseball playoffs. For all, playoff games umpires will receive 5 dollars behind the plate and $3 on the baselines in the Bantam division while for Midget, Juvenile, Junior and Intermediates the fees will be $10 and $7.

The Association was formed under the authorization of the Provincial Department of Physical Education in cooperation with the P.E.I. Baseball Association.

Milwaukee Is Called Out On Bid To Retain Braves

By JAMES R. POLK

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Wisconsin's Supreme Court called Milwaukee out Wednesday on its bid to stay in baseball, and awarded the vagabond Braves to Atlanta.

In a 4-3 decision, the justices ruled baseball is a monopoly, and leaving the city without a major league franchise clearly harmed its economy, but "the state is powerless to deal with it."

In modern times, franchise shifts always have been from cities with two teams.

The court returned the case to Circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller of Milwaukee, who had found the National League and its members violated Wisconsin's antitrust laws by approving the Braves' move, and ordered him to dismiss the suit.

The decision, however, actually is only another step in a series that long has seemed destined to be decided ultimately by the United States Supreme Court.

Wisconsin Atty. Gen. Bronson C. La Follette, who initiated the state suit, said he would ask the U.S. Supreme Court within 30 days to consider a review.

And a federal antitrust action, filed in U.S. District Court earlier last year by Milwaukee, is working its way up a crowded calendar, although it still may be a year away from trial.

Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-New York) said:

"Baseball is not a state monopoly, but a federal monopoly, and a federal antitrust suit is long overdue."

He told a reporter in Washington: "Baseball now is in violation of the federal antitrust laws."

GILES PLEASED

In Cincinnati, National League President Warren Giles said he was pleased by the day's developments and that as far as further action is concerned, "I'll answer that by saying we will deal with that as the managers say during a pennant race — we'll play 'em one at a time."

Atlanta officials were overjoyed while Milwaukee's generally declined comment on the ruling which said in part:

"The state can not regulate what is a national sport."

OLD PROS AT WORK

Two city tennis veterans, Doug George (FRONT) and Bud MacAleer (REAR) are seen as they polish up their play at the local courts last evening. Tennis buffs around the city are preparing for the Prince Edward Island Open Tennis championships which are slated to be held August 5th-7th. Numerous entries have already been received and there will be entries from all major cities in the Maritimes as well as some Stateside participants.

Thrilling Battles Highlight Summerside Race Action

SUMMERSIDE — Blanket finishes, perfect weather, a good crowd and some excellent pays made for a fine racing card at the Summerside Raceway last night in which the feature was an early closer for four and five-year-olds with a purse of $1,200, $600 on each dash.

Winner of the feature was Yankee Timber, the brilliant four-year-old who finished second to Andy's Son in the big lobster carnival free-for-all a couple of weeks ago. The black pacer took both the third and seventh dashes in times of 2.07-2 and 2.08. In both dashes he was trailed in order by Onaway, leading Maritime money winner this year, Borderview Eric, Doc Wilson and Adios Shyster.

Biggest pay of the night came on the daily double on the first and second dashes, with $133.70 being paid on a combination of Hallie J. and Sunny Key. Hallie J. paid $34.20, $17.30 and $7.30 in winning the first dash on the card. This was the biggest single pay of the evening, though another big one came on the fifth race when Timmy H paid $22.40, $11.10 and $5.00 in taking the dash.

There were three new race win records taken during the evening. Hallie J's 2.16-3 in the first, Doc Pride's 2.12-1 in the fourth and the mark of 2.17 taken by Mighty Sandy in the final race.

The only other double dash winner on the card besides Yankee Timber was Sunny Key in races two and six.

Other combination pays were $10.80 in the quinella on race six, $35.80 in the exactor on race four, and $67.20 in the exactor on the ninth for a bet on Mighty Sandy and Hilda's Best, an 11-year-old pacing mare who was entered on her first race ever.

Free-For-Allers To Go Tonight

Tonight will see the top free for allers on the Island battle it out at the Ch'town Driving Park. Eloise Wick will leave on the rail and The Greenbrier owned entry will be a favorite on the board, the Craig and Dawson owned Yankee Blaze who has paced the local track in 2.06-1 will leave out of the two spot and if Emmett Bernard can keep the son of Yankee Hanover flat going into the first turn we will have a very fast mile this pacer has all the color and flair to bring the crowd to its feet during any part of the mile, then we have Hurrah Another great favorite with the crowd and Elmer Ferguson will be gunning going out of third position to get to the top and finish that way in the mile, the Don MacDonald owned Rose Robin who has paced here in 2.06 and a fraction should be right in the thick of things and if she is not shuffled back in the traffic going into the first turn keep your eye on her for a tough finishing drive to the wire.

Next we have Donnaway who upset the bettors here two weeks ago when she roared through the stretch heading the classy field to the wire in 2.07-2, this mare will be very tough to beat if Orville can get her into a pew from the tough outside fifth position and save some of her tremendous speed for a driving finish to the wire, from the toughest position on the track will leave the Sid Stead owned Lee's Way C the winner in their last outing winning the hard way from the top of the lane home in 2.06-3, last but not least the only trotter in the class and probably one of the best in the Maritime's at present, the George Semple owned Little Art who was the best of his class last week in winning both dashes of the feature event in 2.08-2 then back again in 2.07-1 which was just a fifth of a second off the track record.

Tonight you could see this record erased by Little Art as he can leave like a runner and with the boys up front cutting out a good half Alyre Pineau could collect a nice fat cheque for breaking the track trotting record.

The Junior Free For All has five top starters headed by another great trotter Topway who broke the trotting record at Summerside winning in 2.06-4, the trotter will leave in third, Shotgun Hanover who has paced in 2.09-4 will leave on the rail with Roach MacGregor up, a new comer Miss Betty M owned by the Longworth Stables is fresh from a 2.07-1 mile at Truro will leave from the two hole, Amy Thorpe the Bill Boyle owned mare who paced in 2.08-2 will be a heavy favorite with the crowd and the Clarence Woolridge owned Mr. MacElwyn Key who took a new record of 2.07-4 will be going out of fifth looking for racing room to try and head this classy field to the wire. You will see the top Maritime bred four year olds go to the wire in dashes, 3 and seven with West River Boy fresh from a swinning effort in 2.09-1 being the favorite with the bettors.
