

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

"The latest news first of all."

P. D. McGuigan, Belle River, was in the city yesterday.

A. P. Prowse, Murray Harbor, was in the City yesterday.

Ewen Campbell, City, was a passenger west yesterday.

Richard Rowe of Coleman, has returned from Gaspe, Que.

George R. Montgomery, Montague, was in the City yesterday.

There were no cases tried before the City Police Court yesterday.

The mail train arrived in Charlottetown at ten ten last evening.

Miss Eden of Dartmouth, N. S., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Gavin Dufy, City.

Miss Lulu Tuplin, Margate, left yesterday morning on a visit to Chicago, Illinois.

Miss Wightman of Lower Montague, who has been visiting W. O. and Mrs. Stewart Westville, N. S., has returned home.

The outward cargo by the Northumberland yesterday morning to Picton included 500 bags potatoes and one hundred and twenty six bags of oats, the latter to the Barbadoes.

New Wonderland is nightly growing in favor and for night's past large audiences have been in attendance. The picture last night were excellent and Miss Von Branders is certainly a favorite singer.

Most favorable comment has been made on the special cable pages which have been appearing in The Guardian from week to week. The one which is to appear tomorrow is of world wide interest and will prove most profitable reading.

Enquiry made last night of Dr. R. M. Johnson, Chairman of the Board of Health in regard to scarlet fever among the pupils of the Normal School, led to his expressing the opinion that there are no new cases and that ample precautions have been taken.

Mrs. William Harris thinks she can beat both Mr. Brehaut's and The Guardian's big appts, for she recently picked one of the Alexander variety which measured fourteen inches in circumference and weighed fourteen ounces. Is there a Bishop Pippin apple grower, who can beat this.

A large number of citizens were present yesterday to pay their last respects to the memory of the late Mrs. Weeks. The floral offerings were exceptionally beautiful and were telling expressions of the loving sympathy. Following were the pall bearers: Major Leigh, G. A. Gane, Lieut. Gov. McKinnon, Anas McDonald, C. R. Smallwood and G. A. Warburton. Rev. H. E. Thomas assisted by Rev. T. F. Fullerton, Rev. Wm. Harrison and Rev. G. E. Ross conducted the impressive services. Interment being at Sherwood. The floral tributes were conveyed to Sherwood Cemetery by special carriage in the afternoon.

The following were registered at the Queen Hotel, City, last night: L. E. Distant, Halifax; Daniel Stewart, Glenfanning; M. Kelly, Toronto; Wm. Richards, Sibleford; James E. Gordon, Alberton; G. S. Gordon D. D., Alberton; Mrs. H. Truland, Georgetown; Miss R. McPhee, Bayfield; R. M. Dunn, city; J. McGarigle, St. John; G. L. Cohoon, Toronto; B. W. Brown, Winnipeg; J. H. Currier, wife and daughter, Lewis, Que.

The Sisters and pupils of Notre Dame Convent were given a great treat yesterday afternoon. Signor and Madame Francini of the Boston players, in response to an invitation extended by a music lover favored the Convent with a call. Madame Francini was asked to sing. She gave four splendid numbers the last being a composition of Signor Francini's. Madame has a wonderful voice, as beautiful in quality of tone as it is extensive in compass. The Mother Superior and His Lordship Bishop MacDonald extended the thanks of a delighted audience. At the City Hospital Miss Stetzler and Miss Richey sang to the patients. The former contributed four numbers. All those who enjoyed Miss Stetzler's rendition of Aucena on Tuesday evening will know what delight she would give to her auditory in "The Lost Chord," "The Palms," "The Rosary" etc. Miss Richey gave "The Flower Song" from her role of Liel in Faust. It is learned that Miss Darling and Mr. Paul have generously accepted an invitation to sing today. Owing to some severe cases of sickness a visit to the P. E. I. Hospital had to be cancelled. The writer tenders heartfelt thanks to these artists, though their best thanks were found in the delight expressed by the patients.

St. Paul's Church branch of the Womens Auxiliary of this city met in their school room yesterday afternoon. About thirty of the women of the congregation were present and an organization was formed. They decided to work for Rev. John Antal's Columbia Coast Mission, also for Bishop Bontas's Memorial Church being built in Bishop Stringers diocese.
