TEMPERANCE HALL COMPANY.—The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders of this Company, was held in the Temperance Hall, on the evening of Monday last. A larger number of Shareholders were present than we remember having seen at any previous Meeting. The accounts of the Company were submitted, audited and passed, and a dividend of 5 per cent on each paid up Share declared, payable so soon as the new and valuable debts due the Company are collected. Office-bearers for the ensuing year, were the chosen as follows:—

Capt. Orlebar, R. N., President.
Directors,—Messrs. G. Hodgson, Henry Haszard, William Heard, W. McKay, Thomas Williams, J. W. Morrison, Treasurer.
J. B. Cooper, Secretary.

An article on the Sons of Temperance Supper has been crowded out of this issue, but will appear in our next.

We learn by telegraph that the Couriers affected a crossing from this side to-day.

Died

At New York, on the 4th July last, James Whelan, aged 26th years, son of Edward Whelan, Truckman of this Town.

At Cascenpec Mr. Maurice O'Connor aged 71. The deceased has left a large circle of relatives and friends to lament their irreparable loss.

At New London, on the 19th Dec. last, Mr. Francis Pillman, in the 86th year of his age, generally respected and regretted. He Emigrated here from Wandsworth, in Surry, England 40 years ago, after serving as a seaman in the Ship Minotaur, under Nelson, and was at the battle of the Nile.

Beside his crutch I've heard the old man tell,
His battle scenes, how shipmates fought and fell.
Before his blazing hearth, his hoary locks pile,
He'd live in day, with Nelson on the Nile.
He lived though seamen scenes by years were gone
A Sailor still in narrow and in bone.
But how the old man's tale he has to make no more
Of tars at sea, or comrades at the Nore
His long trod threshold here, has lost his tread.
As if he never was, he's with the dead.

CHARCOAL! CHARCOAL!!

WANTED IMMEDIATELY, 80 G. T. Haszard's Book Store, a few bushels CHARCOAL.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

WEEKLY—ENLARGED.

ON the 11th of last April THE DAILY TRIBUNE, having completed its twelfth year, was enlarged more than one fourth, or to the size of The London Times making it considerably larger than any other cheap Daily published in this country or in the world. No change in price was made in consequence of this Enlargement—the paper being still afforded to Mail Subscribers at $8 per annum and sold to Carriers and to Agents ordering it by Express or Mail for a distance of 100 miles or more, for one hundred copies, or $15 per thousand copies, payable in advance. At these prices our aggregate receipts for our entire Daily edition do not exceed the sums we pay for Paper and Ink, leaving all other expenses to be defrayed from our receipts for Advertising. In other words, we return to each purchaser of our paper from us, the entire sum he paid in the naked sheet we send him, looking for the reward of our own labor and the heavy expenses of Telegraphing, Correspondence, Reporting, Composition, Printing, Mailing, Book-keeping, Rent, &c., to our Advertisers alone. We do not think it now possible to cheapen newspapers beyond this point; if it ever shall be hereafter, we intend to be even with the foremost in demonstrating the fact.

Our SEMI-WEEKLY, EUROPEAN and CALIFORNIAN editions were enlarged simultaneously and equally with the Daily, and also without any increase of price. We respectfully solicit a comparison of our Semi-Weekly at $3 per annum, Two copies for a year for $5, and ten copies for $20,] with any $4 or $5 Semi-Weekly, and will cheerfully send copies for this purpose upon directing post-paid application.

THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE entered on its thirteenth year on the 3d of September, it was enlarged to the size of the Semi-Weekly and Daily, adding more than one-fourth to its capacity—also without increase of price. This Enlargement adds at least $20,000 per annum to our expenses, in excess of the previous cost of our Daily Enlargement already effected. All our editions from the 1st of September appeared in entirely new and beautiful type, prepared expressly for the paper. Our Steam Cylinder Presses are not surpassed by any in the world. Even though our Weekly Edition should be rapidly run up to 100,000 copies, we are prepared to print and mail every copy on the day (Thursday) that the form is put to press, without interrupting or retarding the regular issue of our three Daily editions, amounting to Twenty-odd Thousand copies. We stand ready to adopt any improvements, however expensive, which will enable us to disseminate intelligence more freshly and effectively, and shall especially hail, as we labor to effect a radical improvement in the celerity and reliability of the Mails.

THE TRIBUNE has not now its character to make or to proclaim. It has not been and never can be a mere party organ. It has supported the Whig party because its principles and measures of that party appeared to favor the great ends which it has labored to subserve; it never advocated a measure because it was proposed or sustained by the Whig party. It holds itself at all times as free to condemn unsound principles, unwise measures or corrupt acts should the two former be propounded or the latter perpetrated by Whig leaders, as though they had emanated from the hostile camp. In so far as Peace, Liberty, Education, Temperance, Internal Improvement and Industrial Development may be subserved by acting with the Whig party, it must continue to be, as it has been, Whig.

Though never acting with any Abolition or other non-slave party, THE TRIBUNE is and must be the relentless foe of Human Slavery, as of whatever else tends to degrade Labor and obstruct the intellectual and moral development of any portion of mankind. Were it able to perceive that a vote in New-York could abolish Slavery in Carolina, it might attach itself to some one of the expressly Anti-Slavery parties: lacking that light, it deems it desirable to shandon the substances for the shadow of political good. But while it does not see its way clear of any effective Political action against Slavery in the States which now cherish it, it regards the defeat of whatever effort to extend the giant wrong under the flag of our Union, or to shield it by the power the progress of Abolition in other lands, as among the most urgent and sacred of public duties, not to be subordinated to any party consideration whatever. And, while it does not hope to render the continuance of Slavery impossible in a land irradiated by the sun of Christianity and boasting itself the great exemplar of Political Justice and law-guarded Freedom.

For Temperance in all things, but especially the disuse of Intoxicating Beverages and the legal suppression of the Liquor Traffic, we shall struggle, as we have struggled, unflinchingly and untiringly. We regard the Maine Law as essentially the most beneficent statute of our day, and confidently hope to see it soon practically universally.

The Congressional Reports and Washington Correspondence will, as heretofore, be both reliable and satisfactory.

The Markets for Grain, Cattle, Cotton and other products of the country, will receive proper attention, and be reliably reported in THE TRIBUNE.

On our correspondence with the most important points throughout the world we need not here dilate. Of the fact that our Associate, BAYARD TAYLOR, is now on the other side of the globe, sending us advices from the seat of war in Turkey, and expecting soon to depict for our readers the physical, moral and social characteristics of jealousy-guarded Japan, the public is already aware. We will probably return by way of Australia and California, in both of which we have several correspondents. Briefly—we shall spare no expense to keep our readers well advised on every subject of interest, and doubt not that the same generous measure of patronage hitherto accorded to us will continue to repay all our exertions.

Any friend who believes that he will do good by increasing the circulation of THE TRIBUNE is authorised to solicit and receive subscriptions; and, on due proof that money has been mailed and post-paid to our address, we take the responsibility of its safe transmission. Specimen Copies will promptly be sent without charge to those requiring them, and we trust many friends will be moved to ask their neighbours and acquaintances to join in making up a Club to commence with our Enlarged Sheet and New-Type on the first of September, or at any time thereafter.

A limited amount of space in the WEEKLY TRIBUNE will be appropriated to advertising.

Money may be remitted for subscriptions in letters at our risk, but the postmaster at the place where the letter is mailed should be made acquainted with its contents and keep a description of the bills.
