THE display of fancy and useful articles to be put on sale at St. Joseph's Bazaar, which opens on Monday next at the Lyceum, bids fair to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen in this city. Beautiful selections of fancy work of considerable value, such as fire screens, cushions, worked chairs, ottomans, etc., and a great quantity of smaller articles—pretty and useful—have already been received and still the donations are pouring in.

THE steamer Merrimack, Capt. Crowell, sailed for Boston this morning, with a cargo consisting of 16,000 bushels potatoes, 700 cases eggs, 30 barrels mackerel, 25 barrels hake sounds, and sundry other merchandize. NOT only are the charitable people of Charlottetown working well for St. Joseph's Bazaar, but also many others outside of the city. Mr. P. T. Fanning (Sign of the Golden Boot), Summerside, intimated to the management this morning that he intended giving a pair of the best ladies' or gentlemen's Boots (to be made to the size of the lucky winner), for a lottery in aid of the Bazaar. As Mr. F.'s reputation as a first-class bootmaker is not confined to P. E. Island, we feel sure that the person gaining the promised pair may expect an A1 article.

A TROTTING RACE between two of our best known "flyers", was arranged a few evenings ago. The stakes were $25 a side, and the race was to have taken place at Upton Park yesterday afternoon. At the appointed time a large number of sporting men, with their "fast ones," were present to see the affair through, and were much disappointed when it became known that it had been postponed. Several "flyers," however, tried their mettle, and some good speed was shown. It seems strange that with all the "flyers" and talking horsemen we have, a Trotting Association cannot be formed, and a series of races arranged.

FROM the mortuary statistics prepared by Dr. Johnson, a copy of which he has kindly furnished us, we learn that there were eleven deaths in this city during the month of October. Aid Wanted at Once.

SOUTHAMPTON, Ont., Nov. 4.

This morning a fire broke out in a row of buildings known as the Rossin Block. A gale was blowing at the time and in a few minutes the whole block was destroyed. Owing to the town possessing no fire apparatus the flames continued to spread and in less than four hours from the time it was first discoved, the whole street was swept. Over fifty buildings were burnt and thirty families rendered homeless. Some are entirely destitute, and unless assistance is given at once several families will want. The total loss is about $50,000, with only $12,000 insurance.

DALHOUSIE, N. B., Nov. 4.

The business part of Dalhousie is in ashes. Fire broke out in the Post Office building last night. Twenty-two stores and houses were consumed. The loss amounts to $80,000 with very little insurance. The high insurance rates and the fact that no fire had occurred for twelve years accounts for the small insurance.

A MAN named Lyle was dangerously injured while working for Robert Kent on the Miramichi river one day last week. The men were at work blasting rocks in the stream, and it seems had ignited a charge which did not go off. Lyle foolishly returned to the rock and sat down upon it to dig out the charge, when it suddenly exploded and blew him some twenty feet, injuring him badly. It is doubtful if he can recover.
