A SPECIAL MUSICAL PROGRAM has been prepared by Mr. Earle and the members of the Methodist choir for to-morrow's services. At the morning service Pieler's "Grand Te Deum" and Mozart's "Holy, Holy, Lord" will be sung, and in the evening "Lift up your heads" from Handel's Messiah. Mrs. Harrison is expected to sing a solo at the evening service and the selections on the organ by Mr. Earle will be taken from "The Creation," "The Messiah" and "Stabat Mater."

THE Military excursion took place last evening, under favourable circumstances—the night being very fine. It was a decided success. The boat left the wharf at 8 15 o'clock and returned about a quarter to twelve. The trip was very much enjoyed by all on board—some 300 persons in all. The trip extended about ten miles beyond Point Prim. The Artillery and 82nd Batt Bands discoursed sweet music. The hours passed in dancing and singing and other merriment. The committee are to be congratulated on the success of the excursion.

THE afternoon service in the Methodist church to-morrow will be of unusual interest. The Sunday schools of both Methodist churches will be massed in the galleries of the church, the body of the church being reserved for visitors. A very interesting musical program has been prepared by the Sunday school—choir and Mrs. Harrison, a soloist of thrilling power and one whose reputation as a singer extends all over the Dominion—has kindly consented to render a solo. Dr. Lathern will occupy the chair and the speakers are Revs. Hy Penna and Job Shenton and Mr. J. E. Irvine. Every one is cordially invited to attend.

AT the closing exercises of the Halifax Ladies College, on Thursday, Miss Enid Maclean, daughter of T. A. Maclean, Esq, of this city, received her diploma as a member of the graduating class. A recital was afterwards held. The Herald says the recitations were exceedingly good. A pleasing characteristic of this branch of their work was the naturalness of their efforts both in the reciting of the selections and the reading of the essays. They were not over-done in striving after dramatic effect. Their gesture was also commendable in its grace and appropriateness. Miss Enid Maclean's rendering of "The Chariot Race" was a most praiseworthy effort, one of the best heard in Halifax of the great scene from "Ben Hur."

LETTERS TO EDITOR.

The Church at Cherry Valley.

LETTER FROM REV. J. SIMPSON.

To the Editor of the Guardian.

SIR—The statements of your correspondent, "Cherry Valley," in to-day's issue, are as inaccurate and misleading as those of most of the anonymous writers who take such pleasure in maligning certain clergy of the Church of England. All w me to say, in reply, that:

I. Your correspondent could not have been present at the service he refers to, for instead of three persons greeting me, as he says, there were seventy. Since I took charge 2 months ago the congregation has increased instead of diminished, and I believe that it is as large now as it has ever been in the history of the Church.

II. The Churchwardens have just made a tour of the parish and they assure me that no person has left the Church on account of me and my practices. I have not been able to visit the people myself yet and therefore cannot corroborate their statement.

III. I have introduced no ritualistic practices at Cherry Valley and the services are conducted by me with due regard to Protestant simplicity.

IV. The charge of Cherry Valley was none of my seeking; four services and a Sunday school at St. Peters, give me quite enough work every Sunday without driving twenty four miles to take another service and Sunday school, and it is only to keep the congregation together until they can get a resident clergyman, that I undertake the duty at all. A deputation of the congregation waited on me after Easter and asked me to give them services, I declined to do so until a resolution to that effect was brought before a meeting of the congregation and passed in a proper way. A meeting was called, the resolution was carried unanimously, and sent to the Bishop of Nova Scotia for confirmation.

V. I am not at all discouraged with the work as a good deal of enthusiasm is manifest among the congregation, and I only regret that I cannot give more time to the parish than I do.

I hope "Cherry Valley" will be honest enough to withdraw the statements he has made, as he can have no trouble in proving them untrue.

Yours faithfully,
JAMES SIMPSON.

Missionary in charge of Cherry Valley, P. E. I.

[It is certainly in order for Cherry Valley to rise and explain.—ED. G.]

Letter From Mr. T. M. Patton.

SIR,—Your correspondent Cherry Valley is very much in error about the Church of England at Cherry Valley. He says, "As many as three greeted the Rev. James Simpson the last service he held here." Now, sir, I went down with Mr. Simpson, and I can certify that by actual count there were seventy people present, of whom the majority were men, and also that at the catechizing of the Sunday school children before the service, nearly all the congregation were present and seemed greatly interested.

T. M. PATTON.

The Half Holiday.

SIR,—Surely the merchants of this town are not so selfish as to deny their clerks the Monday half holiday through July and August! The movement everywhere is toward shorter hours, and I see no reason why a few selfish persons here should prevent hundreds from enjoying this greatly valued privilege this summer.

Yours truly,
MERCHANT.

SOMETHING INTERESTING ABOUT CURTAINS.

Net Muslins are still very popular and we never had such a large and pretty variety to show you, but we want to tell you about a mistake we made in buying Lace Curtains and the consequence.

THE MISTAKE.

Our buyer thought that twice the quantity we bought each year would supply the demand this year, and therefore only bought that number of pairs. This, however, was a decided miscalculation, as the popularity of this department and the business done, has exceeded our wildest hopes.

THE CONSEQUENCE.

Already we are sold out of all low-priced Curtains and still the demand continues. There is no time to re-order and we have therefore decided to take 100 pairs of our higher priced Curtains and mark them at exceptionally low prices for a week. Now, this is your chance if you want Curtains of any kind. It is only the great success of this department enables us to offer such bargains. The reduced prices are all marked in plain figures. See them.
